

Superior Court of the District of Columbia

NOTICE OF CANDIDACY OF:

Errol R. Arthur
Lloyd U. Nolan, Jr.

This is to notify members of the bench, bar, and general public that the above-named Magistrate Judges have declared their candidacy for reappointment as a Magistrate Judge of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. Magistrate Judges Errol Arthur and Lloyd Nolan's terms will expire on August 2, 2014.

Pursuant to the Standards and Procedures for the Selection and Tenure of Magistrate Judges, a committee of Superior Court Judges designated by the Chief Judge will review the Magistrate Judge's prior service and any comments from members of the bench, bar, and public. Following its review, the Committee will submit to the Chief Judge a written report and recommendation concerning the candidacy for reappointment. Comments on the performance of Magistrate Judges Arthur and Nolan are invited. Comments must be received on or before May 29, 2014, and should be mailed to:

The Honorable Russell F. Canan, Chairperson
Committee on the Selection and Tenure of Magistrate Judges
Superior Court of the District of Columbia
500 Indiana Avenue, N.W.
Chambers #3420
Washington, DC 20001

Any information received by the Committee concerning a candidate under consideration for reappointment shall be maintained in strict confidence.

THE HONORABLE ERROL R. ARTHUR
MAGISTRATE JUDGE
SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Errol R. Arthur was appointed by Chief Judge Lee F. Satterfield on August 2, 2010.

Errol Arthur is a native Washingtonian. He graduated from St. John's College High School in 1990, and received his B.A. in English from the University of Maryland at College Park in 1994. After graduating from Maryland, Mr. Arthur entered the Howard University School of Law. While at Howard Law, Mr. Arthur was a student attorney in the Criminal Justice Clinic, and Editor In Chief of The Barrister, Howard Law's Newspaper.

After graduating from Howard Law in 1998, Mr. Arthur obtained a clerkship with the Honorable Mary A. Gooden Terrell of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. In that capacity, he worked on a variety of criminal law and child abuse and neglect issues.

After completing his clerkship with Judge Terrell in 1999, Mr. Arthur joined the Public Defender Service for the District of Columbia (PDS) as a staff attorney. While at PDS, he represented indigent clients in criminal, delinquency, and parole matters before the D.C. Superior Court, United States Parole Commission, and the D.C. Department Youth Rehabilitation Services.

In 2002, Mr. Arthur started his own law practice. Mr. Arthur represented clients in the District of Columbia and in Maryland in criminal, delinquency, child abuse and neglect, and civil matters. Mr. Arthur maintained his law practice until his appointment as a Magistrate Judge.

In 2008, Mayor Adrian Fenty appointed Mr. Arthur as the Chairman of the Board of Elections and Ethics for the District of Columbia where he provided oversight for the District's Board of Elections as well as the District's Office of Campaign Finance. Additionally, Mr. Arthur, along with fellow Board members assisted in the administration of the District's elections, the selection and implementation of the new voting equipment, and enforcement of the District's elections and campaign finance laws.

Judge Arthur is married to Ms. Sherri M. Beatty-Arthur, Esq., and has two children.