Judge Beckwith has completed hiring for the 2024–2025 term.

Judge Beckwith is currently accepting applications from law school graduates and third-year law students for the 2025-2026 term and hires such applicants on a rolling basis. Consistent with the amended federal law clerk hiring plan, she will not review applications from students who entered law school in 2022 before June 10, 2024. Second-year students may submit applications before spring grades are released, but should supplement their application packets once updated transcripts become available.

Clerkship terms are for one year and typically begin in late August or early September. The judge welcomes applicants with diverse backgrounds and employment experience prior to or after law school.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, a resume, an official or unofficial law school transcript, an undergraduate transcript (optional), a writing sample, and at least two letters of recommendation. These materials should be sent electronically—preferably in a single PDF file—to BCA@dcappeals.gov. Recommenders may transmit their letters separately.

Please feel free to email or call Judge Beckwith’s office with any questions.
