COMMENT TO 2019 AMENDMENTS

This rule has been amended consistent with the stylistic changes to the civil rules. The rule has also been amended to address receiverships not specifically covered by subsection (b)(1) and to update statutory references.

Comment

Generally, when a property is subject to a court-ordered receivership under one of the statutory provisions cited in the rule, neither the owner nor the owner's agent is permitted to collect rent from a tenant or to maintain an action for possession of the property based upon a tenant's alleged nonpayment of rent. The owner is a necessary party, however, in the event that the receiver brings a complaint for possession of the property. Shannon & Luchs Co. v. Jeter, 469 A.2d 812 (D.C. 1983). To join an owner who will not join voluntarily, the federal counterpart of SCR-Civ. 19 requires that the owner be served with process, joined as a defendant, and realigned as a plaintiff. JTG of Nashville, Inc. v. Rhythm Band, Inc., 693 F. Supp. 623, 628 (M.D. Tenn. 1988). See also Raskauskas v. Temple Realty Co., 589 A.2d 17, 20 n.2, 21-22 (D.C. 1991). Tenant receiverships are not included in section (b) because the reasoning in Jeter is inapplicable in tenant receiverships in which the receiver has the right to demand possession of the property. D.C. Code § 42-3651.06(a)(1) (2001).

Rule 3-II. Joinder of Persons or Entities Needed for Just Adjudication

- (a) PERSONS OR ENTITIES SUBJECT TO JOINDER. A person or entity, including one not in possession of the premises, is subject to joinder as a defendant in an action based on alleged nonpayment of rent if an existing party to the action claims that the person or entity is legally liable for all or part of the amount alleged in the complaint to be due and owing and establishes that joinder is warranted under Civil Rule 19.

 (b) PROCEDURES.
- (1) Motion for Joinder. A party seeking joinder must file a written motion no later than the time for appearance of the existing defendant stated in the summons or within such additional time as the court may allow for good cause. The motion must comply with the procedural requirements of Rule 13 and must set forth the basis for the claim of liability against the person or entity to be joined. The motion must be served on all other existing parties to the action in accordance with Rule 13.
- (2) Court's Consideration of Motion.
- (A) In General. A motion for joinder must be considered by the court in accordance with the procedures set forth in Rules 13 and 13-I.

 - (iii) the complaint and any answers and counterclaims that have been filed; and
 - (iv) the motion for joinder.
- (C) Deadline for Service. Unless the court determines otherwise for good cause, the person or entity to be joined must be served within 14 days after the date of the order granting the motion for joinder. Any motion to extend the time for service of process must set forth in detail the efforts that have been made, and will be made in the future, to obtain service.
- (4) Proof of Service. Within 7 days after the deadline for service of process, proof of service on the person or entity to be joined must be filed in accordance with Civil Rule 4.
- (5) Pleading by Joined Defendant. A person or entity joined as a defendant under this rule is not required to file any answer, plea, affidavit, or other defense

(c) JUDGMENT AND REDEMPTION OF TENANCY.

- (1) Money Judgments. A party joined under this rule and served with process in accordance with any of the methods of service authorized by Civil Rule 4 is subject to a money judgment.
- (2) When Court May Not Enter Judgment for Possession. Where a party has been joined under this rule, the court may not enter a judgment for possession in favor of the plaintiff if the court finds that the party in possession of the premises is not legally liable for any of the amount owed to the plaintiff.
- (3) Redemption. The redemption figure required by Rule 14-II must be limited to the amount determined to be owed by the party in possession of the premises and must not include any amount determined to be owed by any other party.

COMMENT TO 2019 AMENDMENTS

This new rule is intended to standardize the procedures for joinder of additional parties, consistent, to the greatest extent practicable, with the summary nature of landlord and tenant proceedings.

Rule 4. Process

(a) HOW AND BY WHOM. Service of process mustshall be made in compliance with D.C. Code § 16-1502 (2012 Repl.1981) by any competent person not less than 18 years of age who is not a party to the suit. A separate copy of the summons and complaint must be provided for each defendant.

(b) PROOF OF SERVICE.

- (1) In General. Proof of service of the summons and complaint must be made under oath and in the format set forth in L&T Form 3. A separate L&T Form 3 must be filed for each defendant.
- (2) Time for Filing. Proof of service must be filed at least 6 days before the date set for the initial hearing.
- (3) Motion for Extension. Prior to the expiration of the foregoing time period, the plaintiff may make a motion to extend the time for service. The motion must set forth in detail the efforts that have been made, and will be made in the future, to obtain service. If the plaintiff shows good cause, the court must extend the time for an appropriate period.
- (4) Dismissal. The plaintiff's failure to comply with the requirements of this rule will result in the dismissal without prejudice of the complaint. The clerk will enter the dismissal and serve notice on all the parties.

If service of process is made by posting pursuant to D.C. Code § 16-1502 (1981), the plaintiff or the plaintiff's agent shall send to the defendant, by first class mail, a copy of the summons and complaint at the address named in the complaint within 3 calendar days of the date of the posting. Proof of the mailing of such notice shall be on a form prescribed by the Court and certified by an attorney or sworn to by a special process server.

The return of service of the complaint shall be made under oath and shall be in the format set forth in SCR-LT Form 3 which is incorporated herein by reference. Proof of compliance with the mailing of the summons to the defendant within 3 calendar days of posting under D.C. Code § 16-1502 (1981) may be made on SCR-LT Form 3. Costs in excess of $ 8.50 for service by a special process server, costs in excess of $ 2.00 for notarization of the complaint and costs in excess of the actual costs for first-class postage shall be allowed only upon the Court's finding of good cause therefor.

COMMENT TO 2019 AMENDMENTS

This rule has been amended consistent with the stylistic changes to the civil rules. The rule was amended to require that an affidavit of service be filed at least 6 days before the date set for the initial hearing and to permit the clerk to dismiss the case where the plaintiff has failed to comply with this rule. Parties should refer to D.C. Code § 16-1502 (2012 Repl.) and L&T Form 3 for additional guidance on service and proof of service. As Rule 2 provides, Civil Rule 4(h) addresses service on a corporation, partnership, or association.

The provision relating to costs has been moved to Rule 15.

COMMENT

This rule requires that the plaintiff mail to the defendant a copy of the summons and complaint when service is made by posting pursuant to D.C. Code 2001, § 16-1502. See Greene v. Lindsey, 456 U.S. 444, 102 S. Ct. 1874, 72 L. Ed. 2d 249 (1982). This requirement is not intended to excuse the plaintiff's obligation to make a "diligent and conscientious effort" to secure personal or substitute service before resorting to service by posting. See, e.g., Parker v. Frank Emmet Real Estate, 451 A.2d 62 (D.C. App. 1982).

COMMENT TO 2019 AMENDMENTS

This rule has been amended consistent with the stylistic changes to the civil rules. Also, in response to Crockett v. Deutsche Bank National Trust, 16 A.3d 949 (D.C. 2011), subsection (g)(2)(B) was amended to make clear that a judgment for possession may not be entered as a sanction for a defendant's failure to comply with a pretrial payment order in any case in which the complaint does not allege the defendant's nonpayment of rent as a basis for the entry of a judgment in favor of the plaintiff, i.e., that a judgment for possession is unavailable as a sanction in a case lacking a nonpayment of rent claim regardless of whether there is a contractual landlord-tenant relationship between the parties, and regardless of whether the defendant is or is alleged to be a "tenant" within the meaning of the Rental Housing Act.

This rule does not foreclose the court, in a case in which there is no landlord-tenant relationship between the parties (e.g., where the defendant is alleged to be a squatter, terminated employee, permissive occupant, or foreclosed homeowner), from fashioning an equitable remedy to protect the legitimate interests of both parties and to maintain a proper balance during the litigation. See Bell v. Tsintolas Realty Co., 139 U.S. App. D.C.

101, 430 F.2d 474, 482 (1970); Davis v. Rental Assocs. Inc., 456 A.2d 820, 823 (D.C. 1983). Such a remedy may include payment for the fair use and occupancy of the property, while the litigation is pending, in the form of a bond, a periodic payment, or both. See Lindsey v. Prillman, 921 A.2d 782, 785 (D.C. 2007) ("we decline to say that a periodic payment-protective order can never be contemplated for use outside the typical landlord and tenant context"). However, "[p]rotective orders, by their very nature, are designed to govern a contractual landlord-tenant relationship, and their utility is questionable when the litigants lack such a relationship." Crockett, 16 A.3d at 952. See Walker v. Smith, 499 A.2d 446, 450 (D.C. 1985) ("Moreover, in the absence of the traditional landlord-tenant relationship, with privity of contract, the validity of [a] protective order is open to serious question."). The amount of any payment required in such a case must be strictly limited to the value of the use and occupancy of the premises. Crockett, 16 A.3d at 953 n.8 ("[T]he only conceivable reason to enter a protective order in [a case that does not involve parties with a landlord-tenant relationship] would be to protect the [plaintiff's] interest in the value of the use and occupation of the home during the pendency of litigation.").

COMMENT

"In matters involving pleadings, service of process, and timeliness of filings, pro se litigants are not always held to the same standards as are applied to lawyers. Indeed, the trial court has a responsibility to inform pro se litigants of procedural rules and consequences of noncompliance [including] at least minimal notice . . . of pleading requirements. Pro se litigants are allowed more latitude than litigants represented by counsel to correct defects in service of process and pleadings." Padou v. District of Columbia, 998 A.2d 286, 292 (D.C. 2010) (citations omitted).

A motion captioned as a "Motion for Reconsideration" is considered under subsection (c)(2) as a motion to alter, amend, or for relief from a ruling or sanction and will be treated as such under this Rule. See Fleming v. District of Columbia, 633 A.2d 846, 848 (D.C. 1993); Wallace v. Warehouse Employees Union #730, 482 A.2d 801, 804-05 (D.C. 1984).

"The trial court is not free to treat as conceded an unopposed motion for summary judgment" filed under section (d). Milton Props., Inc. v. Newby, 456 A.2d 349, 354 (D.C. 1983). "Even if an unopposed motion for summary judgment is deemed to establish that no genuine issue of material fact exists, the court must still review the pleadings and other papers to determine whether the moving party is legally entitled to judgment." Id.
