

April 29, 2003

For information contact: Leah Gurowitz
202/879-1700

D.C. High School Students Receive Awards from two Chief Judges Essay Contest Winners are Honored at Courthouse Reception

The D.C. Courts and the Bar Association of the D.C. (BADC) presented awards to five high school students and two teachers for winning essays on the topic Independent Courts Protect Our Liberties. Congress established May 1 of each year as Law Day, a special day of celebration by the American people in appreciation of our liberties, and a rededication to the ideals of equality and justice under the law. The American Bar Association selects a Law Day theme each year.

WHAT: Law Day High School Essay Competition Awards Ceremony

WHERE: District of Columbia Court of Appeals Courtroom
6th floor, Moultrie Courthouse, 500 Indiana Avenue, N.W.

WHEN: Thursday, May 1, 2003, at 11 a.m.

WHO: Chief Judge Annice Wagner, D.C. Court of Appeals
Chief Judge Rufus King, Superior Court of the District of Columbia
Bar Association of the District of Columbia
Essay Contest Winners

###