

February 23, 2006

Contact: Leah Gurowitz
202/879-1700

PRESS ADVISORY

Court event to celebrate Black Fraternities and Sororities

‘Step Show’ as part of D.C. Courts’ Black History Month celebration

- WHAT: Step show, as well as a musical and informational program focusing on Black Greek Letter Organizations
- WHERE: Moultrie Courthouse
Jurors’ Lounge – Room 3300
500 Indiana Avenue, NW
- WHEN: Friday, February 24th
Noon to 1:30 PM
- WHO: Judge Herbert Dixon, member of Omega Psi Phi
Judge Reggie Walton, member of Alpha Phi Alpha
Court employees who are members of each of the ‘Divine Nine’ Black sororities and fraternities.

This year marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of Alpha Phi Alpha, the nation’s first African American fraternity. The program will include a brief presentation with historical information on each of the ‘Divine Nine’ fraternities and sororities, followed by performances by court employees who are members of those groups.

# #

PRESS NOTE: Cameras and recorders are allowed into the courthouse for this event; however you must call in advance for permission to bring photographic or recording devices into the courthouse (879-1700).