

THE HONORABLE JASON PARK
ASSOCIATE JUDGE
SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Jason Park was nominated to be an Associate Judge of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia by President Trump on January 24, 2019. His nomination was confirmed by the United States Senate on August 1, 2019.

Judge Park graduated from Central High School in Tuscaloosa, Alabama and attended Princeton University, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy. In 2006, Judge Park received his Juris Doctor degree from Georgetown University Law Center, where he was a member of the American Criminal Law Review and represented low-income tenants in the Superior Court as part of the D.C. Law Students in Court clinic.

After law school, Judge Park worked as an associate in the New York office of Chadbourne & Parke LLP, where his practice focused on complex commercial litigation. He was elected to serve on the firm's professional staff committee and received several pro bono achievement awards. In 2009, Judge Park returned to the District to serve as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Judge Ricardo M. Urbina of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. Following his clerkship, Judge Park joined Steptoe & Johnson LLP as an associate in the firm's white collar criminal defense practice group.

In July 2012, Judge Park was sworn in as an Assistant United States Attorney at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia. At the time of his appointment to the bench, he served as the Chief of the office's Major Crimes Unit, leading a section of two dozen prosecutors handling serious felony violent crime matters and local economic fraud cases in Superior Court. Prior to becoming a supervisor, Judge Park prosecuted violent crime cases in Superior Court, specializing in child sexual and physical abuse matters and adult sexual assault cases. He also served as the office's Project Safe Child Coordinator, handling child exploitation and juvenile sex trafficking matters in federal district court, and served as co-chair of the office's Legislative Working Group. During his tenure as an Assistant United States Attorney, Judge Park was awarded the United States Attorney's Impact Award, the FBI Washington Field Office Service Award, and several United States Attorney's Awards for Special Achievement.

Judge Park lives in Washington D.C. with his wife and two sons.
