ShankerClerkship@dcaappeals.gov

Judge Shanker employs three law clerks to assist him in chambers. Clerkship terms are for one year and typically begin in late August or early September. The judge welcomes applicants with diverse backgrounds, employment experience before or after law school, and an interest in government service or public interest work.

Judge Shanker has completed hiring through the 2024-2025 term and is currently accepting applications for 2025-2026 and thereafter.

Judge Shanker accepts applications from law school graduates and third-year law students on a rolling basis. Consistent with the Federal Law Clerk Hiring Plan, he will not review applications from second-year students/rising third-year students before the date specified in the Hiring Plan. Second-year students may submit applications before spring grades are released, but should supplement their application packets once updated transcripts become available.

Clerkship applicants should submit a cover letter; a resume; a law school transcript; a list of three references; and a writing sample, not to exceed 15 pages, representing the applicant's own work unedited by others. These materials should be sent as a single PDF file to ShankerClerkship@dcaappeals.gov. Applicants should also arrange for three letters of recommendation to be sent to the same email address.

Please note: Judicial law clerks are eligible to begin at Grade 11 of the Judiciary Salary Plan Pay Rates. Clerks with 0-365 days of post-J.D. legal experience are eligible to be hired at Grade 11, Step 1. Additional post-J.D. legal experience may qualify clerks to start at a higher step within Grade 11. Please note that D.C. Courts law clerks do not advance grades based on post-J.D. legal experience. Law clerks also do not advance additional steps once hired, unless they are employed as a law clerk on the court for more than a year.
