

Superior Court of the District of Columbia
Washington, DC 20001

BOARD OF JUDGES RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, D.C. Code § 4-503 (2019 Repl.) requires the Superior Court of the District of Columbia to establish rules and regulations for the administration of the Crime Victims Compensation Program;

WHEREAS, under Superior Court Crime Victims Compensation Program Rule 29, the Superior Court Board of Judges is responsible for setting the maximum awards for temporary emergency food and housing;

WHEREAS, due to the COVID-19 pandemic and consistent with guidance issued by the Centers for Disease Control, civil protection order hearings and other proceedings involving crime victims have been continued for approximately 60 days; it is hereby

RESOLVED, that, until further notice and resolution, the maximum award for temporary emergency food under Superior Court Crime Victims Compensation Program Rule 29 is set at $750; and

RESOLVED, that, until further notice and resolution, the maximum award for temporary emergency housing under Superior Court Crime Victims Compensation Program Rule 29 is set at $9,000.

BY THE COURT
April 15, 2020

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Robert E. Morin".

---

Robert E. Morin
Chief Judge