

By Brandon Benavides

NBCWashington.com updated 45 minutes ago

Everyone gets called for jury duty. Yep, even the mayor of the nation's capital.

D.C. Mayor Vincent Gray has been summoned for jury duty. He is expected to report to D.C. Superior Court Monday to spend part of his day performing his civic duty just like any else called to jury duty. Back in January, former D.C. Mayor Adrian Fenty also reported for jury duty, though he was dismissed from the pool.