

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 07-02

(Temporary appearances for L&T Court -- Pilot Project)

WHEREAS, each year, almost 45,000 cases are filed in the Landlord and Tenant Branch ("L&T Court") of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia seeking summary evictions; and

WHEREAS, a significant number of residential landlords and the vast majority of residential tenants do not have counsel in these cases; and

WHEREAS, the District of Columbia Bar Pro Bono Program's Landlord Tenant Resource Center provides legal and referral information, but not legal representation, to residential landlords and residential tenants; and

WHEREAS, some pro se litigants require extended services to effectively present their claims and defenses in L&T Court or to obtain continuances in order to secure full representation; and

WHEREAS, in order to provide unrepresented, low-income landlords and tenants in landlord-tenant cases with (1) the opportunity to obtain immediate pro bono representation, and (2) the opportunity to retain pro bono counsel on a temporary basis while pro bono counsel is conducting the investigation required to determine whether continued representation also will be provided, it is appropriate to make temporary pro bono representation available to them for the purpose of presenting their claims and defenses during a court proceeding already scheduled for that day or, if necessary, for the purpose of requesting continuances for ascertainment of counsel; and

WHEREAS, it is anticipated that the entry of temporary appearances on behalf of unrepresented, low-income litigants under the terms set forth in this Administrative Order will result in the provision of continued representation to the vast majority of those litigants,

NOW, THEREFORE, it is by the Court,

ORDERED, that counsel for low-income residential landlords or residential tenants who are providing pro bono representation are hereby authorized to file in the Landlord and Tenant Branch the attached form of Praeceptum noting a temporary appearance titled, "Landlord and Tenant Branch Temporary Appearance," which appearance is withdrawn at the conclusion of the proceeding, without necessity of filing a motion to withdraw; and it is further

ORDERED, that nothing in this order shall preclude counsel appearing under its provisions from subsequently filing a separate Praeceptum entering an appearance for the duration of the litigation or until such time as a motion to withdraw is filed and granted; and it is further

ORDERED, that any appearance entered that does not use the "Landlord and Tenant Branch Temporary Appearance" form constitutes a general appearance, for which a motion to withdraw is required; and it is further

ORDERED that this Administrative Order and pilot project shall take effect on January 29 and remain in effect until further order of the Court.

SO ORDERED.

LANDLORD AND TENANT BRANCH TEMPORARY APPEARANCE

THE CLERK OF THE COURT will please note that I am an attorney acting without charge and am entering a "Landlord and Tenant Branch Temporary Appearance" pursuant to Administrative Order 07-02 to represent (circle one) Plaintiff/Landlord or Defendant/Tenant in the above-captioned case during today's court appearance ONLY. Party information shall not change, and all Court notices shall continue to be sent to (circle one) Plaintiff/Landlord or Defendant/Tenant directly.

Pursuant to the terms of Administrative Order 07-02, I have been given permission to withdraw my appearance at the conclusion of today, without the necessity of filing a formal motion to withdraw, whether or not the case is resolved. Nothing shall preclude me from subsequently filing a separate Praecipe entering my appearance pursuant to Court Rules and providing pro bono representation for the duration of the litigation.
