

March 13, 2012

For information contact:
Leah Gurowitz or Tom Feeney
(202) 879-1700

-- PRESS ADVISORY --

YOUTH LAW FAIR TO HOST TEENS FOR A DISCUSSION OF SOCIAL MEDIA PRIVACY

The theme of DC's 13th Annual Youth Law Fair is "Privacy Awareness: Managing Social Media Networks," and will involve a mock trial, youth speak out sessions and raffle giveaways. D.C. Superior Court and the D.C. Bar jointly host the Youth Law Fair each year, engaging teens in mock trials and discussions of legal issues relevant to their lives. The fair was established to give DC youth a positive, "hands on" experience with various aspects of the law and a better appreciation of the judicial system.

This participatory educational event at the Moultrie Courthouse brings high school students, lawyers, judges, and educators together to explore issues facing students in the D.C. area. The event also includes exhibits and tours of the courthouse and holding cells, led by Superior Court judges. This is a free event from 9:00am to 3:00pm.

WHO: Chief Judge Lee F. Satterfield
DC Bar President Darrell G. Motley
Over 200 local students

WHAT: 13th Annual Youth Law Fair

WHERE: Moultrie Courthouse, 500 Indiana Avenue, NW

WHEN: Saturday, March 24, 2012 – 9:00am to 3:00pm

For more information, visit the DC Bar website at www.dcbar.org/youthlawfair or contact the Bar's Sections' Office at youthlawfair@dcbar.org or 202-626-3455

NOTE: CAMERAS AND AUDIO RECORDERS MAY BE BROUGHT INTO THE COURTHOUSE IN ORDER TO RECORD THIS EVENT.

###