-- PRESS ADVISORY --

TEENS AT YOUTH LAW FAIR TO DISCUSS CYBERBULLYING

The 12th Annual Youth Law Fair will focus on Cyberbullying and will involve a mock trial, youth speak out sessions and raffle giveaways. The Youth Law Fair is an annual joint effort of the D.C. Superior Court and the D.C. Bar and engages teens in mock trials and discussions of legal issues relevant to their lives. The Fair was established to give youth in the District of Columbia a positive, “hands on” experience with various aspects of the law and a better understanding of the judicial system.

This educational event at the Moultrie Courthouse brings high school students, lawyers, judges, and educators together to explore issues facing students in the D.C. area. The event also includes exhibits, tours of the courthouse and holding cells, led by Superior Court judges. This is a free event from 9:00am to 4:00pm with breakfast and lunch provided.
