Insert as much space, below, as needed to answer the questions.

1. Why are you interested in taking this mediation training?
2. What do you believe will make you a good mediator?
3. If accepted, you will be mediating civil cases in a court environment. In your view, what is the mediator's main role in helping parties reach resolution?
4. In what area(s) do you consider yourself an expert? (Examples may include business, law, employment, contracts, real estate, etc. Do not refer us to your resume.) Please include specific examples of the experience and/or knowledge that make you an expert.
5. In what additional area(s) do you have significant experience, if not expertise? Please describe with specific examples as in #4.
6. If you have taken mediation training elsewhere, please list the program(s) below. If you have mediated cases in that or another program, please list the program, number of cases mediated and approximate date range of service (i.e., March 2005 to July 2006).
7. If accepted for this training, will you commit to making yourself available to mediate at least twice each month (Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday mornings, from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm) for the year following the completion of training and mentorship?
8. Are you available to attend the entire training course, on September 4, 5, 11, and 12, 2014, from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm each day and a follow-up day on November 21, 2014 from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm?
9. Are you an attorney? If yes, have you practiced law in the District of Columbia?
10. How did you learn about this training opportunity?

REMEMBER TO INCLUDE A RESUME WITH YOUR APPLICATION.
