

Superior Court of the District of Columbia
Domestic Violence Division
500 Indiana Avenue, N.W. Room 4510
Washington, D.C. 20001

Case No: _____

Petitioner

VS.

Respondent

Motion to Set Aside Default Civil Protection Order
and Points and Authorities In Support Thereof

Respondent respectfully moves this Honorable Court to set aside the Default Civil Protection Order issued on _____. In support of this motion, Respondent states the following:

1. I was not able to appear at the hearing because _____

2. The Civil Protection Order should not have been granted because _____

As a result of the foregoing, Respondent requests that the Court set aside the Default Civil Protection Order.

VERIFICATION

District of Columbia, ss:

_____, being duly sworn, states that he/she has read and understands the contents of this motion, and that it is true to his/her knowledge or belief.

Respondent

Subscribed and sworn before me this _____ day of _____ 20_____.

Notary Public/Deputy Clerk

(HEARING DATE SET _____)