

District of Columbia Court of Appeals
430 E Street N.W.
Washington, DC 20001

Chambers of Corinne Beckwith

(202) 879-2728
BCA@dcapeals.gov

Judge Beckwith employs two law clerks to assist her in chambers and is currently accepting applications for the 2022–23 term. Clerkship terms are for one year and typically start in late August or early September. Judge Beckwith reviews applications from law school graduates and third-year law students on a rolling basis. Consistent with the amended federal law clerk hiring plan, she accepts applications from other law students only at the end of their second year and begins reviewing these applications in late May. Second-year students may submit applications before spring grades are released, but should supplement their application packets once updated transcripts become available.

Judge Beckwith particularly welcomes applications from candidates with diverse backgrounds and candidates with employment experience prior to or after law school.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, a resume, an official or unofficial law school transcript, an undergraduate transcript (optional), a writing sample, and at least two letters of recommendation. These materials should be sent electronically—preferably in a single PDF file—to BCA@dcapeals.gov. Recommenders may transmit their letters separately.

Please feel free to email or call Judge Beckwith’s office with any questions.