NOTICE TO ARRESTED PERSONS

Please review the information below that explains your release and your duty to comply. The information below is subject to change without advance notice.

CITATION RELEASE

If you are eligible, you may be released immediately on your promise to go to D.C. Superior Court, 500 Indiana Ave., NW, Washington, D.C. on the date and time on the Citation Release section on Page 1 of this document.

A prosecutor will decide whether to file a criminal case against you. If you do not appear in Court, a bench warrant may be issued for your arrest. In addition, you could be charged with failing to appear even if the prosecutor decides to drop the case.

As a condition of your release on citation, you may be directed to stay away from and have no contact with a particular person or persons and/or to stay away from a particular place until you appear in Court.

If you violate the stay away, a police officer can immediately arrest you, and you will be brought to Court on the next day that the Court is open. If the prosecutor charges you with any crime, you will have a right to be represented by an attorney. If you cannot afford an attorney, one will be provided for you.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Even though you were arrested, the government may decide not to file charges against you in Court. It is important that you bring the citation release form with you to Court on your arraignment date because it contains information that you may need to identify whether or not the government has filed charges in Court.

FOR CASE INFORMATION

For information on the status of your case, you may call the D.C. Superior Court's Criminal Division Customer Service line at (202) 879-1373.

POST AND FORFEIT MONEY

If you have been charged with an eligible offense and you are eligible to post and forfeit, you may pay the amount of money set by the Court for the offense and the case will end. If you choose to pay the amount set, you will NOT get your money back because you are agreeing to forfeit the amount. No sanction, penalty, enhanced sentence, or civil disability will be imposed by any District of Columbia court or agency in any subsequent criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding or action if you post and forfeit. You WILL have an arrest record. You may file a motion with the Superior Court to seal your arrest record. For more information regarding sealing your record, you can contact the Public Defender Service of the District of Columbia at 202-628-1200 or via email at www.pds.dc.org.

- WHAT IF YOU CHANGE YOUR MIND AND DECIDE TO CONTEST THE CHARGES? If you decide you would rather appear in Court after you post the money, you can file a "Motion to Set Aside Forfeiture" within 90 days of today's date.
- WHAT IF THE GOVERNMENT DECIDED TO OPPOSE YOUR POST AND FORFEIT DECISION? The Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia, the prosecutor for this case, may file a "Motion to Set Aside Forfeiture" within 90 days.
- WHAT HAPPENS IF THE COURT GRANTS THE MOTION? If your motion or the government's motion is granted, the charges be reinstated and you will have to go to Court. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for appointed counsel.

If you choose not to post and forfeit and elect to continue the criminal case, you are eligible for release on citation.
