the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure are applicable to proceedings in the Probate Division.

Rule 102. Matters Presented to the Register of Wills

The Register of Wills will review and, if appropriate, make recommendations regarding all ex parte matters and all orders on consent or waiver of notice prepared for the signature of the judge assigned to fiduciary matters.

(a) FORM OF FILINGS.

(1) In General. A person must present a matter in the form required by the applicable rule or statute.

- (i) a corporation is a party or fiduciary; or
- (ii) the facts are within the personal knowledge of the attorney or agent.

(C) Statement of Authority to Verify. Where verification is made on behalf of a party or person, the verification must set forth the representative capacity and, in the case of a corporation, the title of a person verifying and must contain a statement that the person has authority to verify the filing on behalf of the person's principal.

(d) NONCONFORMANCE. A filing that does not conform to the requirements of this rule will not be accepted for filing.

COMMENT

For purposes of this rule, "case name" should include, for example, the name of the decedent in a decedent's estate proceeding, the name of the subject in a guardianship or conservatorship proceeding, or the parties in a major litigation case.

Rule 104. Forms

(a) IN GENERAL. The Register of Wills must maintain forms for inventories, accounts, and reports and may maintain other forms as may be useful to implement or effect compliance with these rules. Forms maintained by the Register of Wills are available on the court's website.

(b) SUPPLEMENTING FORMS. Any form may be supplemented with any additional information, memorandum, or document necessary to present the matter or issue to the court.

(B) Petitions Filed Under D.C. Code § 20-107(b). For petitions filed under D.C. Code § 20-107(b) (2012 Repl.), the court must notify the personal representative that a hearing on the petition has been set, and the personal representative must serve written notice of the hearing on all interested persons by certified mail or personal delivery at least 10 days prior to the hearing.

(f) DISCOVERY. On request, the court may authorize discovery in accordance with Civil Rules 26 through 37. If the court authorizes discovery, the court must specify the extent of discovery permitted.

COMMENT

Rule 106. Notice Requirements

(a) IN GENERAL. Unless otherwise provided by statute or these rules:

(2) notice may be given by sending the filing by first class mail postage prepaid to the prescribed person.

(b) MODIFICATION OF NOTICE REQUIREMENTS. The court may modify the requirements of notice under these rules when the number of the parties and affected persons makes the time, labor, and expense of complying disproportionate to the distributive shares of those having an interest in the matter.

COMMENT

In some cases, an individual who has requested notice may revoke the request for notice. Cf. Super. Ct. Prob. R. 306.

Rule 107. Service or Notice by Publication

(a) PROOF OF PUBLICATION. When a statute or these rules require notice by publication, publication must be proved by affidavit or declaration of an officer or agent of the publisher stating the dates of publication and accompanied by a copy of the order or notice as published.

(b) LEGAL NEWSPAPER OR PERIODICAL DEFINED. For purposes of these rules, a legal newspaper or periodical of daily circulation means a publication designated by the court that is:

(1) devoted primarily to publication of opinions, notices and other information from the courts of the District of Columbia;

(2) circulated generally to the legal community; and

(3) published at least on each weekday that the Superior Court is in session.

Rule 108. Court Costs and Filing Fees

(a) COURT COSTS ON VALUE OF ESTATE.

(1) Court costs are assessed on the value of a decedent's estate, conservatorship estate, and minor child's estate subject to a guardianship, excluding the value of real property, as follows:

Over $500 to $2,500	15.00

(2) Court costs in the total amount of $25.00 are assessed for all real property in the District of Columbia.

(3) Court costs under Rule 108(a)(1) are computed using the initial gross principal value of the assets of the estate, plus any increase in that value resulting from:

(A) collection of additional assets; and

(B) the disposition of any asset, including sale of real property, other than by distribution to a legatee, ward, or successor fiduciary.

(4) If additional assets are collected or an asset is sold and, as a result, there is an increase in the total value of an estate from one cost category set out in Rule 108(a)(1) to a higher category, additional court costs are due in the amount assessed for that higher category, with credit for the amount of court costs previously paid.

(5) For decedents' estates, court costs are collected as follows:

(A) Court costs assessed under Rule 108(a)(1) and (2) are assessed and collected at the time the petition for probate is filed.

(B) In supervised administrations, any additional court costs which are due under Rule 108(a)(4) are assessed and collected at the time of the filing of an account which reflects the collection or disposition of assets as provided in Rule 108(a)(3).

(C) In unsupervised administrations, any additional court costs which are due under Rule 108(a)(4) must be paid at the time of the filing of the verification and certificate of notice, and thereafter at the time any increase in value of the estate results in additional court costs being due.

(6) For conservatorship and guardianship of minor child's estate, court costs are assessed and collected at the time of the filing of the first account. Any additional court costs which are due under Rule 108(a)(4) must be paid at the time of the filing of any subsequent account which reflects the collection or disposition of assets as provided in Rule 108(a)(3).

COMMENT

A praecipe is a filing which does not request court action, such as a praecipe notifying the court of a change of address, a praecipe entering the appearance of counsel, or a praecipe noting the dismissal of a case. E-filing vendor fees are not covered by, and may be in addition to, the court costs and fees set out in this rule.

Rule 109. Privacy Protection for Filings Made With the Court

(a) REDACTED FILINGS. Unless the court orders otherwise, a party or nonparty must redact, in an electronic or paper filing with the court, an individual’s social-security number and driver's license number and a financial account number, except that a party or nonparty making the filing may include the following:

(1) the acronym "SSN" where the individual's social-security number would have been included;

(2) the acronym "DLN" where the individual's driver's license number would have been included; and

(3) the last 4 digits of the financial account number.

(b) EXEMPTION FROM THE REDACTION REQUIREMENT. The redaction requirement does not apply to a testamentary writing.

(c) ADDITIONAL UNREDACTED FILING UNDER SEAL.

(1) Motion to File an Unredacted Copy Under Seal. Except as provided in Rule 109(c)(2), a person who makes a redacted filing and wishes to file an additional unredacted copy must file a motion to file an unredacted copy under seal. If granted, the court must retain the unredacted copy as part of the record.

(2) Separate Form for Inventory or Accounting. A person who makes a redacted filing that includes an inventory or accounting, which identifies, contains, or refers to a financial account number, must file under seal a separate form prescribed by the Register of Wills, which lists each account, the financial institution at which the account is maintained, and the full account number. This separate form will be maintained by the court under seal and may be unsealed only by court order on a showing of good cause.

(d) RESPONSIBILITY TO REDACT. The responsibility for redacting personal identifiers or financial account numbers rests solely with the person or entity making the filing.

COMMENT

This rule addresses the concern about access to, and dissemination of, private information in the court's public records to the detriment of individuals whose privacy is compromised simply because their otherwise private information is contained in court filings. The risk of invasion of privacy is heightened where the court's public records are made available through the internet. Although this rule does not expressly prohibit all use of personal identifiers and other private information, such as home addresses, it is the policy of the court that parties not include home addresses and other private information in any court filings unless it is necessary to the matter being litigated or is otherwise expressly required by statute or other rules of the court, including civil rules made applicable to Probate Division proceedings by Rule 101(d).

Rule 110. Service on Nonresident Fiduciary

(a) POWER OF ATTORNEY DESIGNATING REGISTER OF WILLS. A fiduciary appointed by the court who is or becomes a nonresident of the District of Columbia, or who is continuously absent from the District of Columbia for more than 60 days, must file with the Office of the Register of Wills an irrevocable power of attorney designating the Register of Wills as the person upon whom all notices and process issued by a competent court in the District of Columbia may be served with the same effect as personal service on the fiduciary in relation to all suits or matters pertaining to the proceeding in which the fiduciary is appointed. The power of attorney required by this rule must include the fiduciary's residential address.

(b) TIME TO FILE.

(1) In General. Except as provided in Rule 110(b)(2), the fiduciary must file the power of attorney at the time the fiduciary seeks appointment or within 14 days after the date the fiduciary becomes a nonresident or continuously absent from the District of Columbia.

(2) Guardian Appointed Under D.C. Code §§ 21-101 to -120. A guardian appointed under D.C. Code §§ 21-101 to -120 (2012 Repl.) must file the power of attorney within 10 days after appointment.

(c) SERVICE BY REGISTER OF WILLS. The Register of Wills must forward to the fiduciary, by registered or certified mail to the address stated in the power of attorney, all notices and process served on the Register of Wills under this rule.

Rule 111. Sureties

A member of the District of Columbia Bar in active practice or other officer of the court will not be accepted as a surety.

Rule 112. Inventory

(1) In General. The following fiduciaries must prepare and file an inventory of assets of the decedent, protected person, minor, or trust beneficiary:

(A) a supervised personal representative;

(B) a special administrator;

(C) a conservator;

(D) a guardian of a minor; and

(E) a trustee of a trust under continuing supervision of the court.

(2) Unsupervised Personal Representative. An unsupervised personal representative must prepare an inventory of assets of the decedent as required by this rule and serve the inventory on each interested person within three months of the date of appointment. The unsupervised personal representative may file the inventory with the court.

(b) FORMAT.

(1) Form of Inventory.

(A) Filed Inventory. An inventory that is filed with the court must be typed or electronically printed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(B) Unsupervised Personal Representative. An unsupervised personal representative of a decedent's estate who does not file an inventory may use a format that clearly sets out the information required by this rule.

(2) Verification. An inventory must be verified in the manner described in Rule 103(c).

(3) Notice of Right to File Objection. An inventory must be accompanied by a notice of the right of an interested person, protected person, custodian of a minor, trust beneficiary, and other party or interested person to file an objection to the inventory. The notice must be in the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form, and must specifically state that any person with standing to object to an inventory may file an objection to the contents, valuation, or timeliness of the inventory.

(4) Certificate of Service. An inventory must include a certificate of service. If the inventory is filed with the court, the certificate of service must state that the inventory was mailed or delivered within 15 days after the date of filing.

(5) Privacy Requirements. If an inventory filed with the court includes a financial account number, the fiduciary must comply with Rule 109 and must file, together with the inventory, the separate form required by Rule 109.

(c) TIME FOR FILING.

(1) In General. Except as provided in Rule 112(c)(2), a fiduciary must file an inventory within 90 days after the court appointing the fiduciary or the date of a court order providing for continuing supervision of the administration of the estate or trust.

(2) Intervention Proceeding. A conservator must file an inventory within 60 days after the court appointing the conservator.

(d) ASSETS INCLUDED IN INVENTORY.

(1) In General. A fiduciary must include in the inventory all assets which the fiduciary is entitled to possess except a specific asset which the court orders is not to be included among the assets under the control of the fiduciary.

(2) Asset Not Under Control of Fiduciary. If the fiduciary is unable to take control of an asset, the fiduciary must specifically identify the asset which the fiduciary is claiming but which the fiduciary has not obtained possession of as of the date of the inventory.

(e) DETERMINATION OF INVENTORY ASSETS.

(1) Decedent's Estate.

(A) Initial Inventory. The initial inventory must set out the assets of the decedent as of the date of death.

(B) Subsequent Supervision. If the court orders supervision of an already existing decedent's estate proceeding, the inventory must set out the assets of the estate as of the date of the order for court supervision.

(2) Other Proceeding. The inventory must set out the assets the fiduciary is entitled to possess as of the date that the court appoints the fiduciary.

(3) Successor Fiduciary. The inventory of a successor fiduciary must set out the assets the fiduciary is entitled to possess as of the date that the court appoints the successor fiduciary.

(f) DESCRIPTION, VALUATION, AND APPRAISAL OF ASSETS.

(1) In General.

(A) Description. Each asset must be listed and described in reasonable detail. The location of the asset must be stated.

(B) Title. If an asset is titled in the name of a person other than or in addition to the decedent, protected person, minor, or trust, the person holding title must be listed.

(C) Encumbrances. The type and amount of any encumbrance or lien on any asset must be listed.

(2) Real Property. The fiduciary may inventory real property at the value set by the District of Columbia for purposes of assessment and taxation. The fair market value may also be determined by an appraiser selected by the fiduciary and who is licensed by the jurisdiction in which the real property is located.

(3) Tangible Personal Property.

(A) In General. The fiduciary must list items of tangible personal property which the fiduciary is entitled to possess at its fair market value, as determined by qualified appraiser, except:

- (i) wearing apparel, other than furs and jewelry;
- (ii) food for consumption by the family;
- (iii) family pictures; and
- (iv) family bibles.

(B) Value less than $1,000.00. If the fiduciary reasonably believes that the tangible personal property is valued at $1,000.00 or less, the fiduciary may describe the tangible personal property in reasonable detail and the estimated value of the tangible personal property instead of obtaining a formal appraisal.

(C) Motor Vehicles. The fiduciary may inventory motor vehicles with the value stated on public appraisal publications or websites.

(4) Publicly-Traded Investments. Corporate stocks, bonds, or other publicly-traded investments that are listed on any national or regional exchange or are sold in an over-the-counter market where prices are regularly published may be valued by the fiduciary.

(g) ASSETS WITHOUT VALUE OR NO ASSETS. If, at the time of the fiduciary's appointment, the asset of which the fiduciary has control or has the right to possess cannot be readily valued or there are no assets that have been or can be collected by the fiduciary, the fiduciary must file either:

- (1) an inventory showing no assets; or
- (2) a statement verified in the manner described in Rule 103(c) stating that an asset cannot be readily valued or that the fiduciary has collected no assets.

(h) SUPPLEMENTAL INVENTORY.

(1) When Required. If, after the inventory is prepared, the fiduciary learns of another asset, or determines that the value or description of an asset is erroneous in any material respect, incomplete, or misleading, the fiduciary must file a supplemental inventory.

(2) Format. A supplemental inventory must comply with Rule 112(b).

Rule 113. Accounts

(a) FILING.

(1) In General. The following fiduciaries must prepare and file an account:

- (A) a supervised personal representative;
- (B) a special administrator;
- (C) a conservator;
- (D) a guardian of a minor; and
- (E) a trustee of a trust under continuing supervision of the court.

(2) Timing. The time for filing an account is specified in the chapter of the probate rules applicable to each fiduciary.

(3) Court Order. The court may order a fiduciary to file a special account at any time the court determines is reasonable and necessary.

(b) FORMAT.

(1) Form of Account.

(A) Filed Account. An account that is filed with the court must be typed or electronically printed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(B) Unsupervised Personal Representative. An unsupervised personal representative of a decedent's estate may use a format that clearly sets out the assets listed on the personal representative's inventory, receipts, disbursements, and the distribution of estate assets.

(2) Verification. An account must be verified in the manner described in Rule 103(c).

(3) Notice of Right to File Objection. An account must be accompanied by a notice of the right of an interested person, protected person, custodian of a minor, trust beneficiary, and other party or interested person to file an objection to the inventory or account. The notice must be in the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(4) Certificate of Service. An account must include a certificate of service. If the account is filed with the court, the certificate of service must state that the account was mailed or delivered within 15 days after the date of filing.

(5) Privacy Requirements. If an account filed with the court includes a financial account number, the fiduciary must comply with Rule 109 and must file, together with the account, the separate form required by Rule 109.

(c) CONTENTS OF ACCOUNT.

(1) Initial and Interim Account. A fiduciary's account must contain:

(A) for an initial account, the total value of the assets as shown in all inventories made prior to the date of the account;

(B) for an interim account after the initial account, the assets shown at the end of the period of the preceding account;

(C) all receipts during the period of the account and, for a decedent's estate administration, from the date of death of the decedent;

(D) each purchase, sale, lease, transfer, compromise, settlement, or other disposition of any non-cash asset;

(E) each disbursement for an expense of administration of the estate or trust;

(F) each payment of a claim or debt of the decedent, the estate, or the ward;

(G) each distribution to or for the benefit of an heir, legatee, protected person, minor, or beneficiary; and

(H) the remaining assets, if any, in the possession or control of the fiduciary.

(2) Final Account. In addition to the requirements for initial and interim accounts, a fiduciary's final account must include:

(A) a statement that all claims have been paid or rejected;

(B) a statement that there are no unsettled liabilities or the identity of any liabilities that remain as of date the fiduciary's appointment terminates; and

(C) the proposed distribution of the remaining assets in the possession or control of the fiduciary.

(d) ASSETS WITHOUT VALUE OR NO ASSETS. If, during the accounting period, an asset of which the fiduciary has control or has the right to possess cannot be readily valued or there were no assets collected by the fiduciary, the fiduciary must file either:

(1) an account showing no assets; or

(2) a statement, verified in the manner described in Rule 103(c), indicating that an asset cannot be readily valued or that the fiduciary has collected no assets.

(e) AUDIT OF ACCOUNT

(1) Requirements for Account Subject to Audit. Together with the account, the fiduciary must file copies of:

(A) all statements or similar documents issued by a bank, trust company, savings and loan association, brokerage firm, mutual fund or similar institution, or the U.S. Treasury, which show the assets of the estate on deposit or on account and the transactions in such assets during the accounting period;

(B) all checks, settlement statements, receipts, or other documents, which show receipt of income or assets during the accounting period;

(C) all documents that show the sale or other disposition of any asset during the accounting period;

(D) all checks, vouchers, statements of account, or other documents, which show the cash transactions during the accounting period; and

(E) all income tax returns and other required tax filings due during the accounting period, or include in the account a statement that no income tax filing is required.

(2) Cursory Review of Account: Supervised Personal Representative. If waivers of formal audit of an account of a supervised personal representative are filed by all heirs or legatees, the personal representative must state on the face of the account that the account is subject to cursory review, and must file copies of:

(A) all statements or similar documents issued by a bank, trust company, savings and loan association, brokerage firm, mutual fund, or similar institution, or the U.S. Treasury, which show the assets of the estate on deposit or on account and the transactions in such assets during the accounting; and

(B) all checks, vouchers, statements of account, or other documents, which show funeral expenses and all other disbursements in excess of $1,000.00 claimed in the account.

(e) WAIVER OF AUDIT OF ACCOUNT.

(1) Decedent's Estate. The formal audit of an account of a supervised personal representative must be excused if, after service of the account and the notice required by this rule, all heirs or legatees of a decedent's estate file a written waiver of audit and consent to the account in the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form substantially similar in content and format to that form. If all heirs or legatees waive the formal audit of an account, the court will conduct a cursory review as provided in Rule 113(e)(2).

(2) Guardianship of a Minor. The audit of a final account of a guardian of a minor who has reached age 18 may be excused if, after service on the former minor of the account and the notice of right to object to the final account, the former minor files a written waiver of audit and consent to the account in the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(3) Court-Supervised Trust. The audit of an account of a trustee of a court-supervised trust must be excused if, after service of the account and the notice required by this rule, all qualified beneficiaries of a court-supervised trust file a written waiver of audit and consent to the account in the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(4) Receipt of Full Distribution. A receipt signed by an heir, legatee, or beneficiary of a trust which acknowledges full payment of that person's interest in the estate or trust has the same effect as a waiver of audit and consent to the fiduciary's account.

(5) Incapacitated Beneficiary or Interested Person.

(A) An interested person in a decedent's estate, minor who has reached age 18, or beneficiary of a trust who is incapacitated may not waive audit of and consent to a fiduciary's account.

(B) A representative of an incapacitated interested person or beneficiary may, on behalf of the incapacitated person, waive audit of and consent to a fiduciary's account, or may execute a receipt of full distribution of the incapacitated person's or beneficiary's interest in the estate or trust, if the representative is authorized to do so either by the law governing that representative or the instrument (such as a power of attorney) appointing that representative.

(6) Effect of Waiver of Audit and Consent to Account.

(A) In General. A waiver of audit of and consent to a fiduciary's account constitutes a waiver of the interested person's or beneficiary's right to object to the account.

(B) Decedent's Estate - Final Account. An heir or legatee who has signed a waiver of formal audit may require a formal audit by filing a written demand within 20 days after the approval of the supervised personal representative's final account.

COMMENT

Other chapters of the probate rules include provisions specifically applicable to accounts for that case type. Additionally, the Uniform Fiduciary Accounting Principles and accompanying commentaries and illustrations recommended by the Committee on National Fiduciary Accounting standards in collaboration with the National Center for State Courts are approved as an elaboration of the requirements of this rule. Reference may be made to them for determination of the adequacy of a particular account.

Rule 114. Irregularity, Default, or Insufficiency

(a) TYPES OF IRREGULARITY OR DEFAULT. An irregularity or default includes a failure to file timely any verification and certificate of notice, inventory, account, report, or receipt required by these rules.

(b) NOTICE TO CORRECT IRREGULARITY, DEFAULT, OR INSUFFICIENCY.

(1) By Register of Wills. When the Register of Wills finds an irregularity or default in the administration of a proceeding under these rules or that there is an insufficiency in the amount or security of a bond or undertaking, the Register of Wills must promptly notify the fiduciary responsible that unless the irregularity, default, or insufficiency is promptly corrected, the fiduciary may be removed from office. If the irregularity, default, or insufficiency is not remedied, the Register of Wills must report it to the court.

(2) By Court. On its own initiative, the court may issue an order to show cause why any action should not be taken in a proceeding where there is an irregularity, default, or insufficiency.

(c) HEARING.

(1) After Notice to Correct or Order to Show Cause. If the fiduciary does not remedy an irregularity, default, or insufficiency after receiving a notice to correct or an order to show cause under Rule 114(b), the court must set a hearing and direct notice of the hearing to the fiduciary.

(2) Without Notice to Correct. In extraordinary cases or in cases in which the fiduciary fails to satisfy a prior notice or specific order of the court, the court, on its own initiative or at the request of the Register of Wills, may order a summary hearing without giving the fiduciary prior notice to correct an irregularity, default, or insufficiency.

(3) Notice of Hearing. Notice of a hearing under Rule 114(c)(1) or (2) must be sent by first class mail to the address of record of the fiduciary, the surety (if appropriate), counsel of record, and each party, interested person, person entitled to participate, and person entitled to notice.

(d) ACTION BY THE COURT. At the hearing, the court may remove the fiduciary and appoint a successor, excuse the irregularity, default, or insufficiency on good cause, or take other appropriate action.

Rule 115. Closing a Case Despite Irregularity or Default

When an irregularity or default in the administration of an intervention proceeding, decedent's estate, minor child's estate, trusts, or other fiduciary case exists, but no party appears to be materially adversely affected, the Register of Wills or the Auditor-Master, after notice to all interested persons, may request the court to close the case unless a party shows cause why the court should take further action.

Rule 116. Fiduciaries and Legal Representatives Who May File Consents and Waivers

(a) WHO MAY CONSENT OR WAIVE. Except as provided in Rule 116(b), the following persons may execute a consent or waiver for and on behalf of that person's principal:

- (1) a guardian;
- (2) a guardian ad litem;
- (3) a conservator;
- (4) a parent;
- (5) a legal representative of an interested person with a legal disability;
- (6) an attorney-in-fact;
- (7) a trustee nominated by will or other document; or
- (8) any other person acting in a fiduciary capacity.

(b) EXCEPTIONS. A person listed in Rule 116(a) does not have authority to execute a consent or waiver if the consent or waiver is to:

- (1) the fiduciary's or representative's own appointment;
- (2) the fiduciary's or representative's own bond; or
- (3) the fiduciary's or representative's own report, inventory, accounting, or request for compensation, unless for a trust accounting, the fiduciary is also the sole beneficiary.

(c) REQUIREMENTS FOR WAIVER. A waiver signed by one acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity must be accompanied by a certified copy of a court appointment, if any, or, if none, by a verified statement:

- (1) indicating such person's status;

(2) setting forth the nature and the date of the instrument, if any, creating the fiduciary relationship or legal representation, and the relevant portions of the instrument; and

(3) representing that the instrument, if any, is still in full force and effect.

COMMENT

This rule is procedural; it is not intended to create, enlarge, or modify substantive law regarding a person's ability to consent or waive on behalf of another, especially where there may be a conflict of interest. See, e.g., D.C. Code §§ 19-1301.01 to -19-1311.03 (2012 Repl.) (adopting Uniform Trust Code, including provisions about representation and conflicts of interest).

Rule 117. Guardian ad Litem

(a) IN GENERAL. Except for good cause, no person other than an active member of the District of Columbia Bar in good standing may be appointed guardian ad litem.

(b) APPOINTMENT. On its own initiative or on request of a fiduciary, a person having legal custody of a minor, or other interested person, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem at any stage of a proceeding to represent the interest of any of the following persons, if the court determines that representation of the interest otherwise would be inadequate:

(1) a minor;

(2) an incapacitated person;

(3) an unborn person;

(4) an unascertained person;

(5) a person whose identity or address is unknown; or

(6) a designated class of persons who are not ascertained or are not in being.

(c) REPRESENTATION OF SEVERAL PERSONS OR INTERESTS. If not precluded by a conflict of interest, a guardian ad litem may be appointed to represent several persons or interests.

(d) COMPENSATION AND EXPENSES.

(1) In General. A guardian ad litem may receive reasonable compensation for services and reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred, to be paid from the estate, trust, or other property that is the subject of the matter for which the guardian ad litem will be appointed, or by the petitioner or from such other source as the court may order.

(2) Petition for Compensation. The guardian ad litem must file a verified petition for compensation, setting out in reasonable detail:

(A) a summary of the services rendered;

(B) the amount of time spent;

(C) the attorney's hourly rate and the basis of that rate;

(D) the amount, if any, of compensation previously received by the guardian ad litem; and

(E) the value of the estate, trust, or other property from which the compensation will be paid.

(3) Time for Filing Petition for Compensation. The petition must be filed within 60 days after the date the guardian ad litem's appointment ended and at other times as allowed by the court. The petition must be served on all persons entitled to notice in the proceeding.

(e) INAPPLICABILITY TO GUARDIAN AD LITEM FOR SUBJECT OF INTERVENTION PROCEEDING. This rule does not apply to a guardian ad litem for the subject or the ward in an intervention proceeding governed by D.C. Code §§ 21-2001 to -2085 (2012 Repl. & 2021 Supp.).

COMMENT

Civil Rule 17(c) provides that a representative, a next friend, or a guardian ad litem appointed by the court, may sue or defend on behalf of a minor or incompetent person. This rule supplements Civil Rule 17(c) and recognizes the inherent power of the court, as an incident of its jurisdiction, to appoint guardians ad litem to represent the interests of all those whose representation would otherwise be inadequate, including the interests of unascertained and unborn beneficiaries and unknown persons. See Hatch v. Riggs National Bank, 361 F. 2d 559, 565-566 (D.C. Cir. 1966).

The rules governing trusts provide that a guardian ad litem is not required for the appointment of a successor, substitute, or additional trustee.

A guardian ad litem for the subject in an intervention proceeding or a ward is governed by Rule 308.

Rule 118. Order to Show Cause for Recovery of Possession of Property

(a) PETITION.

(1) In General. A petition for an order to show cause for recovery of possession of property may be filed when it is believed that any person is in possession of and wrongfully withholding assets, papers, data, or information of or about:

- (A) a decedent's estate;
- (B) a minor child's estate;
- (C) a ward's or subject's income, property, or estate; or
- (D) a trust or settlor of a trust subject to court supervision.

(2) By Fiduciary. The following fiduciaries may file a petition for an order to show cause:

- (A) a personal representative;
- (B) a fiduciary for an adult ward, subject, or a minor child; or
- (C) a trustee.

(3) By Interested Person or, in Intervention Proceeding, Other Persons. An interested person or, in an intervention proceeding, a subject, ward, party, or person granted permission to participate may file a petition for order to show cause against:

- (A) the personal representative in a decedent's estate;
- (B) the conservator or guardian of an adult ward;
- (C) the trustee of a trust subject to court supervision; or
- (D) a guardian of a minor child's property and estate.

(4) Content of the Petition. The petition must state with particularity, or explain the absence of, the following facts and points and authorities:

- (A) a concise description of the asset, papers, data, or other information that is alleged to be wrongfully withheld;
- (B) the name, address, telephone number and any other pertinent identifying information about the person alleged to be wrongfully withholding;
- (C) a statement of the jurisdiction of this court over the subject matter and the person alleged to be wrongfully withholding;

(D) the facts and law that would establish the right of the petitioner to demand production of the subject asset, paper, data, or other information, including but not limited to its alleged connection to the assets of the estate or its relevance to the administration of the estate;

(E) a concise demand for relief, such as production of a particular asset or data, reimbursement of monies to the estate, or other specific relief; and

(F) any other information that the petitioner determines to be relevant to the court's decision to issue the order to show cause.

(5) Certification by Petitioner. The petition must include the petitioner's certificate that despite a good faith effort the petitioner has been unable to obtain the assets, papers, data, and information sought. The certification must state specific facts describing the good faith effort.

(b) PROPOSED ORDER. The petition must be filed with a proposed order that is substantially similar in content and format to the form maintained by the Register of Wills.

(c) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. Without waiting for a response to the petition, the court or the Auditor-Master may grant the petition and enter an order requiring the person alleged to be wrongfully withholding to appear and show cause why the person should not be ordered to:

(1) disclose all of the assets, papers, data, and information in the person's possession, belonging to the decedent, ward, minor child, settler, or trustee;

(2) disclose the location of the assets, papers, data, and information;

(3) provide access to or deliver the assets, papers, data, and information; or

(4) take such other action ordered by the court or the Auditor-Master.

(d) SERVICE OF THE PETITION AND ORDER.

(1) Service on Person Alleged to Be Wrongfully Withholding.

(A) In General. A copy of the petition and order to show cause must be served, by a person other than the petitioner, on the person alleged to be wrongfully withholding, in the manner set forth in the civil rules for service of a summons and complaint.

(B) Timing. The petition and order to show cause must be served at least 14 days prior to the hearing or within the time frame specified by the court.

(2) Service on Other Persons. All other persons entitled to be served with a petition or motion must be served, by first class mail, with the petition and order to show cause.

(3) Proof of Service. Proof of service of the petition and order to show cause must be by affidavit filed no later than the hearing set by the order.

(e) RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

(1) In General. The person alleged to be wrongfully withholding may file a responsive pleading to the petition at any time up to the date of the hearing.

(2) Plea of Title.

(A) Treating Petition as Complaint. If the responsive pleading asserts a plea of title, the court may treat the petition as a complaint filed under these rules and may:

(ii) hold a status conference on the date set for the hearing; and

(iii) enter any other appropriate order.

(B) Complaint Fee. The petitioner must pay the complaint filing fee within 14 days after receiving notice of the court's intent to treat the petition as a complaint.

COMMENT

If the petition is treated as a complaint, a jury demand must be timely made by any party desiring a jury trial. See Super. Ct. Civ. R. 38(b)(1).

Rule 119. Investments by a Fiduciary

(a) APPLICABILITY. This rule applies to all fiduciaries under the supervision of the court.

(b) INVESTMENT STANDARDS.

(1) Prudent Person Standard.

(A) In General. When investing, reinvesting, purchasing, acquiring, exchanging, selling, and managing property for the benefit of another, a fiduciary must act with care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing. The fiduciary must use the same care, skill, prudence, and diligence as a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims, to attain the goals of the settlor as determined from the trust instrument or will, or the objectives of the ward as determined by the court.

(B) Relevant Circumstances. The fiduciary must consider the following relevant circumstances, among others:

- (i) general economic conditions;
- (ii) the possible effect of inflation or deflation;
- (iii) the expected tax consequences of investment decisions or strategies;
- (iv) the role that each investment or course of action plays within the overall portfolio;
- (v) the expected total return from income and the appreciation of capital;
- (vi) other resources of the beneficiary, ward, or estate;
- (vii) needs for liquidity, regularity of income, or preservation or appreciation of capital; and
- (viii) an asset's special relationship or special value.

(2) Acquiring or Retaining Property or Other Investments. Within the limitations of the foregoing and considering individual investments as part of an overall investment strategy, a fiduciary is authorized to acquire every kind of property, real, personal, or mixed, and every kind of investment. In the absence of express provisions to the contrary in any will or trust instrument, a fiduciary may without liability continue to hold property received into a trust or an estate at its inception or subsequently added to it or acquired pursuant to proper authority or previously held by the ward if and as long as the fiduciary, in the exercise of good faith and of reasonable prudence, discretion and intelligence, may consider that retention is in the best interests of the trust or the ward or probate estate or in furtherance of the goals of the settlor or testator as determined from any trust instrument or will or the objectives of the ward as determined by the court.

(3) Deposit of Funds in Bank or Other Depository. In the absence of express provisions to the contrary in any trust instrument or will, a deposit of funds at interest in any bank or other depository (including the trustee) is a permissible investment to the extent that the deposit is insured under any present or future law of the United States, is collateralized pursuant to any present or future law of the District of Columbia or the United States, or to such greater extent as the court may authorize. Nothing in this rule may be construed as limiting the right of fiduciaries in proper cases to make deposits of moneys in banks, subject, in the case of interest-bearing deposits, to such notice or other conditions respecting withdrawal as may be prescribed by law or governmental regulation affecting such deposits.

(4) Deviation from Terms of Trust or Will. Nothing in this rule abrogates or restricts the power of the court in proper cases to direct or permit the fiduciary to deviate from the terms of the trust or will regarding the making or retention of investments.

(5) Other Terms Invoking Prudent Person Standard. Terms such as “investments permissible by law for investment of trust funds,” “legal investments,” “authorized investments,” “investments acquired using the judgment and care which persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation, but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of their capital,” and other words of similar import used in defining the powers of a fiduciary relative to investments, in the absence of other controlling or modifying provisions of a trust instrument or will, may be construed as authorizing any investment permitted, and imposing the standard of prudence required, by the terms of Rule 119(b)(1).

(6) Property Defined. The term “property” as used in this rule includes life insurance, endowment, and annuity contracts issued by legal reserve companies.

(c) EFFECT OF COURT AUTHORIZATION FOR INVESTMENT. In all cases in which a fiduciary is required to obtain court authorization prior to making investments, an order of court authorizing investments under this rule does not constitute court approval of the particular investments nor will the fiduciary be relieved of any fiduciary responsibility for having made the investments.

COMMENT

Subsection (b)(1) of this rule maintains “the prudent investor” standard as expressed in Johns v. Herbert, 2 App. D.C. 485 (1894), but makes clear that a prudent investor uses a total asset management approach in light of the investment objectives for the beneficiary and allows the court to permit generally accepted practices of risk allocation embodied in modern portfolio management theory. For further explication of current fiduciary investment practices with respect to trusts, see D.C. Code §§ 19-1309.01 to -.06 (2012 Repl.).

Rule 120. Conflict of Interests Transaction by Fiduciary

(a) CONFLICT OF INTERESTS TRANSACTION DEFINED.

(1) In General. A conflict of interests transaction is a sale, purchase, lease, encumbrance, or other transaction, involving property entrusted to a fiduciary or an opportunity belonging to the person, estate, or trust for which the fiduciary is acting, that is:

(A) entered into by the fiduciary for the fiduciary’s own personal account; or

(B) otherwise affected by a substantial conflict between fiduciary and personal interests.

(2) Related Persons or Entities. A sale, purchase, lease, encumbrance, or other transaction, involving property entrusted to a fiduciary or an opportunity belonging to the person, estate, or trust for which the fiduciary is acting, is presumed to be affected by a conflict of interests if entered into by the fiduciary with:

(A) the fiduciary's spouse or domestic partner;

(B) the fiduciary's descendants, siblings, parents, or their spouses;

(C) an agent of the fiduciary;

(D) the fiduciary's attorney; or

(E) a corporation or other entity in which the fiduciary or a person listed in Rule 120(a)(2)(A)-(D) has a substantial beneficial interest.

(b) DISCLOSURE. Unless the governing instrument authorizes the transaction, a fiduciary must disclose all material information regarding a conflict of interests transaction to all parties, interested persons, beneficiaries, or other persons having a substantial beneficial interest in the estate or property entrusted to the fiduciary.

(c) VOIDABLE TRANSACTIONS. A conflict of interests transaction is voidable unless:

(1) the transaction is authorized by the substantive law applicable to the trust or estate entrusted to the fiduciary;

(2) the transaction is authorized by the governing instrument of the trust or estate entrusted to the fiduciary;

(3) after fair disclosure, the transaction is consented to or ratified by all persons having a substantial beneficial interest;

(4) after fair disclosure, the fiduciary was released from liability by all persons having a substantial beneficial interest;

(5) the transaction involved a contract entered into or claim acquired by the fiduciary before the fiduciary became or contemplated becoming the fiduciary; or

(6) the transaction is approved by the court.

COMMENT

Conflict of interests transactions as defined in this rule do not include a fiduciary's compensation or agreements with respect to a fiduciary's compensation.

A person seeking court approval of a conflict of interests transaction should file a petition consistent with the statute and court rules applicable to the relevant fiduciary estate.

This rule does not affect the rights of unrelated third parties who engaged in a transaction with a fiduciary without knowledge of the fiduciary's conflict of interests in the transaction.

Rule 121. Reporting Conflict of Interests in Action

If a fiduciary sues or defends on behalf of the person, estate, or trust for which the fiduciary is acting concerning a matter in which the fiduciary has a possible conflict of interests, the fiduciary must report the facts in writing to the court.

Rule 122. Life Estate

(a) COMPUTATION. Allowance to a healthy tenant for life, unless otherwise adjudged, must be computed using the formula and tables established by the Secretary of the Treasury in accordance with I.R.C. § 7520.

(b) VALUATION DATE. For purposes of this rule, the valuation date is the first day of the month next preceding the month in which the initial pleading seeking an allowance is filed.

Rule 123. Disclaimers

A person may disclaim, in whole or part, any interest in or power over property by filing with the Register of Wills:

(1) the certificate of filing a disclaimer on a form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format; and

(2) a disclaimer in accordance with D.C. Code §§ 19-1501 to -1518 (2012 Repl. & 2021 Supp.).

COMMENT

The requirements of this rule are not intended to address the jurisdictional basis for filing a disclaimer in the Superior Court. Any person filing a disclaimer should assure himself or herself of the jurisdictional basis for filing the disclaimer in the Superior Court.

Rule 124. Notice of an Order or Judgment

(a) SERVICE. Immediately after entering an order or judgment, the clerk must serve notice of the entry, as provided in Civil Rule 5(b), on each party and other person entitled to notice. The clerk must record the service on the docket. A party also may serve notice of the entry as provided in Civil Rule 5(b).

(b) TIME TO APPEAL NOT AFFECTED BY LACK OF NOTICE. Lack of notice of the entry does not affect the time for appeal or relieve—or authorize the court to relieve—a person for failing to appeal within the time allowed, except as allowed by the District of Columbia Court of Appeals Rules.

(c) WHO CAN PERFORM THE CLERK'S FUNCTION. Nothing in this rule precludes a judge or magistrate judge or his or her authorized staff member from performing the function of the clerk prescribed in Rule 124(a).

Rule 125. Motion for Reconsideration and Other Relief From Judgment

(a) WHO MAY FILE. A motion for reconsideration may be filed by:

(1) any person who participated in the determination of the ruling, order, or judgment;
or

(2) a person who received notice of an account or request for compensation and who filed an objection to that account or request for compensation within the time required by applicable rule or allowed by the court.

(b) GROUNDS FOR RECONSIDERATION. A motion may seek reconsideration of the ruling, order, or judgment only on the following grounds:

(1) the court failed to consider a material fact or law upon which such matter was based;

(2) newly discovered evidence that, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered;

(3) the court did not provide a basis or reason for its order;

(4) fraud (whether previously called intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or misconduct by another person or entity interested in the proceeding;

(5) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect;

(6) the order pertains to a matter or matters on which no other interested person or party filed an objection or otherwise contested the issues disposed of by the order; or

(7) any other reason that justifies relief.

(c) TIME FOR FILING.

(1) In General. Except as provided in Rule 125(c)(2), the motion must be filed no later than 28 days after entry of the ruling, order, or judgment and prior to the entry of the order approving the final account, except for an order disposing of an objection to a final account.

(2) Objection to Final Account in Decedent's Estate. If the court disposes of an objection to a final account in a decedent's estate through an order approving the final account or an order entered contemporaneously with the court's approval of the account, a motion for reconsideration may be made no later than 20 days after the entry of the order approving the final account.

(3) Extending Time. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Superior Court rules, the court may not extend the time for filing a motion for reconsideration.

(e) STAY PENDING RECONSIDERATION. If a motion for reconsideration is filed in connection with a ruling pertaining to an objection to a final account, the court may suspend the actions or obligations of the fiduciary by granting a separate motion for a stay pending reconsideration until the motion for reconsideration is decided.

(f) HEARING. The court may rule on a motion for reconsideration with or without a hearing.

(g) CLERICAL MISTAKES. The court may correct a clerical mistake or a mistake arising from oversight or omission whenever one is found in a ruling, order, judgment or decree, or other part of the record. The court may do so on motion or on its own, with or without notice. But after an appeal has been docketed in the appellate court and while it is pending, such a mistake may be corrected only with the appellate court's leave.

(h) OTHER POWERS TO GRANT RELIEF. This rule does not limit a court's power to:

(1) entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a ruling, order, or judgment;
or

(2) set aside a judgment for fraud on the court.

(i) RELATIONSHIP TO CIVIL RULES. If this rule applies, Civil Rules 59 and 60 do not apply.

COMMENT

Pursuant to District of Columbia Court of Appeals Rule 4, the timely filing of a motion for reconsideration pursuant to this rule suspends the running of the time for filing a notice of appeal.

A motion for reconsideration does not suspend the proceedings or stay the ruling, order, or judgment that is the subject of the motion. A party seeking a stay must file a motion for a stay pending reconsideration or appeal under Rule 127.

If an interested person or party has notice of an account or request for compensation and fails to file an objection to that account or request for compensation within the statutory period, that interested person or party lacks standing to bring a motion for reconsideration of the order approving the account or request for compensation.

This rule is similar to Civil Rules 59(e) and 60(b). Modifications have been made to accommodate practice in the Probate Division. Where provisions of this rule are substantially similar to the civil rules, case law interpreting the civil rules will be applicable to this rule.

“Judgment” as used in this rule includes any order from which an appeal lies.

Rule 126. Appeals

(a) IN GENERAL. Any person who is aggrieved by a final order or judgment of the Probate Division and who participated in the determination of that order or judgment may file an appeal to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.

(b) WHEN ALLOWED: DECEDENTS’ ESTATES. An order or judgment of the court determining rights of any interested person or party in any proceeding in the administration of the estate of a decedent is deemed final with respect to the following matters:

- (1) order granting or denying probate;
- (2) order construing the decedent’s will;
- (3) order determining heirs or legatees;
- (4) order determining title to assets;
- (5) order determining that property should be sold; or
- (6) order approving a final account.

(c) WHEN ALLOWED: ALL OTHER PROCEEDINGS. An order or judgment of the court determining rights of any interested person or party in any proceeding other than decedents’ estates is deemed final with respect to the following matters:

- (1) order appointing, removing or denying a request to appoint or remove a permanent guardian, permanent conservator, special conservator, trustee, or other permanent fiduciary;

(2) order granting or limiting the rights, powers or duties of a permanent guardian, permanent conservator, special conservator, trustee, or other permanent fiduciary;

(3) order approving any account, or granting or denying an objection to any account;

(4) order granting or denying compensation;

(5) order determining title to assets;

(6) order determining that property should be sold;

(7) order determining a claim against a protected person or property of a protected person; or

(8) order granting or denying authority to make gifts.

(d) WHEN ALLOWED: JUDGMENT ON FEWER THAN ALL CLAIMS OR INTERESTED PERSONS OR PARTIES. On application of any interested person or party or in the court's discretion, the court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more, but fewer than all, claims or interested persons or parties if the court expressly determines that there is no just reason for delay.

COMMENT

An interested person or party in a decedent's estate generally lacks standing to appeal if the person or party has notice of an account or request for compensation and fails to file an objection to such account or request for compensation within the statutory period, or if the statutory period has expired, when the person or party "discovers, or by reasonable diligence should discover, the injury, its cause in fact, and some evidence of wrongful conduct." Johnson v. Martin, 567 A.2d 1299, 1302 (D.C. 1989).

The mere filing of an appeal does not suspend the proceedings or stay the ruling, order, judgment or decree that is the subject of the appeal. The court may enter a separate order for a stay pending appeal. Murphy v. McCloud, 605 A.2d 202 (D.C. 1994).

Rule 127. Stay of Judgment or Order Pending Reconsideration or Appeal

(a) STAY ON MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OR APPEAL. On appropriate terms for the opposing party's security, the court may stay the execution or enforcement of a judgment or order pending the disposition of:

(1) a motion for reconsideration; or

(2) an appeal.

(b) APPELLATE COURT'S POWER NOT LIMITED. This rule does not limit the power of the appellate court or one of its judges:

(1) to stay proceedings while an appeal is pending; or

(2) to issue an order to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment to be entered.

COMMENT

This rule does not address the time for filing a notice of appeal, which is governed by District of Columbia Court of Appeals Rule 4.

Rule 128. Computing and Extending Time; Time for Motion Papers

(a) COMPUTING TIME. The following rules apply in computing any time period specified in these rules, in any court order, or in any statute that does not specify a method of computing time.

(1) Period Stated in Days or a Longer Unit. When the period is stated in days or a longer unit of time:

(A) exclude the day of the event that triggers the period;

(B) count every day, including intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays; and

(C) include the last day of the period, but if the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, the period continues to run until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

(2) Period Stated in Hours. When the period is stated in hours:

(A) begin counting immediately on the occurrence of the event that triggers the period;

(B) count every hour, including hours during intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays; and

(C) if the period would end on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the period continues to run until the same time on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

(3) Inaccessibility of the Clerk's Office. Unless the court orders otherwise, if the clerk's office is inaccessible:

(A) on the last day for filing under Rule 128(a)(1), then the time for filing is extended to the first accessible day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday; or

(B) during the last hour for filing under Rule 128(a)(2), then the time for filing is extended to the same time on the first accessible day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

(4) “Last Day” Defined. Unless a different time is set by a statute or court order, the last day ends:

(A) for electronic filing, at midnight in the court’s time zone; and

(B) for filing by other means, when the clerk’s office is scheduled to close.

(5) “Next Day” Defined. The “next day” is determined by continuing to count forward when the period is measured after an event and backward when measured before an event.

(6) “Legal Holiday” Defined. “Legal holiday” means:

(A) the day set aside by statute for observing New Year’s Day, Martin Luther King Jr.’s Birthday, Washington’s Birthday, Memorial Day, Juneteenth, Independence Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veterans’ Day, Thanksgiving Day, or Christmas Day; and

(B) any day declared a holiday by the President or Congress, or observed as a holiday by the court.

(b) EXTENDING TIME.

(1) In General. When an act may or must be done within a specified time, the court may, for good cause, extend the time:

(A) with or without motion or notice if the court acts, or if the request is made, before the original time or its extension expires; or

(B) on motion made after the time has expired if the party failed to act because of excusable neglect.

(2) Exceptions. A court must not extend the time to act under Rule 125 and Civil Rules 52(b), 59(b), (d), and (e), and 60(b).

(c) TIME FOR SERVING AFFIDAVITS. Any affidavit supporting a motion or opposition must be served with the motion or opposition unless the court orders otherwise.

(d) ADDITIONAL TIME AFTER CERTAIN KINDS OF SERVICE. When a party may or must act within a specified time after being served and service is made by mail or leaving with the clerk, 3 days are added after the period would otherwise expire under this Rule 128(a).

CHAPTER 2. DECEDENTS' ESTATES

Rule 201. Commencing a Decedent's Estate

(a) IN GENERAL. An interested person or creditor may commence a proceeding to administer a decedent's estate by filing a petition for probate. The petition for probate must indicate whether the interested person or creditor is requesting:

(2) a supervised or unsupervised standard probate proceeding described in Rule 203; or

(3) a small estate proceeding described in Rule 204.

(b) OTHER FILINGS AND DOCUMENTS. If applicable, the petition for probate must be accompanied by:

(1) the notice of standard probate, described in Rule 203(d);

(5) a bond or waiver of bond, described in Rule 208; and

(6) the personal identification information form maintained by the Register of Wills.

Rule 202. Abbreviated Probate

(a) IN GENERAL. An interested person may request a supervised or unsupervised abbreviated probate proceeding, unless a standard probate proceeding is required because:

(1) the petition for probate is filed by a creditor or interested person who does not have the highest priority to serve as the personal representative; or

(2) there is an irregularity with the will.

(b) FORMAT AND CONTENT OF PETITION. The petition for abbreviated probate must be typed or electronically completed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content. The petition must contain the information required by D.C. Code § 20-304 (2012 Repl.).

Rule 203. Standard Probate

(a) IN GENERAL. An interested person or creditor must request a standard probate proceeding if:

(1) the petition for probate is filed by a creditor or interested person who does not have the highest priority to serve as the personal representative; or

(2) there is an irregularity with the will.

(b) PETITION: FORMAT AND CONTENT; ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND MEMORANDA.

(1) Format and Content. The petition for standard probate must be typed or electronically completed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content. (A) Requesting Order for Testimony by Witnesses to Will. If a person requesting standard probate seeks an order directing witnesses to a purported will to appear and give testimony regarding its execution, the petition for standard probate must include, or be accompanied by a memorandum providing, the names and addresses of the witnesses and a statement regarding the efforts made to secure affidavits from the witnesses.

(B) Requesting Order for Person with Custody of Will. If a person requesting standard probate seeks an order requiring any person alleged to have custody of a purported will to deliver it to the court, the petition for standard probate must include, or be accompanied by a memorandum providing, the name and address of the person alleged to have custody of the purported will and the efforts made to induce that person to file it with the Register of Wills or to deliver it to the nominated personal representative.

(C) Seeking Admission of Altered, Lost, or Destroyed Will. If a person requesting standard probate seeks an order directing any interested person to show cause why the provisions of an altered will or a copy of any lost or destroyed will should not be admitted to probate, the petition for standard probate must include, or be accompanied by a memorandum containing, a concise statement of facts, supported by affidavits, that shows:

(i) the will was duly executed;

(ii) if the will contains unwitnessed cross outs or interlineations, why the will should not be presumed revoked by physical destruction;

(iii) the chain of custody of the original will and whether and why it should not be presumed to be revoked;

(iv) if the will is incomplete or there appear to be missing pages, why the will should not be presumed revoked;

(v) any other facts that would overcome the presumption that the will was revoked;
and

(vi) any facts that support the admission of the will to probate.

(D) Seeking Finding of Intestacy After Will Has Been Filed. If the person requesting standard probate seeks a finding of intestacy when a document purporting to be a will of the decedent has been filed with the Register of Wills, the petition for standard probate must include, or be accompanied by a memorandum containing, a concise statement of facts, supported by affidavits, that shows:

(i) the will was not duly executed;

(ii) no original will can be found and only a copy was found in the possession of the decedent;

(iii) the markings on the will establish that the will was revoked by destruction;

(iv) any other facts that establish the will has been revoked; or

(v) any other facts supporting denying admission of the will to probate and a finding of intestacy.

(E) Any Other Relief. If the person requesting standard probate seeks any other court action, the petition for standard probate must include, or be accompanied by a memorandum containing, a concise statement of the court action sought, supported by affidavits.

(c) FILING BY REGISTER OF WILLS. If no petition for standard probate is filed within a reasonable time, the Register of Wills, with the approval of the court, may file a petition for standard probate.

(d) NOTICE. A person requesting standard probate must provide notice of the petition.

(1) Format and Content. The notice must be typed or electronically completed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(2) Filing and Publication. The person requesting standard probate must file the notice at the time of filing the petition for standard probate. The Register of Wills must promptly forward copies to a newspaper of general circulation in the District of Columbia and a legal newspaper, for publication once a week for two successive weeks.

(3) To Whom. Within 14 days after the date of first publication, the person requesting standard probate must serve—by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, with delivery restricted to the addressee only—a copy of the notice, the petition, and any other documents filed under Rule 203(b), on:

(A) all interested persons;

(B) any person named in a testamentary document filed with or otherwise before the court (if applicable);

(ii) if applicable, after diligent efforts, the person requesting standard probate has been unable to locate the address of an interested person; and

(iii) if the identity of heirs at law is unknown, the efforts to ascertain their identity and whereabouts.

(B) Actual Notice. In lieu of the notice prescribed by this rule, proof of actual notice or personal service will suffice.

(e) HEARING. The court may schedule a hearing on the petition for standard probate upon receiving the proof and verified statement required by Rule 203(d)(4).

(f) DISMISSAL FOR FAILURE TO FILE NOTICE. If the petitioner fails to file the proof and verified statement required by Rule 203(d)(4) within 60 days after the filing of the petition for standard probate, the Register of Wills may dismiss without prejudice the petition for standard probate. Any dismissal entered under Rule 203(f) is not effective until 14 days after the date on which it is docketed, and must be vacated on the granting of a motion filed by the petitioner within that 14-day period showing good cause why the petition for standard probate should not be dismissed.

COMMENT

D.C. Code § 20-321 (2012 Repl.) specifies those persons entitled to request standard probate.

Rule 204. Small Estate

(a) IN GENERAL. Any person eligible for appointment as the personal representative who seeks to administer an estate with a value less than the amount set out in D.C. Code § 20-351 (2012 Repl.) may file a verified petition for probate that requests a small estate proceeding.

Rule 205. Solely-Owned Safe Deposit Box

(a) PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR. If a decedent owned a safe deposit box titled in the decedent's sole name, and there is reason to believe that the box contains the decedent's will, an interested person may file a petition for the appointment of a special administrator to access the box to obtain the will and deliver it to the court in accordance with this rule. The petition for appointment of a special administrator to open a safe deposit box must be on the form prescribed by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format.

(b) WHO MAY BE APPOINTED. The petitioner may seek the petitioner's appointment or that of a member of the District of Columbia Bar.

(c) BOND NOT REQUIRED. No bond is required.

(d) NOTICE.

(1) No Prior Service or Notice Required. The court may act before service of the petition on, or notice to, the interested persons.

(2) Mailing Petition and Order. The court must send the order appointing the special administrator to the interested persons.

(e) AUTHORITY OF SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR.

A special administrator appointed under this rule has only the authority to enter the safe deposit box(es) listed in the petition and deliver to the court any testamentary instruments found in the safe deposit box(es).

(f) REPORT. If a will is not found, the special administrator must file a report of the actions taken to seek the will.

(g) EXPIRATION OF APPOINTMENT. The appointment of the special administrator expires at the earlier of:

- (1) the filing of the will or a report of the actions taken to seek the will; or
- (2) 30 days after the entry of the order of appointment.

COMMENT

The court has the discretion to appoint the petitioner or a member of the District of Columbia Bar as special administrator. If the petitioner is not the named personal representative or a residuary legatee in a copy of the will exhibited with the petition, the court may appoint a member of the Bar.

Rule 206. Notice of Appointment of Personal Representative in Abbreviated or Standard Probate

(a) PETITIONER REQUESTING NAMED PERSON FOR APPOINTMENT AS PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE. If the petitioner requesting standard or abbreviated probate seeks appointment of one or more named persons as personal representative, the petitioner must file, along with the petition for probate, a typed or electronically completed notice of appointment on the form maintained by the Register of Wills, signed by each person seeking appointment and completed to the extent possible (excluding the date of first publication and the deadline for filing objections and claims).

(b) PETITIONER REQUESTING COURT-SELECTED PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE. If the petitioner seeks appointment of a person selected by the court as personal representative, the person appointed by the court must file a typed or electronically completed notice of appointment, signed and completed as set forth above, not later than 14 days after the date of appointment.

(c) PUBLICATION. Upon appointment of the personal representative under Rule 206(a) or filing of the notice of appointment under Rule 206(b), the Register of Wills must complete the notice of appointment form and forward copies to a newspaper of general circulation in the District of Columbia and a legal newspaper, for publication once a week for three successive weeks.

(d) SENDING COPIES OF NOTICE. No later than 20 days after appointment, the personal representative must send by certified or registered mail to all heirs and legatees, and to all creditors whose identities are known or whose identities are ascertainable by reasonably diligent efforts, copies of the first notice of appointment, notice to creditors and notice to unknown heirs, and the general information statement on the form maintained by the Register of Wills.

(e) VERIFICATION AND CERTIFICATION OF NOTICE.

(1) In General. Within 90 days after the appointment of the personal representative, the personal representative (whether supervised or unsupervised) must file with the Register of Wills:

(A) the verification and certificate of notice form maintained by the Register of Wills, specifying the date of mailing of the notice required by Rule 206 and the names and addresses of the persons to whom the notice was mailed; and

(B) an affidavit or declaration of an officer or agent of each publisher stating the dates of publication and accompanied by a copy of the notice as published.

(2) Filing with Inventory. The verification and certificate of notice must be included with any initial inventory required to be filed with the court.

(f) AFTER-DISCOVERED WILL. If a will is admitted to probate after notice of appointment has been given, the personal representative must:

(1) send notice of appointment or reappointment as provided in Rule 206(d), except that ordinary mail may be substituted for registered or certified mail if this is not the first notice sent to the person; and

(2) file a notice of appointment or reappointment, typed or electronically completed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills, and the Register of Wills must promptly forward copies of the completed form to the designated newspapers for publication.

Rule 207. Consent to Appointment of Personal Representative

(a) FORMAT AND CONTENT. A consent to the appointment of a personal representative must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(b) WAIVER OF BOND. The consent may be accompanied by a waiver of the personal representative's bond described in Rule 208.

Rule 208. Bond

(a) IN GENERAL.

(1) When Required. Unless the personal representative is excused from giving bond either by the will or by the written waiver of all of the interested persons, the personal representative must, at the time of filing the petition for probate, give bond for the benefit of interested persons who did not waive bond and creditors who are not interested persons.

(2) After Presentation of Claim. If the will does not waive bond, and at any time after the filing of a petition for probate a creditor becomes an interested person and does not waive bond, the personal representative must petition to give or increase such a bond within 21 days after presentation of a claim to the personal representative.

(3) Form. The bond required under D.C. Code § 20-502(a) (2012 Repl.) must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills.

(b) DEMAND FOR BOND UNDER D.C. CODE § 20-502(a-1).

(1) Who May File. At any time after the filing of the petition for probate, any person with an interest in the estate worth in excess of $1,000 or any creditor having a claim in excess of $1,000 may file a demand for bond under D.C. Code § 20-502(a-1) (2012 Repl.).

(2) Form and Service. A demand for bond under D.C. Code § 20-502(a-1) (2012 Repl.) must be made by petition on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar to that form. A copy of the petition must be mailed or delivered to the personal representative, or, if appointment has not occurred, to the person(s) whose appointment as personal representative is requested in the petition.

(3) Opposition to Demand for Bond. The personal representative or the person requesting appointment as personal representative may oppose the petition or the amount of the bond requested by filing a timely opposition with the Register of Wills.

(4) Bond Ordered by Court; Form. If the court orders that the personal representative file a bond or increase an existing bond, but the order does not specify a time for filing, the personal representative must file the bond within 14 days after the date of the order appointing the personal representative or the order requiring the bond, whichever is later. The bond required under D.C. Code § 20-502(a-1) (2012 Repl.) must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills.

(c) AMOUNT OF BOND; VALUE OF INTEREST.

(1) Amount of Bond. For the purpose of setting a bond under D.C. Code § 20-502(a) (2012 Repl.), the amount of the bond must be equal to the estimated value of the estate less the estimated net distributable share of each person waiving bond, calculated as if estate assets were applied to debts, funeral expenses, family allowance, administration expenses, and distributions to heirs, legatees, and other claimants in order of priority and according to law.

(2) Value of Interest. For the purpose of setting a bond under D.C. Code § 20-502(a-1) (2012 Repl.), the value of the interest in the estate of the person or creditor demanding bond must be the estimated amount of the net distribution or disbursement due to that person or creditor, calculated as if estate assets were applied to debts, funeral expenses, family allowance, administration expenses, and distributions to heirs, legatees, and other claimants in order of priority and according to law.

(3) Appraisal. The court may require an appraisal of a specific asset for the purpose of setting a bond if there is a dispute over the value of that asset.

(d) FAILURE TO FILE BOND. In its order requiring the filing or the increasing of a bond, the court may direct that, if the bond is not filed or increased within the time specified by this rule or the court's order, the powers of the personal representative will, upon the expiration of that time period, automatically and without further order of the court be suspended until the filing or increase of the required bond. Upon such filing or increase, the original powers of the personal representative must automatically be reinstated unless otherwise ordered by the court. The failure to file or increase the required bond may subject the personal representative to removal proceedings in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-526 (2012 Repl.) and Rule 114.

(e) WAIVER OF BOND.

(1) In General. An interested person may waive the personal representative's bond as to his or her interest.

(2) Form. The waiver of the personal representative's bond must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form which is substantially similar to that form.

(3) Consent to Appointment of Personal Representative. The waiver may be accompanied by a consent to appointment of a personal representative described in Rule 207.

COMMENT

Creditors who can become interested persons are only those creditors of the decedent, including those whose rights accrue at the time of death, who have timely presented a claim in excess of $500 that has not been barred or discharged. D.C. Code § 20-101(d)(1)(E) (2012 Repl.). Claims are presented in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-903(a)(1) (2012 Repl.). However, claims that arise after the death of the decedent, such as expenses incurred in the administration of the estate, need not initially be presented to the personal representative, Poe v. Noble, 525 A.2d 190, 196 (D.C. 1987), and in fact become barred if no action is commenced on them within six months after they arise, D.C. Code § 20-903(a)(2) (2012 Repl.). Cf. Johnson v. Martin, 567 A.2d 1299, 1305 (D.C. 1989) ("On remand, therefore, the court must first decide whether any claim against the estate (as opposed to a claim against Mr. Abrams himself) for an alleged breach of fiduciary duty is time-barred."); Grimberg v. Marth, 659 A.2d 1287 (Md. 1995).

Accordingly, administrative creditors as distinguished from creditors of the decedent cannot become interested persons, because they cannot perfect their claims by presentation to the personal representative under D.C. Code § 20-903(a)(1) (2012 Repl.).

Rule 209. Special Administrators

A special administrator must file an inventory and accounts in the same manner as required for supervised personal representatives.

Rule 210. Contested Proceedings Commenced by Complaint

(a) TYPE OF PROCEEDING.

(1) When Required. The following actions are commenced by filing a verified complaint:

(A) an action to contest the validity of a will in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-305 (2012 Repl.); or

(B) an action for payment of a claim that was denied in whole or in part in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-908 (2012 Repl.).

(2) By Court Order. Unless a statute provides otherwise, on request of an interested person or on its own initiative, the court may order that a petition be treated as a complaint commencing a contested proceeding or that a complaint be filed.

(b) APPLYING CIVIL RULES.

(1) In General. Except as modified in Rule 210(b)(2)-(3) or as otherwise ordered by the court, the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure apply to a contested proceeding commenced by a complaint under Rule 210(a)(1) or (2).

(2) Summons. Together with the complaint, the plaintiff must complete and file a summons for each defendant on the form maintained by the Register of Wills. On filing of the complaint and summons, the clerk must issue the summons and an initial order to be served with the complaint in accordance with the civil rules.

(3) Initial Scheduling and Settlement Conference. The court must schedule an initial scheduling and settlement conference to be held within 120 days after the complaint is filed.

(c) REQUIRED DEFENDANTS.

(1) Complaint to Contest Validity of Will. In a complaint to contest the validity of a will, the defendants must include:

(A) all interested persons, excluding creditors; and

(B) all persons needed for just adjudication under Civil Rule 19.

(2) Any Other Complaint. In any other complaint, the defendants must include:

(A) the personal representative; and

(B) any other persons needed for just adjudication under Civil Rule 19.

(d) NOTICE TO CREDITORS. In a proceeding to contest the validity of a will, the plaintiff must give notice under D.C. Code § 20-103 (2012 Repl.) to creditors who are interested persons and must prove service of the notice by certificate of service.

COMMENT

A plenary proceeding provided for in D.C. Code § 16-3105 (2012 Repl.) is a process that existed largely for decedent's estate administration pursuant to now-repealed statutes, and it is no longer used in current practice. Relief formerly requested in a plenary proceeding may be requested in a petition, which, if appropriate, may be treated as a complaint commencing a contested proceeding.

Rule 211. Petitions to Restrain Acts of Supervised Personal Representative: Requirements

(a) CONTENT. A petition to restrain the acts of a supervised personal representative filed pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-521 (2012 Repl.) must contain the information required by Rule 105(b)(1).

(1) Required. The parties to proceedings on the petition must include:

(A) the petitioner;

(B) the personal representative; and

(C) any third person whose rights will be directly affected by the relief requested in the petition, who must be named in the petition as a respondent.

(2) Permitted. Any other interested person in the estate may request to be a party to the proceedings on the petition.

(c) HEARING. The court must set a hearing on the petition within 10 days after the filing of the petition, unless the parties agree to a different date.

(d) SERVICE.

(1) On Parties. The petitioner must personally serve the petition on the personal representative and any party no later than the time set by the court.

(2) Interested Persons Not Named as a Party. The petitioner must serve the petition, by first class mail, on all interested persons not named as a party when the petition is filed.

Rule 212. Distribution to Minors

(a) IN GENERAL. A personal representative must distribute assets to a minor in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-1106 (2012 Repl.).

(b) PETITION FOR COURT APPROVAL. If court approval is required or is otherwise requested by the personal representative for a distribution to a minor under D.C. Code § 20-1106 (2012 Repl.), the personal representative must file a verified petition that sets forth the following information:

(1) the name, residence, and date of birth of each minor for whom distribution authority is sought, as well as the basis for the minor's entitlement to share in the estate;

(2) the total value of the estate assets to be distributed to each minor;

(3) the proposed method of distribution;

(4) the reason why distribution under D.C. Code § 20-1106 (a) or (b)(1) (2012 Repl.) is not permissible or desired;

(5) if authority is requested to establish a restricted account, the name and location of the financial institution; and

(6) if authority is requested to distribute assets exceeding $10,000.00 in value under D.C. Code § 21-306 (2012 Repl.):

(A) the reason why the transfer is in the best interests of the minor;

(B) facts to show the transfer is not prohibited by or inconsistent with the provisions of the will; and

(C) a representation that the personal representative will effect the transfer in accordance with D.C. Code § 21-309 (2012 Repl.) and file an appropriate receipt.

Rule 213. Action on Claims

(a) NOTICE OF ACTION. Notice of action taken by the personal representative, in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-908(a) (2012 Repl.), must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(b) SERVICE OF NOTICE OF ACTION. The personal representative must sign the notice and mail or deliver it to each claimant.

Rule 214. Petition for Payment of Claim

(a) IN GENERAL. A person may file a petition for an order directing payment of a claim under D.C. Code § 20-909(a) (2012 Repl.) if the person:

(1) has a valid unbarred claim or judgment; and

(2) has not been paid by the personal representative within 8 months after publication of the first notice of appointment of a personal representative.

(b) FORMAT AND CONTENT. A petition for an order directing payment of a claim must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(c) APPLICABLE PROCEDURES. The procedures for a petition for an order directing payment of a claim are governed by Rule 105(c)-(f).

(d) RESPONSE TO PETITION. The personal representative must file and serve the claimant with a response to the petition no later than 14 days after the petition was mailed or delivered.

Rule 215. Account of Personal Representative

(a) SUPERVISED PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE.

(1) Filing. A supervised personal representative must file an account as required by D.C. Code § 20-724 (2012 Repl.).

(2) Contents of Account. In addition to the content required by Rule 113, the account must show payment of any applicable statutory allowances set out in D.C. Code §§ 19-101.02 to -.04 (2012 Repl.).

(3) Objection to Account. An objection to an account of a supervised personal representative must be filed within 30 days after the filing of the account.

(4) Final Account Tax Certification. The final account of a supervised personal representative must include a certification that the supervised personal representative is, or is not, required to file a federal estate tax return or a District of Columbia estate transfer tax return, and if so, that any tax due, including applicable interest, has been paid in full.

(b) UNSUPERVISED PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE.

(1) When Required. An unsupervised personal representative must prepare an account and serve it on all interested persons:

- (A) at reasonable intervals during the administration of the estate;
- (B) on reasonable demand by any interested person; and
- (C) as ordered by the court in a proceeding initiated by an interested person.

(2) Contents of Account. In addition to the contents required by Rule 113, the account must show payment of any applicable statutory allowances set out in D.C. Code §§ 19-101.02 to -.04 (2012 Repl.).

(3) Objection to Account.

(A) Interim Account. An objection to an interim account of an unsupervised personal representative may be filed at any time prior to the mailing of the final account of an unsupervised personal representative.

(4) Final Account.

(A) Service. An unsupervised personal representative must serve the final account on all interested persons and may send the final account to each creditor of the decedent or the estate.

(B) Notice. The final account of an unsupervised personal representative must include the notice to interested persons required by D.C. Code § 20-735(b) (2012 Repl.), on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

COMMENT

Rule 113 includes the general requirements for format, contents, and audit of accounts.

The finality of unsupervised administration provided for in D.C. Code § 20-736 (2012 Repl.) requires serving both the final account and the notice to interested persons described in D.C. Code § 20-735(b) (2012 Repl.). Any certificate of completion of unsupervised administration filed pursuant to Rule 221 must be accompanied by a copy of the notice sent with the final account.

Rule 216. Waiver of Filing Inventories and Accounts in Supervised Administration

(a) FORM OF WAIVER. A waiver of filing inventories and accounts under D.C. Code § 20-731 (2012 Repl.) must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(b) EFFECT OF WAIVER.

(1) In General. The filing of the waiver of the inventories and accounts converts supervised administration to unsupervised administration.

(2) Court-Ordered Supervised Administration. If waivers of filing inventories and accounts are filed by all interested persons in an estate administration that is supervised pursuant to court order, the court may set a hearing to determine whether there is good cause for the administration to remain supervised.

COMMENT

For purposes of D.C. Code § 20-731(a) (2012 Repl.), “an heir or legatee” refers to intestate or testate cases, as appropriate. This rule does not require the waiver by heirs in a testate case.

D.C. Code § 20-403(b) (2012 Repl.) permits the court, after notice and a hearing, to order supervised administration.

Rule 217. Waiver of Complete Court Audit of Account in Supervised Administration

(a) FORM OF WAIVER. A waiver of a complete court audit of an account by an heir in an intestate estate or a legatee in a testate estate pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-732(a) (2012 Repl.) must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(b) EFFECT OF A RECEIPT. A receipt signed by an heir or legatee acknowledging payment in full of his or her interest in the estate is deemed to be a waiver for purposes of D.C. Code § 20-732(a) (2012 Repl.).

(c) WAIVER OF RIGHT TO FILE OBJECTIONS. An heir or legatee may waive the right to a complete court audit under D.C. Code § 20-732(a) (2012 Repl.) and the right to file an objection to the account within 30 days after its filing as provided in Rule 215. An heir or legatee who waives these rights may nevertheless demand a complete court audit within 20 days after approval of the final account.

Rule 218. Assignment of Rights

(a) FORM OF ASSIGNMENT. A person who claims to have a right to a distribution from a decedent's estate may assign all or part of that right to another person or entity. The assignment must be in writing and must have the caption required by Rule 103.

(b) FILING. The assignee must promptly file the assignment with the court.

(c) FUTURE PROCEEDINGS. Any future action to protect or enforce the assignment, or any claim based on the assignment, must be presented in the name of the assignee and not in the name of the assignor. Unless approved by the court, neither the assignee, nor counsel for the assignee may appear for or represent the assignor.

Rule 219. Termination of Appointment of Supervised Personal Representative

A petition for termination of the appointment of the supervised personal representative, the accompanying notice, and the proposed order pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-1301 (2012 Repl.) must be on the forms maintained by the Register of Wills or forms that are substantially similar in content and format to those forms. The petition must have attached to it all receipts not previously filed evidencing proper distribution of assets of the estate.

Rule 220. Review of Compensation

(a) COMPENSATION IS PAYABLE WITHOUT COURT APPROVAL. Whether administration is supervised or unsupervised, the personal representative may pay reasonable compensation, without prior court approval, to the personal representative, an attorney, and any other provider of services to or person contracting with the personal representative.

(b) REVIEW OF OR OBJECTION TO COMPENSATION. On petition of or objection by an interested person who has not consented after fair disclosure and after notice of the right to object, the court may review the need for employment of any person or entity or the reasonableness of any compensation paid to the personal representative or any person or entity.

(c) CONTENT OF PETITION OR OBJECTION AND ANY RESPONSE. A petition or objection seeking review of the need for employment of any person or entity or the reasonableness of any compensation, and any response to the petition or objection, must address the factors set forth in D.C. Code § 20-753(b) (2012 Repl.) and may include any other bases for relief.

Rule 221. Certificate of Completion in Unsupervised Administration

(a) FORM. A certificate of completion, as provided in D.C. Code § 20-735 (2012 Repl.), may be filed by an unsupervised personal representative on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(b) CONTENTS. The certificate of completion must include:

- (1) the information required by D.C. Code § 20-735(b) (2012 Repl.);
- (2) a copy of the notice accompanying the final account, as required by Rule 215;
- (3) a list of the names and addresses of each person to whom the final account and notice was sent; and
- (4) a certificate of service.

Rule 222. Requests for Extension of Unsupervised Personal Representative's Appointment

(a) FORM OF REQUEST. A written request for extension of the appointment of an unsupervised personal representative under D.C. Code § 20-1301(c) (2012 Repl.) must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form. The request must include:

- (1) a list of the name and current address of each interested person; and
- (2) a proposed order on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format.

(b) NOTICE OR CONSENT. No notice to or consent of interested persons is required for action on the request.

(c) TIME FOR FILING; COURT ACTION.

(1) Time for Filing. A request for extension of appointment must be filed by the date that the initial or extended appointment would terminate under D.C. Code § 20-1301(c) (2012 Repl.).

(2) Court Action. A written request for extensions filed after the termination date may be granted by the court.

(d) NOTICE OF EXTENSION. The court must send to each interested person the order extending the appointment of the personal representative and the notice advising the interested persons of the extension of the personal representative's appointment on the form maintained by the Register of Wills.

COMMENT

If the request is filed after the expiration of the personal representative's powers, the court may apply greater scrutiny to the request.

CHAPTER 3. PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA GUARDIANSHIP, PROTECTIVE PROCEEDINGS AND DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY ACT (INTERVENTION PROCEEDINGS)

Rule 301. Commencing an Intervention Proceeding

(a) IN GENERAL. Except for a proceeding to appoint a temporary guardian under Rule 302 or to appoint a conservator for a missing, disappeared, or detained person under Rule 303, an intervention proceeding is commenced by filing a petition on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content, requesting:

(A) the subject of the proceeding;

(B) the subject's spouse or, if no spouse, the subject's adult children or, if no spouse or adult children, the subject's parents or, if no spouse, adult children, or parents, at least 1 of the subject's nearest adult relatives if any can be found;

(C) any person who is serving as guardian or conservator or who has the care and custody of the subject of the proceeding;

(D) any other person as directed by the court; and

(E) if the District of Columbia is not the subject's home state, any persons who would be entitled to notice if the petition had been brought in the subject's home state.

(2) Notice to Other Persons. A copy of the petition and notice of hearing must be sent by first class mail, postage prepaid, to:

(A) any person listed in Rule 301(d)(1)(B) who was not personally served; and

(B) any person who has a higher priority for appointment as guardian or conservator than the proposed guardian or conservator.

(3) Petition for Appointment of a Guardian. A copy of a petition for appointment of a guardian must also be mailed to the subject of the petition, by first class mail, postage prepaid, within 3 days after the petition is filed.

(4) Person Outside of the District of Columbia. If any person listed in Rule 301(d)(1)(B)-(E) lives outside of the District of Columbia, the petitioner may mail the petition and the notice of hearing by certified or first-class mail, addressed to the person's place of residence or office. The petitioner must mail the petition and notice at least 17 days before the hearing date.

(5) Subject of Petition Who Has Disappeared or Been Detained. If the subject of a petition has disappeared, has been detained by a foreign power, or is being held hostage by someone other than a foreign power, the notice of hearing on the petition must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the District of Columbia at least once a week for 3 consecutive weeks, with the first publication being at least 40 days before the hearing date.

(7) Proof of Service. Proof of service must be given by affidavit or declaration filed not later than the date of the hearing.

(8) Waiver. The subject of the proceeding may not waive notice. Any other person may waive notice by filing a written waiver.

COMMENT

The rules addressing intervention proceedings use terms such as “intervention proceedings,” “ward,” “protected individual,” “examiner,” and “visitor” as they are defined in D.C. Code § 21-2011 (2021 Supp.).

Rule 302. Proceeding to Appoint a Temporary Guardian

(a) IN GENERAL. A proceeding to appoint a temporary guardian, including an emergency guardian, a health-care guardian, or a provisional guardian, is commenced by filing a petition on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(b) EMERGENCY GUARDIAN.

(1) In General. A petition to appoint an emergency guardian must be accompanied by the following documents on forms maintained by the Register of Wills or forms that are substantially similar in format and content:

(A) a proposed order to appoint counsel and any guardian ad litem, examiner, or visitor, for the individual alleged to be incapacitated; and

(B) a proposed order to appoint the emergency guardian.

(2) Counsel. Immediately upon receipt of the petition, the court must appoint counsel to represent the individual alleged to be incapacitated. If the petition discloses that the subject is represented by counsel, the court must appoint that person unless there is good cause to appoint a different attorney.

(3) Service and Notice.

(A) Service. The petitioner must serve the petition, order appointing counsel, any order appointing a guardian ad litem, examiner, or visitor, and a notice of the right to request a hearing, in the manner provided by and on the persons listed in Rule 301(d).

(B) Immediate Notice. The petitioner must provide notice of the petition and of the right to request a hearing to counsel for the individual alleged to be incapacitated and any interested persons, in a manner reasonably calculated to provide immediate notification, including by telephone or electronic communication.

(C) Proof of Service. An affidavit or declaration of service must be filed.

(4) Appointing an Emergency Guardian. The court may schedule a hearing on the petition or may appoint an emergency guardian without a hearing. If the court appoints an emergency guardian without a hearing, the court must state the reasons in the appointment order.

(5) Post-Appointment Hearing. The ward, counsel for the ward, or any other party or interested person may request a hearing at any time before the emergency guardian's appointment expires. No specific form is required for a request for a hearing. The hearing must be held no later than 48 hours after the request is filed. The court must provide immediate notice of the hearing to the petitioner and to all parties and interested persons, by telephone or electronic communication.

(6) Service of Order Appointing Emergency Guardian. The court must provide a certified copy of the order of appointment to the emergency guardian, and must mail a copy of the order of appointment to all other parties and interested persons.

(7) Expiration of Appointment. An emergency guardian's appointment is limited to 21 days and may not be extended. Upon petition, the emergency guardian may be appointed as a health-care guardian.

(c) HEALTH-CARE GUARDIAN.

(1) In General. A petition to appoint a health-care guardian must be accompanied by the following documents:

(A) in accordance with D.C. Code § 21-2204 (2012 Repl.), two certifications that the individual alleged to be incapacitated lacks the mental capacity to make a health-care decision;

(B) a proposed order to appoint counsel and any guardian ad litem, examiner, or visitor, for the individual alleged to be incapacitated, on a form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content; and

(C) a proposed order to appoint the health-care guardian, on a form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(3) Service.

(B) Proof of Service. An affidavit or declaration of service must be filed no later than the time of the hearing.

(6) Extending Appointment of Health-Care Guardian.

(A) In General. On petition or on its own initiative, the court may extend the health-care guardian's appointment for one additional period of up to 90 days because of continued incapacity and need for the provision of substituted consent or because a petition for the appointment of a permanent guardian is pending.

(B) Petition. A petition to extend the appointment of a health-care guardian must be filed no later than 7 days prior to the expiration of the appointment. The petition must be filed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(C) Additional Documents. The petition must be accompanied by the following documents on forms maintained by the Register of Wills or forms that are substantially similar in format and content:

(i) a notice of hearing;

(iii) a proposed order to extend the appointment of the health-care guardian.

(D) Service. The petitioner must serve a copy of the petition, order of appointment of counsel, and notice of a hearing in the manner provided by and on the individuals listed in Rule 301(d). An affidavit or declaration of service must be filed no later than the date set for the hearing.

(E) Hearing. A hearing must be scheduled no later than the date on which the original appointment expires.

(d) PROVISIONAL GUARDIAN.

(1) In General. On petition or on its own initiative, the court may suspend the authority of an appointed guardian and appoint a provisional guardian if the appointed guardian is not effectively performing the guardian's duties and the welfare of the ward requires immediate action.

(2) Notice of Appointment of Provisional Guardian. The Register of Wills must give notice of the order appointing a provisional guardian to the ward, the suspended guardian, and all other parties and interested persons within 14 days after the order is entered.

(3) Authority and Duration. The provisional guardian has the authority set forth in the previous order of appointment. The provisional guardian's appointment is limited to 6 months.

COMMENT

This rule implements D.C. Code § 21-2046 (2012 Repl.).

The appointment of a provisional guardian is reserved for extraordinary situations requiring immediate action by the court, and is not the means to seek removal, in non-emergency situations, of a guardian who is allegedly negligent in the performance of his or her duties. In non-emergency situations, a petition under Rule 301 is appropriate. After the appointment of a provisional guardian, the procedures provided for a petition subsequent to the appointment of a guardian or conservator ("petition post-appointment"), set out in Rule 314 apply, because D.C. Code § 21-2049 (2021 Supp.) requires that, when appointing a successor guardian, the court must follow the same procedures to safeguard the rights of the ward that apply to the appointment of a guardian.

Rule 303. Petition to Appoint a Conservator for a Missing, Disappeared, or Detained Person

(a) IN GENERAL. A proceeding to appoint a conservator for a missing, disappeared, or detained person is commenced by filing a petition on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(b) ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS. The petition must be accompanied by the following documents on forms maintained by the Register of Wills or forms that are substantially similar in format and content:

(1) a notice of hearing; and

(2) a proposed order setting the hearing and directing publication.

(c) EXAMINER AND VISITOR. No examiner or visitor will be appointed unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(d) SERVICE. The petitioner must serve the petition, the order setting the hearing and directing publication, and the notice of hearing, in the manner provided by and on the persons listed in Rule 301(d).

Rule 304. Discovery

Discovery under Civil Rules 26 through 37 may only be conducted upon order of the court. If the court authorizes discovery, the court must specify the extent of discovery permitted.

Rule 305. Parties and Petition for Permission to Participate

(a) PARTIES. Parties to the proceeding include:

- (1) the subject of the proceeding;
- (2) any guardian or conservator;
- (3) the person filing a petition to initiate an intervention proceeding; and
- (4) a creditor filing a petition to determine a claim.

(b) PETITION FOR PERMISSION TO PARTICIPATE.

(1) In General. To participate in a proceeding, a person other than one listed in Rule 305(a) must file a petition for permission to participate on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content. The petition must be accompanied by a proposed order and must be filed no later than 7 days before the hearing or within the time permitted by the court for good cause.

(2) Service. The petition must be served on all parties in the manner required by Rule 105.

(3) Party Designation. At the initial hearing or any time after the initial hearing, the court may confer the status of party on any participant.

(c) TERMINATION OF PARTY OR PARTICIPANT STATUS.

(1) Petitioner. Unless the court provides otherwise, a petitioner (other than the subject of the proceeding) who initiates an intervention proceeding ceases to be a party when:

- (A) a conservator or guardian is appointed;
- (B) a protective order is entered; or
- (C) the petition is dismissed.

(2) Creditor. A creditor ceases to be a party upon payment or other final disposition of the claim.

(3) Other Party or Participant. Unless the court provides otherwise, any other party or participant ceases to be a party or participant when the intervention proceeding concludes.

(d) CONTINUATION OF PARTY STATUS. The court, in the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order must specify who will continue as parties or participants.

Rule 306. Request for Notice of Filings

(a) IN GENERAL. Any person who is interested in an intervention proceeding may request notice before any order is issued in the proceeding by filing a request for notice on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(b) SERVICE. The requestor must serve the request for notice by first class mail on all persons entitled to receive notice. The clerk must mail a copy of the request to any appointed guardian and conservator.

(c) DURATION.

(1) In General. A request for notice is effective from the date of filing and for 3 years or the duration of the proceeding, whichever is shorter.

(2) Petition to Strike the Request. Upon petition filed by a party within 14 days after service of the request or on its own initiative, the court may order the request stricken for lack of sufficient interest.

(3) Revoking or Renewing Request. The requestor may revoke the request by filing a notice. To renew a request for notice, the requestor must file a new request for notice in accordance with this rule.

(d) NOTICE OF ORDERS AND OTHER PAPERS FILED. After a request for notice is filed, the clerk must send the requestor copies of all orders subsequently entered by the court. Once served with a copy of the request for notice, each party to an intervention proceeding must send the requestor copies of all subsequent filings.

Rule 307. Counsel for the Subject or Ward

(a) IN GENERAL. Counsel for the subject or ward must zealously represent and advocate for:

(1) the subject's or ward's expressed wishes; or

(2) if the subject or ward is unconscious or otherwise wholly incapable of expressing his or her wishes, the result that is the least restrictive option in type, duration, and scope, consistent with the interests of the subject or ward as determined by the guardian ad litem.

(b) NOTICE OF APPEARANCE.

(1) In General. Counsel must promptly file a notice of appearance.

(2) Retained Counsel. If counsel is retained by the subject or ward, the notice of appearance must state:

(A) whether counsel was retained after the court appointed counsel; and

(B) whether retained counsel has previously served as counsel for the subject or ward.

(3) Termination of Appointed Counsel. Unless a petition to strike retained counsel is filed, the appearance of counsel appointed for the subject or ward terminates when the notice of appearance of retained counsel is filed.

(c) PETITION TO STRIKE APPEARANCE

(1) In General. If appointed counsel, an appointed guardian ad litem, an appointed visitor, an appointed examiner, or any person entitled to notice objects to the appearance of retained counsel, that person may file a petition to strike the appearance of retained counsel.

(2) Hearing. If a petition to strike the appearance of counsel is filed, the court must, as soon as practicable, hold a hearing, attended only by:

(A) the subject or ward;

(B) appointed counsel;

(C) retained counsel;

(D) the person filing the petition and any counsel representing that person; and

(E) any guardian ad litem, visitor, or examiner appointed in the case.

(3) Striking the Appearance. After the hearing, the court may strike the appearance of counsel retained by the subject or ward if the court finds that:

(A) retained counsel has a conflict of interest that will prevent counsel from zealously representing the subject or ward;

(B) the entry of appearance of retained counsel would unduly delay trial of the case;
or

(C) there is any other basis for striking the appearance.

(d) PRACTICE STANDARDS. Counsel must represent the subject or ward in accordance with the Probate Attorney Practice Standards.

(e) TERMINATION OF APPEARANCE. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the appearance of counsel for the subject or ward terminates upon the disposition of the petition for which counsel's appearance was entered.

COMMENT

D.C. Code § 21-2033 (2021 Supp.) and this rule require counsel to act as a zealous advocate for the subject and not as a guardian, independent investigator, or objective finder of fact. Counsel should file a responsive pleading consistent with the requirements of the practice standards, such memoranda as is needed to address unique issues or special circumstances, or any pleading requested by the court, but should not file a "report" or a pleading consisting of a general discussion of the case. In representing the subject, counsel should remain free from the influence of persons whose interests conflict with the subject's physical, mental or financial well-being. Counsel for the subject may make decisions with respect to the conduct of the intervention proceeding or other litigation.

COMMENT

In re Greene, 829 A.2d 506, 508 (D.C. 2003) provides that “a hearing in certain circumstances may be held through written submission.” Id. (emphasis in original).

Rule 315. Bond

(a) CONDITION OF BOND. Any bond required by the court must be filed on a form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is similar in format and content. The condition of the bond is that the conservator must faithfully discharge all duties of the trust according to law and obey any court orders.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the first report is due 6 months from the date of appointment of the guardian and each succeeding report is due at 6-month intervals. On petition of a person interested in the ward's welfare or on its own initiative, the court may order the guardian to submit a report at such other times as the court may direct.

(c) RESPONSE TO CONSERVATORSHIP PLAN. Any person interested in the welfare of the protected individual may file a petition for modification of the conservatorship plan or request other appropriate relief, which will be treated as a petition for a proceeding after the appointment of a conservator. If no petition to modify the conservatorship plan is filed, the plan may be placed in the file without court review or other action.

COMMENT

Rule 112 includes the general requirements for an inventory.

If a subject or ward is receiving veterans benefits, see Civil Rule 5-II, which governs pleadings and orders affecting estates of veterans. Pleadings and orders must be served on the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Rule 318. Claims of Creditors

(A) within 30 days after completing the tasks for which the special conservator was appointed or the actions provided for in the order for a protective arrangement;

(B) not later than 6 months after the order of appointment or for a protective arrangement was issued; and

(C) when otherwise ordered by the court.

(3) Termination.

(A) Requesting in Report. A special conservator's report may include a request for termination of the appointment. The special conservator is not required to file a separate petition under Rule 320.

(B) Court Order. The special conservator's appointment terminates on the court's order.

(4) Service. The report and any account must be served as provided in Rule 319(c).

(e) OBJECTION TO ACCOUNT. Any objection to the account must be filed and served on all persons entitled to a copy of the notice of hearing on the account within 14 days after receipt of notice of the hearing.

(f) RETENTION OF DOCUMENTATION. A conservator must retain all documentation of financial transactions until approval of the final account and disposition of any timely appeal from the approval of the final account.

COMMENT

Section (f), which addresses retention of documentation, does not impact a conservator's retention responsibilities imposed by other statutes, regulations, or rules, such as the D.C. Rules of Professional Conduct.

Rule 320. Termination of Conservatorship

(a) IN GENERAL. A conservatorship is terminated by court order.

(b) TERMINATION UPON DEATH.

(1) Petition for Termination and Final Account. Upon the death of the protected individual, the conservator must promptly file a notice of death. The conservator must file a petition for termination, accompanied by a final account and report, within 60 days after the date of death.

(2) Expenditures After Death.

(A) In General. After the death of the protected individual, the conservator is not permitted to make any expenditures, except for expenses of administration and any expenditures authorized by the court.

(B) Petition for Authorization to Make Expenditures. The conservator may file a petition for authorization to make expenditures, other than for administration expenses. Except for good cause, the petition must be filed no later than 30 days after the date of death. The court may act on the petition without a hearing.

(3) Hearing. The court must schedule a hearing on the final account and the petition for termination.

(4) Order of Termination. Upon approval of the final account, the court must enter an order of termination. The order of termination must provide for expenses of administration and direct the conservator to file a verified statement evidencing transfer of the assets within 60 days after the order of termination, unless the court finds good cause for extending or shortening the time for filing the verified statement. The verified statement must be filed together with a receipt evidencing final distribution and vouchers or cancelled checks evidencing any expenditures. If, despite diligent efforts, a receipt evidencing final distribution cannot be filed, the court may accept other evidence of distribution.

(5) Deposit into Estates Deposit Account. In the event that the conservator is unable to make distribution of assets within the time required by the order of termination, the conservator must, prior to the date on which the verified statement is due, file a petition for an order requiring that the estate assets be deposited in the Register of Wills estates deposit account.

(6) Appointment of Special Administrator. If the estate of the protected individual consists of assets that are in need of protection, and no other fiduciary has been appointed, the conservator may, in the petition for termination, advise the court of the need for protection and file with the petition a proposed order for the appointment of a special administrator. Upon consideration of the petition and proposed order, the court may appoint a special administrator under D.C. Code § 20-531 (2012 Repl.).

(c) TERMINATION OTHER THAN UPON DEATH.

(1) Petition to Terminate Conservatorship. The conservator or any other interested person may file a petition to terminate the conservatorship under Rule 314. The protected individual may file a petition to terminate the conservatorship that will be subject to the same procedures as a petition to commence an intervention proceeding under Rule 301.

(2) Preliminary Order of Termination. If, after notice and hearing, the court determines that the petition should be granted, the court must issue a preliminary order of termination directing the conservator to file the final account and report within 60 days, unless the court finds good cause for extending or shortening the time for filing.

(3) Final Order of Termination. Upon approval of the final account, the court must enter a final order of termination. The final order of termination must provide for expenses of administration and direct the conservator to file a verified statement evidencing transfer of the assets to the former ward or to such other person as the court determines is entitled to distribution. The verified statement must be filed within 30 days after the order of termination, unless the court finds good cause for extending or shortening the time for filing the verified statement. The verified statement must be filed together with a receipt evidencing final distribution and vouchers or cancelled checks evidencing any expenditures. If, despite diligent efforts, a receipt evidencing final distribution cannot be filed, the court may accept other evidence of distribution.

COMMENT

This rule implements D.C. Code § 21-2075 (2012 Repl.), which provides for termination of conservatorship proceedings. Although that section does not explicitly provide for an order of termination upon death of the protected individual, it appears to include an order of termination upon that event. See Treadway v. Montague-Elliston, 673 P.2d 331, 333 (Ariz. Ct. App. 1983) (construing a similar provision of the Uniform Probate Code).

Expenses of administration include court costs; bond premiums; approved fees of a conservator, guardian, attorney for the conservator, guardian or protected individual, examiner, visitor, or guardian ad litem; and bank service fees. See In re Estate of Dickson, 736 A.2d 1007 (D.C. 1999).

The termination of a special conservatorship or other protective arrangement is provided in the rule governing accounts and reports of conservators.

Rule 321. Liability of Conservator to Third Parties

(a) IN GENERAL. Matters pertaining to the personal liability of a conservator are determined in a separate proceeding for accounting, surcharge, or indemnification or other appropriate proceeding or action.

(b) COMPLAINT. A third party may commence a proceeding regarding personal liability of the conservator by filing a complaint.

(c) APPLYING CIVIL RULES. The Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure apply to a proceeding regarding personal liability of the conservator.

COMMENT

D.C. Code § 21-2074 (2012 Repl.) governs the personal liability of a conservator.

Rule 322. Compensation from Assets of the Subject, Protected Individual, or Ward, or from the Guardianship Fund

(J) if payment is sought from the Guardianship Fund, information indicating:

(i) that the estate of the subject of the proceeding, the protected individual, or the ward is presumed to be depleted under the provisions of D.C. Code § 21-2060(a-1) (2021 Supp.), including the specific statutory basis for the presumption; or

(ii) that the subject of the proceeding, the protected individual, or the ward is unable to pay the requested compensation without substantial financial hardship to that person or his or her family, the specific reasons why payment would cause substantial financial hardship, and the following information or, if any of the required information is not provided, the efforts made to obtain that information:

- the nature and extent of that person's assets, including contingent assets and noting which assets are liquid;
- the nature and extent of that person's income;
- the character and extent of that person's debts;
- whether that person owns a residence, and if so, whether that person or his or her dependent resides in that residence or expect to return to the residence;
- whether that person has a burial fund or has a prepaid funeral or burial contract or plan and, if so, the value of the fund or amount of prepayment; and
- a description of that person's expenditures.

(3) Verification. A petition for compensation must be verified in the manner described in Rule 103(c).

(c) NOTICE OF PETITION AND CERTIFICATION. A petition for compensation must be filed together with a notice of the petition for compensation and a certification stating that the fiduciary or attorney is not late with filings in other cases in which the attorney or fiduciary is appointed. The notice and certification must be on the forms maintained by the Register of Wills or forms that are substantially similar in format and content.

(d) TIME FOR FILING.

(1) Guardian's Petition for Compensation. A guardian's petition for compensation must be filed no later than 30 days after the anniversary date of the guardian's appointment, except that a guardian's final petition for compensation must be filed no later than 60 days after termination of the guardianship.

(2) Conservator's Petition for Compensation. A conservator's petition for compensation must be filed either with the annual accounting or at any time prior to the approval of the annual accounting, except that a conservator's final petition for compensation must be filed no later than 30 days after the filing of the final account.

(3) Interim Petition for Compensation. An interim petition for compensation for establishing a guardianship, conservatorship, or entry of a protective order must be filed promptly upon conclusion of the hearing establishing the guardianship, conservatorship, or protective arrangement, but not later than 90 days after conclusion of the hearing.

(e) SERVICE.

(1) In General. The petition for compensation and the notice of petition for compensation must be served on:

- (A) the subject of the proceeding, the protected individual, or the ward;
- (B) the parties to the proceeding and persons granted permission to participate in the proceeding;

(D) any other person as directed by the court or the Register of Wills.

(2) Certificate of Service. A petition must include a certificate of service, stating that the petition and the notice of petition for compensation were served.

(f) OBJECTIONS. An individual who is required to be served with the petition and notice may file an objection to the petition. The objection must be filed within 21 days after the petition and notice have been served. The court may rule on objections with or without a hearing.

(g) CONSENTS.

(1) In General. An individual who is required to be served with the petition and notice of the petition for compensation may file a consent to the petition for compensation. A consent must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or on a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(2) Effect of Consent. If all individuals who are required to be served with the petition and notice file consents, the notice and the 21-day period for filing objections will be waived and the petition for compensation must be immediately reviewed by the court. A consent to the petition, once filed, constitutes a waiver of the right to object to that petition.

COMMENT

As pointed out in In re Estate of Grealis, 902 A.2d 821, 825-6 (D.C. 2006), this rule cannot and is not intended to expand the reach of D.C. Code § 21-2060 (2021 Supp.). In Grealis, the District of Columbia Court of Appeals interpreted D.C. Code § 21-2060 (2021 Supp.) as requiring court approval only when payment is made from the assets of the subject of the proceeding, the protected individual, or the ward, or from the Guardianship Fund. 902 A.2d at 824-6. No order is required for payment from the personal or private funds of someone other than the subject of the proceeding, the protected individual, or the ward. Id.

Rule 323. Foreign Guardians or Conservators

(a) DUTIES AND POWERS. A guardian or conservator, who is appointed by a court in the ward's or protected person's state of residence may exercise all powers of a guardian or conservator appointed in the District of Columbia and may maintain actions and proceedings in the District of Columbia subject to conditions imposed upon non-resident parties if:

(1) a guardian or conservator has not been appointed in the District of Columbia and no petition for protective proceeding is pending in the District of Columbia; and

(2) the guardian or conservator appointed by the other state files:

(A) copies of the letters of appointment authenticated in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1738;

(C) a power of attorney appointing an agent in the District of Columbia to accept service of process, on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(b) CERTIFICATE OF NO PENDING PROCEEDING. The Register of Wills must determine whether an intervention proceeding related to the ward or protected person is pending in this court. If no proceeding is pending, the Register of Wills must issue a certificate that no intervention proceeding is pending.

(c) CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE. Upon request, the Register of Wills must issue a certificate that the guardian or conservator has complied with the requirements of Rule 323(a).

(d) SUSPENSION OF POWERS. The powers of a guardian or conservator appointed in another state are suspended if this court appoints a guardian or conservator with authority over the same individual or property.

COMMENT

This rule implements the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act (D.C. Code §§ 21-2401.01 to -2405.03 (2012 Repl.)). With regard to conservators, the rule applies to any fiduciary that exercises powers similar to a conservator in this jurisdiction, regardless of whether the other state refers to the fiduciary as a “guardian of the estate” or uses another term.

CHAPTER 5. PROPERTY AND ESTATES OF MINOR CHILDREN

Rule 501. Appointment of Guardian for Minor Child

- (1) the proposed guardian's residence and citizenship;
- (2) whether the proposed guardian has a legal disability;

- (7) the nature, location, and estimated value of the real and personal property to which the minor is entitled, and the annual rental value of the real property.

(b) PRESENCE AND SELECTION. Unless the minor's presence is excused for sufficient cause, the minor must be present when the petition is filed, and, if over 14 years of age, is entitled to select the proposed guardian.

(c) CONSENT OF OR NOTICE TO PARENTS.

- (1) In General. If a parent is not filing the petition for appointment of a guardian, either:
 - (A) a written consent of that parent must be filed with the petition; or
 - (B) unless the whereabouts of that parent are unknown, that parent must be personally served with a summons and copy of the petition in accordance with Civil Rule 4(c)(2)-(3) and (e)(2)(A).
- (2) Whereabouts of Parent Unknown. If the whereabouts of a parent are unknown and the petitioner files an affidavit showing diligent efforts to ascertain the whereabouts of the parent, the court may authorize service by publication in the manner provided by applicable statute or may provide for a different method of notice.
- (3) Waiving Notice. The court may waive notice of the petition if the petitioner files an affidavit showing good cause.

(d) BOND. If the petitioner is the proposed guardian, the petitioner must file a bond with the petition.

(e) ORDER APPOINTING GUARDIAN. The order of appointment must state the minor's date of birth and, if the minor is over 14 years of age, must state that:

- (1) the minor was present and selected the guardian; or
- (2) the minor's presence was excused.

Rule 502. Bond

(a) REQUIREMENT AND AMOUNT. Except as provided in Rule 502(b), a guardian of the property and estate of a minor child must execute a bond with surety approved by the court, conditioned for the faithful performance of the guardian's duties, before taking control of any assets of the minor child. The penalty of the bond must be the amount equal to the amount of the personal property, the annual income from the personal property, and the yearly rents to be derived from the real estate. If it becomes necessary to sell real estate, the guardian must execute an additional bond in the amount required by the court before accepting the proceeds from the sale of real estate.

(b) EXCEPTIONS. No bond is required from a regulated financial institution, as defined in D.C. Code § 26-551.02(18) (2012 Repl.), or a national bank as provided in 12 U.S.C. § 92a(f).

Rule 503. Property of the Minor

A guardian appointed by this court is not permitted, without prior court approval, to remove or maintain outside the District of Columbia any personal assets held in a fiduciary capacity, except securities held in book entry form or in the custody of a broker, mutual fund, other corporate fiduciary, or of the U.S. Treasury.

Rule 504. Expenditures and Sales by a Guardian

(a) EXPENDITURES.

(1) In General. Prior court authorization is required for a guardian to make any expenditure from a minor's estate. A guardian may request prior court authorization for an expenditure by filing a petition on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(2) Records. When practicable, a guardian must obtain a voucher for any disbursement. A guardian must maintain accurate records of all receipts and disbursements.

(b) SALE OF PROPERTY. A guardian is not permitted to sell or otherwise dispose of estate property or encumber it without prior court order.

(c) EXPENDITURES AND SALES FOR INVESTMENT.

(1) Expenditure or Sale for Investment. Prior court authorization is required for a guardian to make any expenditure or sale for investment, except one made in accordance with a plan or program approved under Rule 504(c)(2). A guardian may request prior court authorization for an expenditure or sale for investment by filing a petition on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(2) Investment Plan or Program. A guardian may apply for court approval of an investment plan or program in accordance with Probate Division rules governing investments by a fiduciary. If the court approves the plan or program and the transaction complies with the approved plan or program, a guardian may carry out the investment plan or program without court approval of specific transactions. The petition must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(d) FAILURE TO COMPLY. If a guardian fails to comply with the provisions of this rule, the failure may be treated as an irregularity or default under Rule 114.

Rule 505. Court Sales of Real and Personal Property

(a) SALE OF REAL PROPERTY. Unless otherwise provided in these rules, a sale of real estate or any interest in land under an order of this court is governed by the 28 U.S.C. § 2001 in the same manner as if that statute was, by its terms, applicable to proceedings in this court.

(b) PUBLIC SALE PROCEDURES. Unless the court order otherwise, the officer making a public sale must proceed under the following rules:

(1) Publication. The officer must give prior notice of the sale by publication once a week for 4 weeks in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the District of Columbia. The notice must describe the property substantially as in the order and must state the time, place, manner and terms of sale and the deposit required.

(2) Terms of Sale. The terms must be 1/3 of the purchase money in cash and the balance in 2 equal installments, payable on or before 1 and 2 years from date of settlement of sale, represented by the promissory notes of the purchaser with interest at 6% per annum, payable semi-annually, secured by deed of trust on the property, or all cash at the option of the purchaser.

(3) Place; Presence of Officer. The sale must be held upon the premises, and the officer making the sale must be present and personally receive the deposit. If there is more than one officer, the presence of one will be sufficient.

(4) Report; Ratification. A verified report of the sale must be filed promptly with the court. After the report is filed and on motion and notice, the court may, in its discretion, ratify the sale with or without further notice. If the sale is ratified, settlement must be made and the real estate conveyed by proper deed.

(5) Form of Order of Sale. The order of sale must not contain detailed directions as to the manner of proceeding, but must do so only by reference to this rule.

(6) Compensation of Auctioneer. The compensation of the Auctioneer will be 1.5% of the first $10,000.00, plus 3/8 of 1% of any amount over $10,000.00 of the value of the equity in the property being sold. In the event that the property is unencumbered by indebtedness, the auctioneer's compensation will be computed and paid at the same rate upon the entire sales price. In no case will the auctioneer's compensation be less than $35.00 dollars unless the property is withdrawn after being offered for sale, in which event the auctioneer's compensation will be $25.00 dollars.

(c) PRIVATE SALE PROCEDURES.

(1) Order for Sale. The court must schedule a hearing before ordering a private sale. Notice of the hearing must be provided to all parties and affected persons by publication or as otherwise directed by the court. The court may order the private sale if the court finds that the best interests of the estate will be conserved by a private sale.

(2) Appraisers.

(A) In General. Before confirming a private sale, the court must appoint:

(i) 3 disinterested persons to appraise the property; or

(ii) different groups of 3 appraisers each to appraise properties of different classes or situated in different locations.

(B) Licensure. The appraisers must be licensed by the District of Columbia.

(3) Minimum Sale Price. A private sale may not be confirmed at less than 2/3 of the appraised value.

(4) Order Nisi Increased Offer; Confirmation. At least 14 days before confirmation of a private sale, the terms of the sale must be published in the newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the District of Columbia as the court may direct, and the sale may not be confirmed if a bona fide offer is subsequently made, under such conditions as the court may prescribe, which guarantees at least a 10% net increase over the price specified in the published offer.

(d) ACCOUNT; DISTRIBUTION OF PROCEEDS. Promptly after the settlement of a private or public sale made under this rule, a full and detailed account must be filed and presented to the court and the proceeds distributed as the court has directed or may direct.

(e) COMPENSATION TO OFFICER MAKING SALE. The compensation of the trustee or officer making a sale will be 5% on the first $3,000.00, plus 2.5% on the next $10,000.00, plus 1% on any amount in excess of $13,000.00 of the value of the equity in the property being sold. If the property is unencumbered by indebtedness, the compensation of the trustee or officer making the sale will be computed and paid at the same rate upon the entire sales price. For special cause, the court may increase or reduce the compensation.

(f) SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY. Unless otherwise provided in this rule, a sale of personal property under an order of this court is governed by 28 U.S.C. § 2004, in the same manner as if that statute was, by its terms, applicable to proceedings in this court. The officer making the sale must account and distribute as provided by Rule 505(d). The court may determine the compensation and expenses allowed the officer making the sale.

Rule 506. Accounts

(a) IN GENERAL. The guardian must file the account required by Rule 113 annually within 30 days after the anniversary date of the guardian's appointment.

(b) FINAL ACCOUNT.

(1) In General. The guardian must file a final account within 60 days after termination of the guardianship or resignation or removal of the guardian.

(2) Guardian's Death or Incapacity. Upon the guardian's death or incapacity, the guardian or the guardian's personal representative must file a final account within 60 days after the date of the successor's appointment.

(c) NOTICE OF ACCOUNT.

(1) In General. Within 7 days after filing the account, the guardian must send, by first class mail, notice of the filing to the minor, any adult having care and custody of the minor, and any other party. The notice must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(2) Proof of Notice. The guardian must file a certification that the notice has been provided.

(d) OBJECTIONS TO ACCOUNT. The minor and any person entitled to receive notice of the filing of the account have 30 days after receiving the notice to file any objections to the account. Any objection must be served on the guardian and all persons entitled to receive the notice.

(e) EXCLUSION FROM UNIFORM TRANSFERS TO MINORS ACT PROCEEDINGS. Unless otherwise ordered by the court for good cause, this rule does not apply to any proceeding for the appointment of a custodian or successor custodian under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act.

Rule 507. Contested Proceedings Commenced by Complaint

(a) TYPE OF PROCEEDING. Any party in interest may file a verified complaint

(1) to contest a petition for the appointment of a guardian of a minor's estate or a custodian of a minor;

(2) to remove a guardian of a minor's estate;

(3) to ratify and confirm a contract for the sale of a minor's interest in real estate;

(4) for instructions; or

(5) for any other action regarding the guardian of a minor's estate or a custodian of a minor.

(b) APPLYING CIVIL RULES.

(1) In General. Except as modified in Rule 507(b)(2)-(4) or as otherwise ordered by the court, the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure apply to a contested proceeding commenced by a complaint under Rule 507(a).

(2) Summons. Together with the complaint, the plaintiff must complete and file a summons for each defendant. In an action brought pursuant to this rule to contest a petition for the appointment of, or to remove, a guardian of a minor's estate or a custodian of a minor, or for instructions, the summons must be directed to all interested persons and all indispensable parties under Civil Rule 19. In any other action against the estate, the summons only must be directed to the guardian or custodian and may be directed to others.

(3) Notice. In such actions against an estate in which the interested persons are not named parties, the guardian or custodian must notify the interested persons of the pendency of the actions and of the right to intervene. The notice must be provided by first class mail within 21 days after service of the action; and the guardian or custodian must file a certificate reflecting service of the notice at the time of filing a response.

(4) Initial Scheduling and Settlement Conference. The court must schedule an initial scheduling and settlement conference to be held within 120 days after the complaint is filed.

Rule 508. Compensation

(a) COMPENSATION FOR ORDINARY SERVICES. Compensation to a guardian for ordinary services is by commission. A commission must not exceed 5% of amounts disbursed from the estate. Ordinary services are those normally performed by a fiduciary in administering such an estate and include the following:

- (1) qualification as the guardian;
- (2) collection of the minor's assets and income;
- (3) payment of the minor's debts and costs of maintenance, as authorized or ratified by the court;
- (4) general supervision of the minor's investments and policy relating to investments, including safekeeping; and
- (5) preparation and filing of all inventories, accounts, and reports to the court.

(b) TIME AND METHOD FOR CLAIMING COMPENSATION FOR ORDINARY SERVICES. A guardian must submit a claim for commission for ordinary services in the annual account. The amount and percentage of commission claimed must be reflected in the account. Except as otherwise provided by these rules or court order, no separate statement of services is required.

(c) COMPENSATION FOR EXTRAORDINARY SERVICES. At the time of filing an annual account or at any other time on good cause, a guardian may petition the court for compensation for extraordinary services rendered. Extraordinary services are in addition to those services set out in Rule 508(a). The petition must include the following:

- (1) a statement of jurisdiction and controlling court rule;
- (2) a statement of services rendered sufficient to establish that the requested payment is reasonable and, if appropriate, that the services are in fact extraordinary;
- (3) the amount of time spent and the normal hourly rate of the guardian, if any;
- (4) evidence of the necessity or purpose of the services;
- (5) the results achieved, including the benefit to the estate or minor, if any;

(6) statement of all prior allowances from the estate to the guardian or other fiduciary or counsel, to the extent known;

(7) the ability of the estate to meet future needs of the minor and to compensate fairly the guardian; and

(8) a statement that notice of the petition has been given and to whom given.

(d) TURNOVER COMMISSION. In a guardian's final account, the guardian may claim a commission for turning over the assets to a successor fiduciary or to the former minor. A turnover commission may not exceed 5% of the net assets to be turned over. A turnover commission is in addition to the commission for ordinary services based on disbursements actually made during the accounting period. The amount and percentage claimed must be reflected in the final account. Except as otherwise provided by these rules or court order, no separate statement of services is required.

(1) The Guardian's Death, Resignation, or Incapacity. If the guardian dies, resigns, or becomes incapacitated, the guardian or guardian's representative must file a statement of services in support of the turnover commission claimed. The statement must indicate:

(A) what the guardian has done;

(B) if applicable, what remains to be done by the successor guardian; and

(C) any other information justifying the commission claimed.

(2) The Minor's Death or Attainment of Majority. If the minor attains the age of majority within 3 years after the guardian's appointment and the net assets to be turned over exceed $100,000.00, the guardian must either:

(A) file a statement of services in support of the turnover commission claimed; or

(B) apply for a waiver of the requirement for a statement of services by filing a written request with the court.

(e) COMPENSATION TO ATTORNEYS.

(1) In General. At the time of the filing of an annual account or at any other time on good cause, an attorney may petition for allowance of reasonable attorney's fees for preparing pleadings filed with the court and for other necessary legal services rendered to the guardian in the administration of the estate, including:

(A) instructing and advising the guardian in regard to applicable laws so that the guardian may properly administer the estate for which he or she is responsible; and

(B) reviewing and advising with respect to inventories, accounts, and other reports to the court to assure that they comply with the requirements of the law.

(2) Qualification of the Guardian. At any time, an attorney may petition for fees for legal services in connection with the qualification of the guardian. The petition for fees must be accompanied by a statement of services that addresses those matters required to be addressed in a petition for compensation for extraordinary services.

(3) Performance of Guardian's Ordinary Services; Assignment of Commission. If an attorney performs any ordinary services described in Rule 508(a) and the guardian has filed a written assignment of all or part of the guardian's commission, the court may authorize the attorney to be compensated from the estate in the guardianship proceeding. An assignment of commission refers to those instances in which an attorney:

(A) pursuant to an agreement with the guardian, has performed some or all of the services normally expected to be performed by the guardian in administering the estate; and

(B) has obtained an assignment from or written consent of the guardian to receive all or part of the guardian's commission as compensation for the attorney's services.

(f) NOTICE OF AND CONSENTS TO PETITIONS FOR COMPENSATION FOR EXTRAORDINARY SERVICES OR FOR ATTORNEY FEES.

(1) Notice of Petition. A petition for compensation for extraordinary services or for attorney's fees (other than for ordinary commissions) must be accompanied by a notice on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content. A copy of the petition and notice must be served on the following individuals by first class mail within 7 days after filing:

(A) the guardian (if appropriate); and

(B) to all other parties and affected persons as determined by the court.

(2) Certificate of Service. The petition must include a certification that a copy of the petition and notice were served as required by Rule 508(f)(1).

(3) Consent. An individual who is required to be served with the petition and notice may file a consent to the petition. A consent must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content. Once filed, a consent constitutes a waiver of the right to object to the petition.

(g) REFERENCE TO REGISTER OF WILLS OF PETITION FOR COMPENSATION FOR EXTRAORDINARY SERVICES OR FOR ATTORNEY FEES. All petitions for compensation for extraordinary services or for attorney's fees must be referred to the Register of Wills for appropriate recommendations.

(h) ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTATION. The court may require additional documentation in determining an appropriate commission in any particular case.

(i) OBJECTIONS TO PETITION FOR COMPENSATION. Parties and affected persons may file an objection to a petition for compensation for extraordinary services or for attorney's fees. The objection must be filed within 21 days after mailing of the petition and notice and must include specific statements of the grounds for contesting the petition. The objection must be mailed to the guardian and the guardian's attorney. If an objection is not filed within the prescribed time, the court may treat the petition as conceded.

COMMENT

Generally, the preparation and filing of routine tax returns and accountings are considered to be ordinary services. If the services involved were in whole or in part extraordinary, compensation for such services may be claimed by petition pursuant to subsection (c) of this rule. If the guardian retains the services of a tax preparer, payment of the tax preparer's fee may be made subject to the requirement that expenditures be made only upon prior authorization of the court.

The court is cautious in awarding turnover commissions claimed under subsection (d)(1) of this rule, by reason of the death, resignation or incapacity of a guardian. The court will take into account the fact that the ward's funds will be disbursed again and will reserve a sufficient portion of the commission as is likely, under the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to compensate the successor guardian fairly.

With respect to compensation for extraordinary services under this rule, the amount of commission for ordinary services is taken into account, but is not the sole determining factor.

Payments for attorney fees are independent of the guardian's commission for ordinary and extraordinary services and are designed to compensate the attorney for legal services consistent with the value of the services rendered and ability of the estate to pay. The fact that the guardian is an attorney will not preclude the guardian from petitioning for attorney fees for legal services rendered.

Rule 509. Custodian of Minors Under Uniform Transfers to Minors Act

(a) PETITION FOR SUCCESSOR CUSTODIAN. A petition for the appointment of a successor custodian of custodial property under the Uniform Transfer to Minors Act (D.C. Code §§ 21-301 to -324 (2012 Repl.)) must be verified by the petitioner. The petition must include:

- (1) the proposed successor custodian's residence and citizenship;
- (2) whether the proposed successor custodian has a legal disability;

- (3) the relationship of the proposed successor custodian to the minor;
- (4) by what right the petitioner makes application, and, if the application is not for petitioner's appointment, by what right the proposed successor custodian may be appointed;
- (5) the minor's name, residence, and date of birth;
- (6) the names and residence(s) of the minor's parents and the date of death of any deceased parent;
- (7) the nature, location and estimated value of the custodial property;
- (8) whether to require the successor custodian to give appropriate bond; and
- (9) whether an accounting of the predecessor custodian should be required.

(b) OTHER TRANSFERS BY A FIDUCIARY. A petition by a trustee for an irrevocable transfer in excess of $10,000 in value to a minor must be verified by the petitioner. The petition must set forth:

- (1) the name, residence, and date of birth of the minor for whom authority to distribute is sought, as well as the basis for the minor's entitlement to share in the trust;
- (2) the nature, location, and estimated value of the trust assets to be distributed to the minor;
- (3) facts to show that the transfer is in the best interests of the minor;
- (4) facts to show that the transfer is not prohibited by or inconsistent with the trust agreement, or other governing instrument; and
- (5) facts to show that the trustee will effect the transfer in accordance with applicable law (and, in particular, where the custodial property is money, by payment or delivery to the broker or the financial institution for credit in the custodial account).

Rule 510. Petition to Remove Custodian of Minor Under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act.

(a) PETITION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. To remove a custodian under the District of Columbia Uniform Transfers to Minors Act for cause and designate a successor custodian other than the transferor or to require the custodian to give appropriate bond, the transferor, the transferor's legal representative, an adult member of the minor's family, the minor's guardian or conservator, or the minor (if the minor is 14 years of age or older) may file a petition for an order to show cause directing the custodian to appear and show cause why the custodian should not be removed and a successor appointed or why the custodian should not be required to give appropriate bond.

(b) CONTENT OF THE PETITION. The petition must include the following:

(1) the name, address, telephone number, and any other pertinent identifying information about the custodian subject to the order to show cause;

(2) a statement of the jurisdiction of the Superior Court over the subject matter and the custodian;

(3) the facts and law that would establish cause for removal of the custodian or require the custodian to give appropriate bond;

(4) a concise demand for relief; and

(5) any other information that the petitioner determines to be relevant to the court's decision to issue the order to show cause or reasons, if any, why any of the foregoing information is not supplied.

(c) ISSUANCE OF ORDER. The court may grant the petition and issue an order to show cause without waiting for any response to the petition.

CHAPTER 6. TRUSTS

Rule 601. Notice of Existence of Trust That Was Revocable at the Settlor's Death

(a) APPLICABILITY. This rule only applies to a trust that was revocable at the settlor's death.

(b) COMMENCING AN ACTION. A trustee may commence a proceeding to provide public notice of a trust that was revocable at the settlor's death by filing:

(1) a notice of existence of revocable trust, on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content, completed to the extent possible (excluding the date of first publication and the deadline for filing objections and claims);

(2) a certification of trust, on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content; and

(3) a list of those persons entitled to receive the notice of existence of revocable trust.

(c) PUBLICATION OF THE NOTICE. The Register of Wills must complete the notice of existence of revocable trust form and forward copies to a newspaper of general circulation in the District of Columbia and a legal newspaper, for publication once a week for three successive weeks.

(d) MAILING OF THE NOTICE. To obtain the protections of D.C. Code §§ 20-903 and 19-1306.04 (2012 Repl.), within 15 days after the date of first publication of the notice of existence of revocable trust, the trustee must serve, by registered or certified mail, a copy of the notice on:

(1) each qualified beneficiary of the trust;

(2) heir of the decedent;

(3) other interested persons as defined in D.C. Code § 20-101(d) (2012 Repl.) if the trust were a will; and

(4) all creditors whose identities are known or ascertainable by reasonably diligent effort.

(e) PROOF OF PUBLICATION AND CERTIFICATE OF NOTICE. Within 90 days after the date of first publication of the notice of existence of revocable trust, the trustee may file:

(1) an affidavit or declaration of an officer or agent of each publisher stating the dates of publication accompanied by a copy of the notice as published;

(2) a verification and certificate of notice of existence of revocable trust, on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content, specifying the date of mailing of the notice and the names and addresses of the persons to whom the notice was mailed; and

(3) a list of the names or description of each qualified beneficiary of the trust; heir of the decedent; other interested persons as defined in D.C. Code § 20-101(d) (2012 Repl.); and creditor to whom the notice was not mailed.

COMMENT

This rule implements D.C. Code §§ 19-1305.05 and -1306.04 (2012 Repl.). In order for the trustee to obtain the benefit of those provisions, the trustee must be able to prove publication.

Rule 602. Claim Against a Trust That Was Revocable at the Settlor's Death

(a) APPLICABILITY. This rule governs claims against a trust that was revocable at the settlor's death when the trustee has filed the notice of existence of revocable trust in accordance with Rule 601.

(b) REQUIREMENTS. A claim must indicate that:

(1) the settlor's residuary probate estate is inadequate to satisfy the claim and the claim is for:

(A) costs of administration of the settlor's estate;

(B) an expense of the settlor's funeral and disposal of remains;

(C) a statutory allowance to a surviving spouse or child under D.C. Code §§ 19-101.02 to -.04 (2012 Repl.); or

(D) a claim of the settlor's creditors;

(2) all persons whose interest in the trust would be affected by the payment have filed consents with the court; or

(3) the payment is authorized under the terms of the trust regardless of the sufficiency of the settlor's residuary probate estate.

(c) FORM; FILING AND SERVICE.

(1) Form. A claim against a revocable trust must be made on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in format and content.

(2) Filing and Service.

(A) In General. Within 6 months after the date of first publication of the notice of existence of revocable trust, the claim must be filed and served on the trustee by personal service or by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(B) Estate Administration Proceeding. If a proceeding to administer the decedent's estate, other than a small estate, is commenced in the District of Columbia after a notice is filed under Rule 601, the claim must be filed in both the trust proceeding and the decedent's estate proceeding.

(d) TRUSTEE'S RESPONSE.

(1) In General. On receipt of a claim, the trustee must

(A) pay the claim or

(B) mail to the claimant a notice of action on the claim on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar to that form.

(2) Disallowed Claim. If the trustee disallows the claim, the trustee must specifically advise the claimant whether the claim was disallowed because the trustee disputes the validity of the claim, the adequacy of the settlor's residuary probate estate to pay the claim, or both.

(e) PETITION FOR PAYMENT FROM TRUST.

(1) Petition. If, within 8 months after the date of the first publication of the notice of existence of revocable trust, the trustee takes no action on the claim or, after having allowed the claim, fails to pay it, the claimant or the personal representative of the settlor's probate estate may file a petition requesting an order directing the trustee to pay the claim from the trust.

(2) Court Action. The court may order the trustee to pay to the claimant or the personal representative the amount of trust property necessary to pay the claim if the claim meets the requirements of Rule 602(b).

(3) Complaint. If the trustee disallowed the claim because the trustee disputed the validity of the claim, the adequacy of the settlor's residuary probate estate to pay the claim, or both, the claimant must file a complaint for payment of the claim from the trust within 60 days after the trustee mailed the notice disallowing the claim.

COMMENT

This rule implements D.C. Code § 19-1305.05 (2012 Repl.). As provided in D.C. Code § 19-1305.05(d) (2012 Repl.), the procedures set out in this rule are substantially consistent with the procedures governing claims in decedents' estates set out D.C. Code §§ 20-901 to -914 (2012 Repl.).

If a notice of existence of revocable trust is not filed under Rule 601, a claimant seeking payment from the trust of any expense or claim listed in Rule 602(b) must file a complaint under Rule 603.

Rule 603. Trust Proceedings Commenced by Complaint

(a) TYPE OF PROCEEDING.

(1) When Required. The following actions are commenced by filing a complaint:

(A) an action for payment of a claim from a revocable trust when a notice of existence of a trust that was revocable at the settlor's death is not filed under Rule 601;

(B) an action for payment of a claim that was disallowed by the trustee against a trust that was revocable at the settlor's death; and

(C) an action to challenge the validity of a trust.

(2) By Court Order. Unless a statute provides otherwise, on request of an interested person or on its own initiative, the court may order that a petition be treated as a complaint or that a complaint be filed.

(b) APPLYING CIVIL RULES.

(1) In General. Except as modified in Rule 603(b)(2) or as otherwise ordered by the court, the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure apply to a contested proceeding commenced by a complaint under Rule 603(a)(1) or (2).

(2) Summons.

(A) In General. Together with the complaint, the plaintiff must complete and file a summons for each defendant on the form maintained by the Register of Wills. On filing of the complaint and summons, the clerk must issue the summons and an initial order to be served with the complaint in accordance with the civil rules.

(B) Consenting Defendants. The plaintiff is not required to serve a summons on any defendant whose consent answer to the relief requested in the complaint is filed with the complaint.

(c) REQUIRED PARTIES.

(1) In General. The defendants must include the following persons if they are not plaintiffs:

(A) the settlor, if living;

(B) each qualified beneficiary, or any representative of that qualified beneficiary, whose interest in the trust is or may be affected in the action;

(C) the trustee; and

(D) if contesting the validity of the trust, interested persons as set forth in D.C. Code § 19-1306.04(a)(3) (2012 Repl.).

(2) Beneficiary Not Named as a Party.

(A) Content of Complaint. When a beneficiary of the trust is not named as a party in the complaint, the complaint must state:

(i) the name and address of each beneficiary not named as a party;

(ii) the nature of that beneficiary's interest;

(iii) why that beneficiary does not need to be a party to the action; and

(iv) whether the trustee or any other person has discretion to affect the beneficiary's present or future beneficial enjoyment of the trust estate and, if so, describe the nature of that discretion and state whether the discretion either has been or may be exercised.

(B) Notice of Complaint. The plaintiff must serve a copy of the complaint personally or by first class mail on each beneficiary not named as a defendant, a representative of that beneficiary, an agent authorized to receive notice to that beneficiary, or a person of suitable age and discretion then residing with that beneficiary.

(d) NO CONTINUING SUPERVISION. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, after the conclusion of the proceeding, the court will not continue to supervise a trust action initiated under this rule.

COMMENT

D.C. Code § 19-1302.01(b) (2012 Repl.) provides that a trust is not subject to continuing judicial supervision unless ordered by the court.

The circumstances in which one person may represent and bind another person with respect to that other person's interest in a trust are set out in D.C. Code §§ 19-1303.01 to -.05 (2012 Repl.).

Rule 604. Other Trust Proceedings

(a) IN GENERAL. The settlor, if living, the trustee, a qualified beneficiary, or an interested person may commence a trust proceeding or seek relief in an existing trust proceeding by filing:

(1) a petition; or

(2) an objection to an accounting or report in a trust under court supervision.

(b) TREATED AS COMPLAINT. Unless a statute provides otherwise, on request of an interested person or on its own initiative, the court may order that a petition be treated as a complaint or that a complaint be filed.

(c) PROCEDURES FOR PETITIONS AND OBJECTIONS. Rule 105 governs the procedures for petitions and objections filed with respect to trusts, including service of petitions.

(d) NO CONTINUING SUPERVISION. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, after the conclusion of the proceeding, the court will not continue to supervise a trust action initiated under this rule.

COMMENT

Common trust-related petitions include 1) petitions for appointment of a successor, substitute, or additional trustee; and 2) petitions to establish a trust such as a trust created pursuant to an order entered in a civil action in which damages are paid by the defendant, a testamentary or other trust created in a decedent's estate administration proceeding, or a trust established under 42 U.S.C. §1396(d)(4)(a) (generally referred to as a "special needs trust" or "supplemental needs trust").

Rule 605. Bond

(a) REQUIREMENT. Except as provided in Rule 605(d), a trustee is required to execute a bond, with surety approved by the court, conditioned on performance of the trustee's duties, only if:

(1) the court finds that a bond is needed to protect the interests of the beneficiaries, or

(2) the terms of the trust require a bond and the court has not dispensed with the requirement.

(b) AMOUNT OF BOND. When a bond is required, the court must specify the amount of the bond considering, among other factors, the value of the trust property, the annual income of the trust, the trust property subject to the bond, and its liabilities.

(c) MODIFICATION AND TERMINATION. The court may modify or terminate the bond at any time.

(d) EXCEPTION. No bond is required from a regulated financial institution, as defined in D.C. Code, § 26-551.02(18) (2021 Supp.), or a national bank as provided in 12 U.S.C. § 92a(f), even if required by the terms of the trust.

Rule 606. Account in a Trust Under Court Supervision

(a) IN GENERAL. In a trust supervised by the court, the trustee must file an account annually within 60 days after the anniversary date of:

- (1) the order providing for continuing supervision of the administration of the trust; or
- (2) the trustee's appointment.

(b) FINAL ACCOUNT.

(1) In General. The trustee must file a final account within 60 days after termination of the trust or resignation or removal of the trustee.

(2) Death of Trustee.

(A) Notice of Death. On the death of the trustee, the trustee's personal representative, a trust beneficiary, a representative of a trust beneficiary, or any interested person must promptly file a notice of death.

(B) Final Account. The successor trustee must file the deceased trustee's final account within 60 days after the date of the successor's appointment.

(c) SERVICE. The trustee must serve a copy of any account, personally or by first class mail, on each qualified beneficiary and any other person required to be served.

(d) OBJECTIONS TO ACCOUNT. Any person entitled to receive the account has 30 days after receiving the account to file any objections to the account. Any objection must be served on the trustee and all persons entitled to receive the account.

Rule 607. Service of Inventory

The trustee must serve a copy of any inventory, personally or by first class mail, on each qualified beneficiary and any other person required to be served.

COMMENT

This rule addresses service of an inventory in a trust case. Rule 112 addresses other requirements for inventories.

APPENDIX A. ESTATES OF DECEDENTS DYING PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 1981

Estates of decedents dying prior to January 1, 1981 are governed by D.C. Code §§ 18-501 to -514 (1973) and not current law governing administration of decedents' estates. Statutory references in the rules in this appendix are to statutory provisions of the 1973 edition of the D.C. Code. The rules in Chapter 1 govern to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the relevant statutory provisions and the rules in this appendix.

(10) the estimated amount, if any, of District of Columbia inheritance and estate taxes.

(b) SPECIAL UNDERTAKING. No special undertaking may be granted unless prayed for in the petition.

(c) NOTICE TO LEGATEES. No order granting probate may be entered, in the absence of consent or waiver of notice, until proof, as provided herein, has been filed with the court to the effect that there has been mailed postpaid to each legatee and devisee, at the last known address of each legatee and devisee a notice showing the title of the court, the name of the testator, the amount or nature of the legacy or devise and the name and address of the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney. The proof of service of said notice must be by affidavit of the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney containing the substance of said notice or attaching a copy thereof. If any legatee or devisee is known by the affiant to be under any legal disability, the notice must be directed to said person in care of the guardian, conservator, committee or custodian of said person. If any legatee or devisee is unknown or if the address of said person is unknown, the aforesaid affidavit must recite that fact and the efforts made to ascertain same and the mailing of said notice to said person will not be required.

Rule A-2. Notice of Petition for Probate

In the absence of consent or waivers of notice, notice of the filing of a petition for probate must, in accordance with D.C. Code §§ 18-501 to -503, be directed to the heirs at law and next of kin of the decedent in the following manner:

(a) NOTICE BY CITATION.

(1) When any heir at law and next of kin is a resident of the District of Columbia, the Register of Wills, on request of the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney must issue a citation directed to such heir at law and next of kin in accordance with D.C. Code § 18-501(b).

(2) When any heir at law and next of kin is a nonresident of the District of Columbia or is a resident of the District of Columbia as to whom citation has been returned "not to be found," notice may be given to such person in accordance with D.C. Code § 18-502(a) or in accordance with Rule A-2(b).

(b) NOTICE BY PUBLICATION. When it is alleged in the petition for probate or other affidavit that any heir at law and next of kin is unknown, is a non-resident of the District of Columbia, or is a resident of the District of Columbia as to whom citation has been returned "not to be found," notice may be effected with respect to such person, on written request of petitioner or the petitioner's attorney, by publication in accordance with D.C. Code §§ 18-502(b) and -503(a).

(c) MAILING AND PROOF. No order granting probate may be entered unless petitioner or the petitioner's attorney has filed an affidavit showing:

(1) that at least 20 days before the expiration of the period stated in the publication affiant mailed, postpaid, a copy of said notice directed to each person named therein, at such person's last known address; or that if said mailing was less than 20 days before the expiration of the period stated in the publication, the person named therein was notified that any objections to the granting of said order must be filed within 20 days from the date of said mailing; or that affiant has been unable to ascertain the address of any person named therein after diligent effort; and

(2) that, if unknown heirs at law and next of kin are mentioned in said notice, the affiant has not learned of the existence of any heirs at law and next of kin who were unknown at the time of such publication.

Rule A-3. Notice of Petition for Administration

Upon the filing of a petition for letters of administration, the court may direct the issuance of a citation to any heir at law and next of kin, if within the District of Columbia, to appear on a day named and show cause why such letters should not be granted, and if it appears that any heir at law and next of kin cannot be found within the District of Columbia, or is unknown, the court may direct notice to said person by publication as provided in these rules, or otherwise.

Rule A-4. Collectors: Certain Persons Not to Be Appointed

Neither the party filing a complaint to contest the validity of a will nor said party's attorney may be appointed collector of an estate pending the trial of the proceedings, except:

(a) with the approval of the court and the written consent of all the defendants named in the complaint; or

(b) whereby reason of peculiar circumstances, it is deemed appropriate by the court.

Rule A-5. Proceedings in Contested Estate Cases

(a) COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION. An action to (i) contest the validity of a will in accordance with D.C. Code § 18-513, (ii) contest a petition for the appointment of an administrator or executor or to remove an administrator or executor who has been appointed, (iii) institute a plenary proceeding in accordance with D.C. Code § 18-512, or (iv) construe a will prior to approval of the personal representative's final account, may be commenced by any party in interest by filing a verified complaint with the Register of Wills. Except as hereinafter provided the proceedings are governed by the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure.

(b) SUMMONS. The Register of Wills must issue a summons upon the request of the plaintiff in the action. In an action brought in accordance with this rule, the summons must be directed to each heir at law and next of kin of the deceased, to the proponents of the will and to all legatees and devisees named in wills of the decedent filed in the Office of the Register of Wills.

(c) SUBSTITUTED PERSONAL SERVICE; PUBLICATION. If any party summoned is a nonresident of the District of Columbia, or is a resident of the District of Columbia as to whom the summons has been returned “not to be found,” or is an unknown heir at law and next of kin of the decedent, service may be made upon said party by publication once a week for 3 successive weeks in accordance with D.C. Code §§ 13-339 and -340. Substituted personal service may be made on a nonresident party out of the District of Columbia in accordance with D.C. Code § 13-337.

(d) SCHEDULING AND SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE. Within 120 days after a complaint has been filed, the court must conduct an initial scheduling and settlement conference.

Rule A-6. Registration and Appraisal of Securities

(a) REGISTRATION. Unless the will of a decedent provides otherwise, the personal representative of a decedent’s estate must, as soon as practicable after qualification, register all securities owned by the decedent (except, in the discretion of the personal representative, securities registered in the name of the decedent) in the name of the personal representative, as such, and must bring all securities under the control of the personal representative. If the personal representative or the custodial agent of the personal representative is a bank chartered under the laws of the United States or the District of Columbia, the securities may be registered in the name of its nominee or kept in bearer form, but such registration does not relieve the personal representative of responsibility for the safekeeping of the securities. This rule is applicable to the administrations of all decedents’ estates commenced in this court on or after August 1, 1973, except those proceedings instituted in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-304.

(b) EXCEPTION. For good cause, and upon such terms and conditions as it may direct, the court may permit a personal representative to hold securities otherwise than as required by Rule A-6(a).

(c) APPRAISAL. Within 2 months after qualification, or such longer time as the court allows, the personal representative of a decedent’s estate must furnish to the court-appointed appraisers a written listing of all securities owned by the decedent, together with a statement that the personal representative has complied with Rule A-6(a) or has obtained or applied for an order in accordance with Rule A-6(b). The appraisers must thereafter value said securities as of the date of the decedent’s death in accordance with principles set forth in the Federal Estate Tax Regulations governing the valuation of securities for federal estate tax purposes.

Rule A-7. Sale of Personal Property

Sales of personal property under order of the Probate Division must be upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed in the order of sale.

Rule A-8. Proceedings for the Sale of Real Property

(a) PETITION. A proceeding for the sale of real property of a decedent for the payment of charges or legacies, as set forth in D.C. Code § 20-1106, is commenced by the filing of a petition which must set forth (i) the real property sought to be sold; (ii) the estimated value of the personal property; (iii) the amount of the charges and legacies, if any; (iv) the insufficiency of the personal property to satisfy said charges and legacies; and, (v) where applicable, the name and address of each heir at law and next of kin, legatee, and devisee.

(b) PROCESS. Except as to parties who have filed consents therein, process must issue in proceedings under this rule in accordance with D.C. Code §§ 13-337 to -340.

(c) REFERENCE TO AUDITOR-MASTER. After service of process has been completed and the time for answer has expired, the proceedings must be referred to the Auditor-Master for a report in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-1106. The procedure prescribed by Civil Rule 53(f) for the filing of objections to the report of the Auditor-Master may be waived in writing if such waiver is signed by all persons who have received notice of the filing of the report.

(d) SALE WITHOUT REFERENCE TO AUDITOR-MASTER. When all parties described in Rule A-8(a) have filed with the court their consents to the sale, the court may order the sale of all or part of said real property without reference to the Auditor-Master if it is satisfied that the personal property of the decedent is insufficient to meet all charges or legacies and that all or part of the decedent's real property must be sold to pay charges or legacies. If a person having an interest in said real property is under a legal disability, the court may accept the consent of a fiduciary duly appointed for said person's estate or may appoint a guardian ad litem having the right to file a consent on behalf of that person.

(e) MANNER OF SALE. A sale authorized pursuant to this rule must be made in accordance with Rule B-10.

Rule A-9. Accounts of Administrators, Executors and Collectors

(a) NOTICE OF FILING. No account may be approved by the court, in the absence of a consent or waiver of notice, until the personal representative or the personal representative's attorney has furnished notice to each person whose interest may be affected by the attorneys' fees and personal representatives' commissions claimed in said account. Such notice must state the amounts of such fees and commissions so claimed and the date said account will be presented for approval to the court. Said notice must be given after the filing of said account. It must be served upon each such person or sent by certified mail to each such person's last known address. Said notice must be served upon residents of the District of Columbia at least 5 days prior to the date said account is to be presented to the court for approval and upon nonresidents at least 20 days prior to such date; 3 additional days is required in the event of mailing said notice.

(b) PROOF OF NOTICE. Proof of service must be by an affidavit or declaration which sets forth the name and address of each person to whom notice was given, and, if mailed, the date of mailing. The affidavit or declaration must be supported by a specimen copy of the notice prescribed by Rule A-9(a) and, in the case of mailing, the certified letter receipt.

(c) TAX CERTIFICATE. Except in cases in which a return is not required to be filed by the personal representative, no final account may be approved by the court until the personal representative has filed with the Register of Wills a certificate of the District of Columbia Department of Tax and Revenue certifying that the District of Columbia inheritance and estate tax liability of the estate has been satisfied or fully provided for.

(d) ACCOUNT; APPROVAL WITHOUT FORMAL AUDIT. An account of a personal representative may be approved without formal audit if all persons whose interests will be diminished by the disbursements shown (distributees, legatees or creditors) are under no legal disability, acknowledge receipt of a copy of the account, and consent to and approve such account in all respects, as stated, and further consent to and approve the attorneys' fees and commissions of the personal representative as claimed in such account. The form of such consent may be as follows:

CONSENT

I, the undersigned distributee, legatee or creditor affected by the disbursements shown in the personal representative's account, hereby:

- (1) acknowledge receipt of a copy of the account;
- (2) consent to and approve the account in all respects as stated;
- (3) consent to and approve the personal representative's commission claimed in the account;
- (4) consent to and approve the attorneys' fees claimed in the account; and
- (5) request approval of the account at the earliest possible date.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed my name and affixed my seal this day of, 20.....

.....(SEAL)

In addition, the attorney for the estate must submit a certificate to the court showing that the funeral bill has been paid, and that all approved claims and all known debts of decedent have been paid. There must also be filed the usual certificate of payment of taxes from the District of Columbia Department of Finance and Revenue and vouchers evidencing payment of all disbursements claimed in the account.

Upon compliance with the foregoing requirements, the Register of Wills may, in the exercise of the Register of Wills's discretion, submit the account to the court for approval without formal audit. After approval by the court, receipts acknowledging final distribution must be filed promptly.

(e) ANCILLARY ACCOUNTS. The provisions of Rule A-9(d) also apply to approval of accounts in ancillary proceedings, without formal audit, except that the consent therein required may be executed only by the domiciliary personal representative, if the domiciliary personal representative is not one and the same as the ancillary personal representative. In absence of such consent, or if the 2 personal representatives are one and the same, notice of presentation of the ancillary personal representative's account and commission and attorney's fees must be given in accordance with Rule A-9(b).

(f) FEES AND COMMISSIONS. Prior to the court approval of a 1st or subsequent account, wherein a total attorney's fee or commission of the personal representative exceeds the sum of $7,500 in the 1st account or combined accounts, the party or parties whose fee or commission exceeds the sum of $7,500 must file a complete statement of services rendered to the estate. In cases where fees or commissions of less than $7,500 are requested, a statement of services may be required in the discretion of the court.

(g) REOPENING. If an account is approved by the court without notice to interested parties required by Rule A-9(a), such account may be reopened upon objections thereto filed by any interested party within 3 months after it is so approved.

Rule A-10. Exhibition of Assets

(a) VERIFICATION OF ASSETS. If financial accounts are reported in an account, a separate form maintained by the Register of Wills must be filed with the account including complete account numbers. At the time of audit of an account the fiduciary must:

(1) exhibit all checking account bank statements and cancelled checks or vouchers evidencing cash transactions during the accounting period;

(2) exhibit all passbooks, ledger sheets, statements or similar documents issued by a bank, trust company, savings and loan association, brokerage firm, or similar institution, reflecting the assets of the estate on deposit or on account therein, and evidencing the transactions in such assets during the accounting period;

(3) file written verification by the depository of cash balances on deposit therein and of all other assets carried in the account as of closing date of the accounting period where otherwise not verified in accordance with Rule A-10(a)(1)-(2); and

(4) exhibit certificates or other statement of account of a custodian other than the personal representative evidencing ownership of all securities held for future accounting. In those fiduciary cases in which a bank is acting as fiduciary, in lieu of exhibiting certificates, the bank may submit an affidavit executed by an officer of the bank, other than the officer signing the account, verifying the correctness of the securities and cash accounts held for future accounting and the bank's custody thereof.

(b) REPORT. When an interim account indicates that the fiduciary holds any undistributed assets, there must be appended thereto a report, stating with detailed particularity each such asset and its inventoried value.

Rule A-11. Assignments

When a party who claims to have a right to share as an heir or legatee of a deceased person assigns all or part of such right, the assignee must promptly file the assignment in the administration proceeding. Any further proceedings to protect or enforce the assignment, or any claim based thereon, must be prosecuted or presented in the name of the assignee and not in the name of the assignor. Said assignment must be sworn to or acknowledged before an official authorized to administer oaths. Unless approved by order of this court, counsel for the assignee must not appear for or represent the assignor.

Rule A-12. Compensation to Attorneys and Fiduciaries

Claims for attorneys' fees and fiduciary commissions in proceedings governed by these rules must be made and allowed in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-1705 and in accordance with such of the provisions of Rule A-9(f) as may be applicable.

Rule A-13. Definitions

Unless otherwise specifically stated in these rules or unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions govern Rules A-1 through A-12:

(a) The term "Register of Wills" means and includes the Register of Wills or any deputy designated by the Register of Wills.

(b) Any word may be read in the singular or plural and as masculine, feminine or neuter gender as may be applicable or permissible in the particular context.

(c) The word “person” means and includes an individual, partnership, association, company or corporation.

(e) The present tense includes the future as well as the present.

APPENDIX B. ESTATES OF DECEDENTS DYING ON OR AFTER JANUARY 1, 1981 THROUGH JUNE 30, 1995

Estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 1981 and before July 1, 1995 are generally governed by the provisions of the District of Columbia Probate Reform Act of 1980, which can be found in the 1981 edition of the D.C. Code. D.C. Code citations in this appendix note where the 1981 version may control. (Any D.C. Code citations without a year refer to current law.) However, the statutory history of each section of Title 20 of the D.C. Code should be reviewed to determine whether the section was changed by any subsequent legislation, including the Probate Reform Act of 1994, and the applicability date of the changes. The rules in Chapter 1 govern to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the relevant statutory provisions and the rules in this appendix.

Rule B-1. Petition for Probate

The petition for probate must be typed and filed in compliance with D.C. Code §§ 20-304 and -352 on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form. When the form provides alternatives, the inappropriate alternatives must be deleted.

Rule B-2. Notice; Filing Requirements and Procedures

(a) STANDARD PROBATE.

(1) Form of Notice. The notice required for standard probate must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(2) Filing of Notice. Any person entitled to request standard probate must present to the Register of Wills an original of the form in Rule B-2(a)(1). The Register of Wills must forthwith forward copies thereof to the designated newspapers in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-323.

(3) Within 14 days from the date of first publication, the person seeking standard probate must mail a copy of the notice to all interested persons by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, with delivery restricted to the addressee only.

(4) The person seeking standard probate or such person's representative must file proofs of publication and a verified statement evidencing that a copy of the notice was timely mailed to all interested persons. If, after diligent effort, the person seeking standard probate has been unable to ascertain the address of any interested person, that fact must be made known in the verified statement filed. If unknown heirs at law are interested persons, the current status of their identity and/or whereabouts must be alleged in the verified statement.

(5) In lieu of the notice prescribed by this rule, proof of actual notice or personal service will suffice.

(b) NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT (ABBREVIATED AND STANDARD PROBATE).

(1) The petitioner must file, at the time of filing the petition for probate, an original of the notice of appointment on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form, signed by each person seeking appointment and completed to the extent possible (excluding the date of first publication and the deadline for filing objections and claims). Upon appointment of the personal representative, the Register of Wills must complete the publication form and forward copies to the designated newspapers for publication.

(2) No later than 20 days after appointment, the personal representative must send by certified or registered mail to all heirs and legatees copies of the text of the Notice of Appointment, Notice to Creditors and Notice to Unknown Heirs, and the general information statement on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form, unless the Notice of Appointment has already been given. The personal representative must file with the Register of Wills at the time of filing the inventory and appraisal proofs of publication and a certification specifying the date of mailing and the persons to whom mailed.

(3) When discovery of a new or later will necessitates republication under D.C. Code § 20-704(c) (1981), the personal representative must file with the Register of Wills a notice of appointment or reappointment, typed or electronically printed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form. The Register of Wills must promptly forward copies of the completed form to the designated newspapers for publication.

Rule B-3. Bond

(a) NOMINAL BOND. If the will of the decedent excuses the filing of a bond, or if all interested persons file written waivers to the filing of a bond, the personal representative must, nevertheless, file a nominal bond pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-502 (1981) at the time of the filing of the petition for probate, on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(b) GENERAL BOND. If the will of the decedent does not excuse the filing of a bond, and if all interested persons do not file written waivers to the filing of a bond pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-502 (1981), a bond must be filed at the time of the filing of the petition for probate, on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

Rule B-4. Special Administrators

All the powers and duties applicable to personal representatives are applicable to special administrators, except as otherwise provided by statute or court rule.

Rule B-5. Proceedings in Contested Estate Cases

(a) TYPE OF PROCEEDING.

(1) When Required. The following actions are commenced by filing a verified complaint:

(A) an action to contest the validity of a will in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-305 (1981); or

(B) an action for payment of a claim that was denied in whole or in part in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-908.

(2) By Court Order. Unless a statute provides otherwise, on request of an interested person or on its own initiative, the court may order that a petition be treated as a complaint commencing a contested proceeding or that a complaint be filed.

(b) APPLYING CIVIL RULES.

(1) In General. Except as modified in Rule B-5(b)(2)-(3) or as otherwise ordered by the court, the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure apply to a contested proceeding commenced by a complaint under Rule B-5(a)(1) or (2).

(2) Summons. Together with the complaint, the plaintiff must complete and file a summons for each defendant on the form maintained by the Register of Wills. On filing of the complaint and summons, the clerk must issue the summons and an initial order to be served with the complaint in accordance with the civil rules.

(3) Initial Scheduling and Settlement Conference. The court must schedule an initial scheduling and settlement conference to be held within 120 days after the complaint is filed.

(c) REQUIRED DEFENDANTS.

(1) Complaint to Contest Validity of Will. In a complaint to contest the validity of a will, the defendants must include:

(A) all interested persons, excluding creditors; and

(B) all persons needed for just adjudication under Civil Rule 19.

(2) Any Other Complaint. In any other complaint, the defendants must include:

(A) the personal representative; and

(B) any other persons needed for just adjudication under Civil Rule 19.

(d) NOTICE TO CREDITORS. In a proceeding to contest the validity of a will, the plaintiff must give notice under D.C. Code § 20-103 (1981) to creditors who are interested persons and must prove service of the notice by certificate of service.

COMMENT

A plenary proceeding provided for in D.C. Code § 16-3105 is a process that existed largely for decedent's estate administration pursuant to now-repealed statutes, and it is no longer used in current practice. Relief formerly requested in a plenary proceeding may be requested in a petition, which, if appropriate, may be treated as a complaint commencing a contested proceeding.

Rule B-6. Distributions to Minors

(a) PETITIONS. In all cases where the personal representative is required to distribute estate assets to a minor for whom no guardian has been appointed, or to a minor in accordance with the provisions of a decedent's will, where the will provides for distribution to a person other than the court-appointed guardian, the personal representative must request authority from the court by verified petition which sets forth the following information:

(1) The name, residence and date of birth of each minor for whom authority to distribute is sought, as well as the basis for the minor's entitlement to share in the estate.

(2) The total value of the estate assets to be distributed to each minor.

(3) The method of distribution proposed. State if under D.C. Code § 20-1106(a)(2) or (b) (1981), and the basis for electing this method.

(4) If authority is requested under D.C. Code § 20-1106(b)(1), (4), or (5) (1981), to distribute to a custodian on behalf of a minor, provide:

(A) the name, place of residence and relationship to the minor of the person proposed as custodian;

(B) the consent of the minor if the minor is 14 years of age or older, to the appointment of the proposed custodian; and

(C) the consent of the proposed custodian to act as custodian and hold the assets on behalf of the minor.

(5) If authority is requested under D.C. Code § 20-1106(b)(3) (1981) to distribute estate assets under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, in addition to Rule B-6(a)(1) - (4), provide facts to show:

(A) the transfer is in the best interests of the minor (D.C. Code § 21-306(c)(1));

(B) the transfer is not prohibited by or inconsistent with the provisions of the will (D.C. Code § 21-306(c)(2)); and

(C) the personal representative will effect the transfer in accordance with D.C. Code § 21-309, and in particular, where the custodial property is money, by payment or delivery to the broker or the financial institution for credit in the custodial account.

(6) If authority is requested under D.C. Code § 20-1106(b)(2) (1981), to establish a restricted account, provide the name and location of the financial institution.

(b) RECEIPT. The personal representative must file within 30 days after the entry of the court order approving the distribution of estate assets on behalf of a minor, proof of the distribution approved by the court as follows:

(1) if distribution is made under D.C. Code § 20-1106(a)(2) or (b)(1), (3), (4), or (5) (1981), a receipt signed by the custodian, and in the case of a financial institution or broker, documentation evidencing the transaction; or

(2) if distribution is made under D.C. Code § 20-1106(b)(2) (1981), documentation evidencing the establishment of a restricted account.

The court may extend the time for filing a receipt upon the showing of good cause.

COMMENT

Subsection (a)(3). Where the personal representative petitions for authority to distribute estate assets to a minor under D.C. Code § 20-1106(a)(2) or (b) (1981), the fiduciary must be aware of the following characteristics unique to each method of distribution in order to set forth the basis for the selection of the method proposed, i.e., court-supervised vs. unsupervised arrangement, custodial distribution vs. non-custodial distribution, and accessible assets vs. non-accessible assets:

Distributions of money or property with a value of $ 1,000 or less (D.C. Code § 20-1106(b)(1) (1981)) and distributions of tangibles (D.C. Code § 20-1106(b)(4) (1981)). Distributions may be made to a custodian of the minor designated by the court, and if tangibles are valued in excess of $1,000, the court may impose such conditions as it deems appropriate. The arrangement is unsupervised. If the tangible personal property is of significant value, distribution under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (see below) should be considered. It will provide more safeguards, as the custodian will be subject to statutory fiduciary standards of care.

Distribution of money to a restricted bank account (D.C. Code § 20-1106(b)(2) (1981)). The court must approve the bank, the account is held in the name of the minor, there is no ongoing supervision of the arrangements, and the money may be withdrawn only upon court approval. Restricted accounts appear appropriate for small sums of money where there may be no need to invade the principal to meet the needs of the child. It is advisable if the restricted account is the selected method of distribution (i) to arrange for the bank statements to be forwarded to the minor in whose name the account is established, regardless of age, so that the minor will remain informed, and to the parent of the minor or the custodian of the minor; and (ii) to consult the financial institution to verify that restricted accounts are permissible.

Distributions under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (D.C. Code § 20-1106(b)(3) (1981)). The estate assets are held by a court-designated custodian on behalf of the minor in an unsupervised arrangement. Expenditures and investments may be made without court authority on behalf of the minor. The designated custodian under this act is accountable as a fiduciary under D.C. Code §§ 21-312 and -313. In this regard, care in the selection of the custodian is important because of the foregoing standards imposed.

Distributions of real estate to a custodian designated by the court (D.C. Code § 20-1106(b)(5) (1981)). Distribution is made in the name of the minor to a custodian designated by the court. Although it is an unsupervised arrangement, the property may be sold only with court approval.

Court-appointed guardians (D.C. Code § 21-106). This is a supervised arrangement where the guardian serves under bond and files annual accountings. Court costs are assessed based on the estate value, and the guardian is responsible for annual bond premiums. The guardian must petition for authority to expend and invest estate assets on behalf of the minor. If small sums of money are involved, the guardianship of the estate of the minor may not be cost effective because of bond premium costs and the need to file petitions for court authority to make expenditures. Restricted accounts may be preferable. If significant assets are involved, one may wish to consider whether the minor's interest would be better served by the selection of a financial institution as the guardian, as opposed to an individual, in light of bond premium costs, since a financial institution may not be required to execute a bond if authorized under D.C. law to act as a fiduciary.

Rule B-7. Inventory and Appraisals

(a) USE OF APPRAISERS. Unless the personal representative is excused from filing an inventory pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-731 (1981), the Register of Wills, upon the granting of letters of administration, must issue a directive to the personal representative, requiring the personal representative to make an appointment with the standing appraisers or arrange for the use of special appraisers in preparation for the filing of an inventory.

(b) VALUATION OF REAL ESTATE. The personal representative may inventory real property at the value placed thereon by the District of Columbia Department of Tax and Revenue for purposes of assessment and taxation for the fiscal year in which the decedent died. If the personal representative determines that any real property should be independently appraised, the fair market value must be determined by an appraiser who is selected by the personal representative and who is licensed by the District of Columbia.

(c) VALUATION OF SECURITIES. Appraisal of securities must be made as of the date of decedent's death in accordance with principles set forth in federal estate tax regulations governing the valuation of securities for federal estate tax purposes.

(d) SPECIAL APPRAISERS. The personal representative must select qualified special appraisers to appraise a decedent's interests in joint ventures, partnerships, business enterprises, cooperative apartments, coins and stamps and any other assets as to which the Register of Wills has informed the personal representative that the standing appraisers do not ordinarily appraise. In addition, the court may approve the use of qualified special appraisers to appraise any other assets that the standing appraisers do not ordinarily appraise, for which they cannot provide an expeditious appraisal or for other good cause shown.

(e) INVENTORY FORM. The inventory must be typed or electronically printed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form. The inventory must comply with the general Probate Division rule governing privacy requirements and must be accompanied by the form for reporting complete account numbers required by that rule.

(f) NOTICE OF FILING. The notice prescribed by D.C. Code § 20-711(b) (1981), which may be mailed or delivered to all interested persons in lieu of a copy of the inventory, must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

Rule B-8. Claims Against Estate

(a) PETITION. Petitions for payment of claims prescribed by D.C. Code § 20-909(a) (1981) must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(b) RESPONSE TO PETITION. The personal representative must file and serve the claimant with a response to the petition no later than 14 days after the petition was mailed or delivered.

Rule B-9. Action on Claims

(a) NOTICE OF ACTION. Notice of action taken by the personal representative, pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-908(a), must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(b) SERVICE OF NOTICE OF ACTION. Notice given pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-908(a) and this rule must be signed by the personal representative, and will be deemed to have been mailed or delivered by the personal representative if mailed or delivered either by the personal representative or an agent of the personal representative.

Rule B-10. Sale of Estate Assets

(a) PERSONAL PROPERTY. Sales of personal property when made pursuant to an order of court must be upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed in the order.

(b) REAL PROPERTY IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. When acting upon real property in accordance with D.C. Code § 20-742(b) (1981), the personal representative must file a petition explaining the type of transaction (such as sale, lease, or other) and certifying that the bond has been expanded by an amount equal to the fair market value of the real estate as appraised, or that the bond has been waived. Upon the filing of the petition, the court must enter an order confirming the bond. Unless the bond is waived, the personal representative must obtain and file with the Register of Wills an appraisal report by an appraiser who is selected by the personal representative and who is licensed by the District of Columbia.

(c) SALE OF REAL PROPERTY FOR PURPOSES OF DISTRIBUTION. Sales of real property made pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-1105 must conform to Rule B-10(b).

COMMENT

If the petition referenced in section (b) is filed accompanied by written consents of all interested persons, the court will immediately act on the petition, otherwise the petition will be held by the Register of Wills until expiration of the time for response.

Rule B-11. Accounts of Personal Representative

(a) REQUIREMENT TO ACCOUNT.

(1) Preparation. D.C. Code § 20-721 (1981) requires a personal representative to prepare verified written accounts of the administration of the estate.

(2) Filing. Unless excused pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-731 (1981), all personal representatives must file accounts in accordance with the provisions of D.C. Code §§ 20-721 to -724 (1981).

(b) FORM OF ACCOUNT. The first accounting period of the estate must begin at the date of death of the decedent. All accounts must be typed or electronically printed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form. The accounts must comply with Rule 109 governing privacy requirements and must be accompanied by the form for reporting complete account numbers required by that rule.

(c) TAX CERTIFICATION. All final accounts in estates of decedents dying after March 31, 1987 must contain a certification in a form prescribed by the court that the personal representative is or is not required to file a federal estate tax return and, if a federal estate tax return is required, a further certification that the District of Columbia estate transfer tax, including applicable interest, has been paid in full or that no such tax is due.

COMMENT

The Uniform Fiduciary Accounting Principles and accompanying commentaries and illustrations recommended by the Committee on National Fiduciary Accounting Standards in collaboration with the National Center for State Courts are approved as an elaboration of the requirements of this rule. Reference may be made to them for determination of the adequacy of a particular account. The Model Account Formats attached thereto together with the certification applicable to final accounts of estates of decedents dying after March 31, 1987 are deemed consistent with the prescribed forms.

Rule B-12. Waiver of Filing Inventories and Accounts by All Personal Representatives

(a) FORM OF WAIVER. A waiver of filing inventories and accounts by all personal representatives pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-731 (1981) must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(b) INTERPRETATION OF “HEIR OR LEGATEE.” For purposes of D.C. Code § 20-731(a) (1981), an “heir or legatee” refers to intestate or testate cases, as appropriate. Waivers by heirs are not required in a testate case.

Rule B-13. Notice of Filing of Account

(a) FORM OF NOTICE. The notice prescribed by D.C. Code § 20-721 (1981), which may be mailed or delivered to all interested persons in lieu of a copy of an account, must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(b) TIME OF FILING OF ACCOUNT. If the personal representative gives notice to interested persons of the filing of an account, the account may not be filed earlier than 7 days preceding the last date set forth in the notice for the filing of such account.

(c) DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA ESTATE TRANSFER TAX FINDING. The court may make the District of Columbia estate transfer tax finding required by District of Columbia law with respect to the estates of decedents dying after March 31, 1987, as follows:

(1) upon the filing of a certificate of the District of Columbia government that the District of Columbia estate transfer tax has been fully discharged or provided for, or that no such tax is due; or

(2) upon certification by the personal representative that the personal representative is not required to file a federal estate tax return.

Rule B-14. Waiver of Formal Audit of Account

(a) FORM OF WAIVER. A waiver of a formal audit of an account by an heir or legatee pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-732(a) (1981) must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form.

(b) INTERPRETATION OF “HEIR OR LEGATEE.” For purposes of D.C. Code § 20-732(a) (1981), an “heir or legatee” refers to intestate or testate cases, as appropriate. Waivers by heirs are not required in a testate case.

(c) EFFECT OF A RECEIPT. A receipt signed by an heir or legatee acknowledging payment in full of his or her interest in the estate will be deemed to be a waiver for purposes of D.C. Code § 20-732(a) (1981).

(d) WAIVER OF RIGHT TO FILE OBJECTIONS. An heir or legatee may waive the right to a formal audit under D.C. Code § 20-732(a) (1981) and the right to file an objection to the account within 30 days of its filing as provided in Rule B-14(a). An heir or legatee who waives these rights may nevertheless demand a formal audit within 20 days of approval of the final account.

Rule B-15. Audit of Accounts

(a) COMPLETE COURT AUDIT. Unless waivers have been filed with the account pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-732 (1981), the personal representative, at the time of filing the account, must:

(1) exhibit all checking account bank statements and cancelled checks or vouchers evidencing cash or electronic transactions during the accounting period;

(2) exhibit all passbooks, ledger sheets, statements, or similar documents issued by a bank, trust company, savings and loan association, brokerage firm or similar institution, reflecting the assets of the estate on deposit or on account therein, and evidencing the transactions in such assets during the accounting period;

(3) where not otherwise ascertained in accordance with Rule B-15(a)(1), (2), and (4), file a written statement by each depository of cash balances on deposit therein and of all other assets (except tangibles) carried in the account as of closing date of the accounting period;

(4) exhibit certificates or other statements of account of a custodian other than the personal representative evidencing ownership of all securities held for future accounting; in those fiduciary cases in which a bank is acting as fiduciary. In lieu of exhibiting certificates, the bank may submit an affidavit executed by an officer of the bank, other than the officer signing the account, verifying the correctness of the securities and cash accounts held for future accounting and the bank's custody thereof; and

(5) if the account is a final account in the estate of a decedent dying before April 1, 1987, file a certificate of satisfaction of payment of District of Columbia inheritance and/or estate taxes.

(b) CURSORY REVIEW OF ACCOUNT. If the account is to be reviewed pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-732 (1981), the personal representative must, at the time of filing the account:

(1) note on the face of the account a request for cursory review;

(2) file with the account waivers or receipts as provided in Rule B-14;

(3) file vouchers or cancelled checks for all funeral expenses and each other disbursement in excess of $1,000 claimed in the account;

(4) if the account is final, file a statement that all claims filed with the court or otherwise presented to the personal representative have been paid or rejected;

(5) if the account is a final account in the estate of a decedent dying before April 1, 1987, file a certificate of satisfaction of payment of District of Columbia inheritance and/or estate taxes;

(6) if the pending account reflects a proposed disbursement of estate funds for compensation to the personal representative or the attorney for the personal representative, comply with the requirements of Rule B-19 governing requests for compensation; and

(7) submit a check in payment of outstanding court costs.

(c) RECOMMENDATION OF THE REGISTER OF WILLS. If the Register of Wills is satisfied that there has been submitted with a pending account for which cursory review is requested the requirements set forth in Rule B-15(b), and all applicable time periods have expired, the Register of Wills must, forthwith, submit such account to the court for its approval.

Rule B-16. Accounts of Special Administrator

Special administrators must account to the court in the same manner as personal representatives, and such accounts must be subject to a formal and complete audit.

Rule B-17. Assignment of Rights

When a party who claims to have a right to share as an heir or legatee of a deceased person assigns all or part of such right in a probate proceeding, the assignee must promptly file the assignment in the probate proceeding. Any further proceedings to protect or enforce the assignment, or any claim based thereon, must be prosecuted or presented in the name of the assignee and not in the name of the assignor. The assignment must be verified. Unless approved by order of this court, counsel for the assignee must not appear for or represent the assignor.

Rule B-18. Termination of Appointment

A petition for termination of the appointment of the personal representative pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-1301 (1981), along with a proposed order, must be filed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form. The petition must have attached to it all receipts not previously filed evidencing proper distribution of assets of the estate.

Rule B-19. Request for Compensation

(c) The court may act upon the request for compensation based solely upon the documentation required by Rule B-19(a)(1) - (8) and by either Rule B-19(c)(1) or (2) if:

(1) a consent and waiver in the form set forth in Rule B-19(b) is signed by each interested person and filed; or

(2) no objections to the request for compensation are filed and the total compensation requested is reasonable.

(d) If a personal representative or the attorney for the personal representative claims expenses of litigation pursuant to D.C. Code § 20-752, the claiming party must demonstrate the necessity of the litigation. If the attorney is someone other than the attorney handling the estate administration, the reason for his or her retention as litigation counsel (for example, special expertise, situs of the litigation, and the like) should be set forth.

(e) Additional verified documentation to show the reasonableness of the compensation sought must be filed if:

(1) any interested person files an objection to the request for compensation; or

(2) for any other reason the court requests such documentation.

Such additional documentation must describe any special services performed or any special circumstances encountered.

The separate request must contain all of the documentation required by Rule B-19(a), including the

The separate request also must set forth the efforts made to seek joint participation and, to the extent known, the reasons for nonparticipation in a joint request by all personal representatives and their attorneys. Each attorney for a personal representative shall be an interested person for purposes of Rule B-19(f).

(g) The court has the authority to award a fee consistent with its assessment of the services rendered, based on the request for compensation as filed. The court may at any time request such additional information as it may determine to aid it in assessing appropriate compensation in any case.

APPENDIX C. CONSERVATORS OF ADULTS APPOINTED IN A PROCEEDING INITIATED PURSUANT TO D.C. CODE § 21-1501, ET SEQ. (REPEALED)

The rules in Appendix C apply to conservatorships governed by now-repealed D.C. Code §§ 21-1501 to -1507. Statutory references in this appendix are to those statutory provisions. The rules in Chapter 1 govern to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the relevant statutory provisions and the rules in this appendix.

Rule C-1. Qualification of Conservator

Except for good cause only a person residing within the area of the subpoena power of the court or any bank or trust institution authorized to service in a fiduciary capacity, or a member of the bar authorized to practice law before this court may be appointed by the court as conservator of another.

Rule C-2. Bond

(a) REQUIREMENT AND AMOUNT. A conservator for the property and estate of an adult must execute a bond with surety approved by the court, conditioned for the faithful performance of such trust, before taking control of any assets of the adult. The penalty of the bond must be in the amount equal to the amount of the personal property, the annual income therefrom and the yearly rents to be derived from the real estate of such estate. Should it become necessary to sell real estate of the estate, the conservator must execute an additional bond in the amount required by the court before accepting the proceeds of the sale.

(b) No bond is required from a financial institution, as defined in Section 2(a)(18) of the 21st Century Financial Modernization Act of 2000, effective June 9, 2001 (D.C. Code § 26-551.02(18)), or a national bank as provided in 12 U.S.C § 92a(f).

Rule C-3. Property of the Protected individual

No conservator appointed by this court may, without prior court approval, remove or maintain outside the District of Columbia any personal assets held in a fiduciary capacity, except securities held in book entry form or in the custody of a broker, mutual fund, other corporate fiduciary, or of the U.S. Treasury.

Rule C-4. Expenditures and Sales

(a) EXPENDITURES. All expenditures from an estate by a conservator, except court costs and those provided by statute, must be made only upon prior authorization of the court.

(b) SALE OF PROPERTY. A conservator must not sell or otherwise dispose of estate property or encumber it without prior order of the court.

(c) EXPENDITURES AND SALES FOR INVESTMENT. A conservator must obtain a court order for all expenditures and sales for investment; however, the conservator may apply for approval by the court of an investment plan or program in accordance with Rule 119. If approved by the court, the investment plan may be carried out without the necessity of court approval of specific transactions; provided the transactions comply with the approved plan or program.

(d) FAILURE TO COMPLY. Failure to comply with the provisions of this rule constitute an irregularity or default. Such failure may result in personal liability and/or removal from office.

COMMENT

A petition for approval of proposed expenditures or for approval of a proposed sale or other disposition of estate property may be submitted to the court at any time and may request authority continuing beyond a specific accounting or annual period.

Reference should be made to Rule 119 for guidance on the reinvestment of the proceeds of sale of property. Excluding investment in federally insured bank accounts and United States Treasury obligations, a court order should be obtained to authorize such reinvestment if the proceeds are subject to court supervision and such investment is not authorized by the terms of the governing instrument or by statute.

Reference should be made to Rule 114 governing irregularity and default for the consequences of any failure to secure prior court authorization for any expenditures of funds, sale of property or the reinvestment of funds, sale of property or the reinvestment of property.

Rule C-5. Court Sales of Real and Personal Property

(a) SALE OF REAL PROPERTY. Unless otherwise herein provided, a sale of real estate or any interest in land under an order of this court is governed by the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 2001 in the same manner as if such provisions were, by the terms thereof, applicable to proceedings in this court.

(b) PUBLIC SALE: PROCEDURE. Except when the order of court otherwise provides, the officer making a public sale must proceed in the manner following:

(1) Publication. The officer must give previous notice of the sale by publication once a week for 4 weeks in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the District of Columbia. The notice must describe the property substantially as in the order and must state the time, place, manner and terms of sale and the deposit required.

(2) Terms of Sale. The terms must be 1/3 of the purchase money in cash and the balance in two equal installments, payable on or before one and 2 years from date of settlement of sale, represented by the promissory notes of the purchaser with interest at 6% per annum, payable semi-annually, secured by deed of trust on the property, or all cash at the option of the purchaser.

(3) Place; Presence of Officer. The sale must be held upon the premises, and the officer making the sale must be present and personally receive the deposit. If there is more than one officer, the presence of one will be sufficient.

(4) Report; Ratification. A verified report of the sale must be promptly made to the court. Thereupon on motion and notice the court may, in its discretion, ratify the same with or without further notice. If the sale be ratified, settlement must be made and the real estate conveyed by proper deed.

(5) Form of Order of Sale. The order of sale must not contain detailed directions as to the manner of proceeding, but must do so only by reference to this rule.

(6) Compensation of Auctioneer. The compensation of the auctioneer must be 1.5% of the first $10,000.00, plus 3/8 of 1% of any amount over $10,000.00 of the value of the equity in the property being sold. In the event that the property is unencumbered by indebtedness, the auctioneer's compensation must be computed and paid at the same rate upon the entire sales price. In no case will the auctioneer's compensation be less than $35.00 dollars unless the property is withdrawn after being offered for sale, in which event the auctioneer's compensation will be $25.00 dollars.

(c) PRIVATE SALE: PROCEDURE.

(1) Order for Sale. A private sale may be ordered after hearing of which notice to all parties and affected persons is given by publication or otherwise as the court may direct, if the court finds the best interests of the estate will be conserved thereby.

(2) Appraisers. Before confirmation of a private sale the court must appoint 3 disinterested persons to appraise the property, or different groups of 3 appraisers each to appraise properties of different classes or situated in different locations. Such appraisers must be licensed by the District of Columbia.

(3) Minimum Sale Price. A private sale may not be confirmed at less than 2/3 of the appraised value.

(4) Order Nisi Increased Offer; Confirmation. At least 14 days before confirmation of a private sale the terms thereof must be published in such newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the District of Columbia as the court may direct, and the sale must not then be confirmed if a bona fide offer has been made, under such conditions as the court may prescribe, which guarantees at least a 10% net increase over the price specified in such published offer.

(d) ACCOUNT; DISTRIBUTION OF PROCEEDS. Promptly after the settlement of a private or public sale made under this rule a full and detailed account must be filed and presented to the court and the proceeds distributed as the court has directed or may direct.

(e) COMPENSATION TO OFFICER MAKING SALE. The compensation of the trustee or officer making a sale hereunder must be 5% on the first $3,000.00, plus 2.5% on the next $10,000.00, plus 1% on any amount in excess of $13,000.00 of the value of the equity in the property being sold. In the event that the property is unencumbered by indebtedness, the compensation of the trustee or officer making the sale will be computed and paid at the same rate upon the entire sales price. The compensation may be increased or reduced by the court for special cause shown in writing.

(f) SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY. Unless otherwise herein provided, a sale of personal property under an order of this court is governed by 28 U.S.C. § 2004, in the same manner as if such provisions were, by the terms thereof, applicable to proceedings in this court. The officer making sale must account and distribute as provided by Rule C-5(d). The officer may be allowed compensation and expenses as determined by the court.

Rule C-6. Inventories and Accounts

(a) REQUIREMENTS. The conservator must file an inventory and accounts. Any inventory and account must comply with Rule 109 and must be accompanied by the form for reporting complete account numbers required by that rule.

(b) INVENTORY AND APPRAISALS.

(1) Time for Filing and Form. The inventory must be filed by the conservator within 90 days after the conservator's appointment. The inventory must be typed or electronically printed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form, and must be verified in the manner described in Rule 103(c). The inventory must be filed with appraisals as provided in Rule C-6(b)(2)-(3).

(2) Tangible Personal Property. Promptly upon qualification, the conservator must engage the services of a qualified appraiser to appraise all tangible personal property in the protected individual's estate if, in the judgment of the conservator, the value of property exceeds $1,000.00. Without the payment of additional court fees and subject to availability, the standing court appraiser may be engaged for this purpose. If the conservator believes that the tangible personal property is valued at $1,000.00 or less, the conservator must submit with the inventory an affidavit or declaration setting forth the description and value of the property.

(3) Valuation of Real Estate. The conservator may inventory real property at the value set by the District of Columbia for purposes of assessment and taxation for the fiscal year in which the guardian was appointed. If the conservator determines that any real property should be independently appraised, the fair market value must be determined by an appraiser selected by the conservator who is licensed by the District of Columbia.

(4) No Assets. If, at the time of the appointment of the conservator, the protected individual has no assets that can be collected, the conservator must file an affidavit or declaration in lieu of the inventory stating that the conservator has collected no assets. The affidavit or declaration must be filed within 90 days after the conservator's appointment.

(c) ACCOUNT.

(1) An account must be filed annually with the Register of Wills within 30 days after the anniversary date of the conservator's appointment. The account must be verified in the manner described in Rule 103(c). The account must contain an itemized statement of all receipts and disbursements for the accounting period. The account must be typed or electronically printed on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form, and must list with detailed particularity:

- (A) all real and personal assets of the estate and the value of each;
- (B) a statement of all receipts and disbursements;
- (C) any sale, transfer or other disposition of assets;
- (D) any investment, or change in form of assets;
- (E) the amount of the conservator's bond; and
- (F) the name of the surety.

(d) TERMINATION OF CONSERVATORSHIP; FINAL ACCOUNT. Upon the death of protected individual, the conservator must promptly file a notice of death. Upon termination by reason of the protected individual's restoration of capacity or death, or in the event of the conservator's death or incapacity, the conservator or the conservator's personal representative must file a final account within 60 days from the date of the event, except that the account is not due earlier than the date specified for filing of the inventory.

(e) NOTICE OF ACCOUNT.

(1) Within 7 days before or after filing of the account, the conservator must give notice of the filing to the protected individual, any adult having care and custody of the protected individual, and any other party. The notice must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form, and must be served by first class mail.

(2) The conservator must attach to the account a certification that the notice has been provided in accordance with this rule.

(f) DOCUMENTS REQUIRED FOR AUDIT. At the time of filing an account, the conservator must:

(1) exhibit all checking account bank statements and canceled checks or vouchers evidencing cash or electronic transactions during the accounting period;

(2) exhibit all passbooks, ledger sheets, statements or similar documents issued by a bank, trust company, savings and loan association, brokerage firm, mutual fund, or similar institution, or the U.S. Treasury reflecting the assets of the estate on deposit or on account therein, evidencing the transactions in such assets during the accounting period;

(3) where not otherwise ascertained in accordance with Rule C-6(f)(1) - (2) or (4), file a written statement by each depository of cash balances on deposit therein and of all other assets (except tangibles) carried in the account as of closing date of the accounting period; and

(4) either:

(A) exhibit certificates or other statement of account of custodian other than the guardian (e.g., bank, broker, mutual fund, U.S. Treasury) evidencing ownership of all securities held for future accounting; or

(B) if a corporation is acting as conservator or the services of a depository have been authorized, the corporation or other depository may submit an affidavit or declaration executed by an officer of the corporation or depository, other than the officer signing the account, verifying the correctness of the securities and cash accounts held for future accounting and the corporation's or depository's custody of the securities and accounts.

(g) AUDIT AND EXAMINATION. Upon filing of an annual account, the Register of Wills must promptly audit the account, examine all securities (except as provided in Rule C-6(f)(4)), check them with the account, and ascertain the correctness of all reported deposits. After determining that the account is complete and accurate in all respects, the Register of Wills must submit the account to the court for approval.

(h) OBJECTIONS TO ACCOUNT. The protected individual and any person entitled to receive notice of the filing of the account have 30 days from the date of the notice to file any objections to the account with the Register of Wills. Any objection must be served on the conservator and all persons entitled to receive the notice.

(i) STATEMENT OF DISTRIBUTION AND SETTLEMENT. Promptly after full distribution and settlement of an estate, the conservator must file with the Register of Wills receipts or canceled checks evidencing final distribution.

Rule C-7. Conflict of Interests

Whenever a conservator of the property and estate of an adult has occasion to sue or defend in behalf of the adult concerning a matter in which the conservator has a possible conflicting interest, the conservator must report the facts in writing to the court so that it may take appropriate action.

Rule C-8. Proceedings in Contested Cases

(a) COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION. An action to (1) contest a petition for the appointment of a conservator, (2) to remove a conservator, (3) for instructions, or (4) any other action regarding the conservator may be commenced by any party in interest by filing a verified complaint with the Register of Wills. Except as otherwise provided, the procedure in such actions, including service of process, is governed by the civil rules.

(b) SUMMONS. The Register of Wills must issue a summons upon the request of the plaintiff in the action. In an action brought pursuant to this rule to contest a petition for the appointment of, or to remove, a conservator or for instructions, the summons must be directed to all interested persons and all indispensable parties under Civil Rule 19. In any other action against the estate, the summons must only be directed to the conservator and may be directed to others. In such actions against an estate in which the interested persons are not named parties, the conservator must notify the interested persons of the pendency of the actions and of the right to intervene. The notice must be provided by first class mail within 21 days after service of the action; and the conservator must file a certificate reflecting service of the notice at the time of filing a response.

(c) DISCOVERY. When a complaint is filed pursuant to this rule, the parties may proceed with discovery pursuant to the civil rules.

(d) SCHEDULING AND SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE. Within 120 days after a complaint has been filed, the court must conduct an initial scheduling and settlement conference.

(e) OTHER CONTESTED MATTERS. All other contested matters which are not initiated by complaint, including objections to reports or petitions filed with the court, must be treated as motions. The court may permit discovery upon a showing of good cause.

Rule C-9. Compensation

(a) COMPENSATION FOR ORDINARY SERVICES. Compensation to a conservator for ordinary services is by commission which must not exceed 5% of amounts disbursed from the estate. Ordinary services are those normally performed by a fiduciary in administering such an estate and include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) qualification as the conservator;
- (2) collection of the protected individual's assets and income;
- (3) payment of the protected individual's debts and costs of maintenance, as authorized or ratified by the court;
- (4) general supervision of the protected individual's investments and policy relating thereto, including safekeeping; and
- (5) preparation and filing of all inventories, accounts, and reports to the court.

(b) TIME AND METHOD FOR CLAIMING COMPENSATION FOR ORDINARY SERVICES. A claim for commission for ordinary services may only be made in an annual account and, except as otherwise provided in these rules, no statement of services is required. The amount or percentage of commission claimed need only be reflected in the account itself.

(c) COMPENSATION FOR EXTRAORDINARY SERVICES. At the time of filing an annual account or at any other time upon the showing of good cause, a guardian may petition the court for compensation for extraordinary services rendered. Extraordinary services are in addition to those services set forth in Rule C-9(a). The petition must include the following:

- (1) statement of jurisdiction and controlling court rule;
- (2) statement of services rendered sufficiently complete on its face to establish that the requested payment is reasonable and, as appropriate, that the services are in fact extraordinary;
- (3) the time devoted thereto, and the normal hourly rate of the conservator, if any;
- (4) evidence of the necessity or purpose of the services;
- (5) results achieved, including the benefit to the estate or protected individual, if any;
- (6) statement of all prior allowances from the estate to the conservator or other fiduciary or counsel, to the extent known;

(7) the ability of the estate to meet future needs of the protected individual and to compensate fairly the conservator, and;

(8) statement that notice has been given and to whom given.

(d) TURNOVER COMMISSION. A turnover commission may be claimed in a conservator's final account not exceeding 5% of the net assets to be turned over to a successor fiduciary or to the former protected individual, as the case may be. A turnover commission is in addition to the commission for ordinary services based on disbursements actually made during the accounting period. As a general rule, no statement of services is required in support of a claim for a turnover commission. The amount and percentage claimed need only be reflected in the final account. The exceptions to this general rule are as follows:

(1) The Conservator's Death, Resignation or Incapacity. If services by the conservator are terminated by the conservator's death, resignation, or incapacity, a statement of services must be filed in support of the turnover commission claimed. That statement must indicate what has been done by the conservator, what remains to be done by the successor conservator, and such other information as would justify the commission claimed.

(2) The Protected Individual's Death or Restoration to Competency. If within 3 years of the conservator's appointment, a conservatorship terminates because of the protected individual's death or restoration to competency, and if the net assets to be turned over exceed $100,000.00, the conservator must either file a statement of services in support of the turnover commission claimed or apply for a waiver of the requirement for a statement of services by filing a written request with the court.

(e) COMPENSATION TO ATTORNEYS.

(1) Attorney Fees. At the time of the filing of an annual account or at any other time upon the showing of good cause, an attorney may petition for allowance of reasonable attorney's fees for preparing pleadings filed with the court and for other necessary legal services rendered to the conservator in the administration of the estate, including, but not limited to, instructing and advising the conservator in regard to applicable laws so that the conservator may properly administer the estate for which he or she is responsible and reviewing and advising with respect to inventories, accounts and other reports to the court to assure that they comply with the requirements of the law. A petition for fees for legal services in connection with the qualification of the conservator may be submitted at any time, however. The petition for fees must be accompanied by a statement of services which must include those matters set forth with respect to a petition for compensation for extraordinary services.

(2) Performance of Conservator's Ordinary Services; Assignment of Commission. If an attorney performs on behalf of a conservator any of the above ordinary services in administering the estate, the court may authorize the attorney to be compensated from the estate in the conservatorship proceeding only if a written assignment of the conservator's commission, in whole or in part, is filed with the court. Assignment of commission as used in this rule refers to those instances in which an attorney has, pursuant to an agreement with the conservator, performed some or all of the services normally expected of the conservator in administering the estate and has obtained an assignment from or written consent of the conservator to receive part or all of the conservator's commission as compensation for the attorney's services.

(f) NOTICE OF AND CONSENTS TO PETITIONS FOR COMPENSATION FOR EXTRAORDINARY SERVICES OR FOR ATTORNEY FEES. Notice of the filing of a petition for compensation for extraordinary services by the conservator or for attorney's fees (other than for ordinary commissions) and a copy of the petition must be given to the conservator (if appropriate) and to all other parties and affected persons as determined by the court by first class mail within 7 days before or after the filing. The petition must have attached to it a certification that copies and a notice of its filing have been provided in accordance with this rule.

(1) Form of Notice. The notice required must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form, and appended to the petition.

(2) Form of Consent. Consents to the petition must be on the form maintained by the Register of Wills or a form that is substantially similar in content and format to that form and, once filed, constitute a waiver of the right to object thereto.

(g) REFERENCE TO REGISTER OF WILLS OF PETITION FOR COMPENSATION FOR EXTRAORDINARY SERVICES OR FOR ATTORNEY FEES. All petitions for compensation to a fiduciary for extraordinary services and attorney's fees must be referred to the Register of Wills for appropriate recommendations.

(h) DISCRETION RESERVED TO THE COURT. The court may, at any time, require a statement of services or any additional verified documentation in determining an appropriate commission in any particular case.

(i) OBJECTIONS TO PETITION FOR COMPENSATION. Parties and affected persons may file an objection to the petition for compensation for extraordinary services by the conservator or for attorney's fees. The objection must be filed within 21 days after mailing of the petition and notice and must include specific statements of the grounds for contesting the petition. The objection must be mailed to the conservator and the conservator's attorney. If an objection is not filed within the prescribed time, the court may treat the petition as conceded. A party or affected person may specifically request an oral hearing by writing "Oral Hearing Requested" at the bottom of the objection above the signature, but the court, in its discretion, may decide the matter without a hearing.

COMMENT

No compensation will be awarded for supervision of a protected individual's person.

Generally, the preparation and filing of routine tax returns and accountings are considered to be ordinary services. If the services involved were in whole or in part extraordinary, compensation for such services may be claimed by petition pursuant to section (c) of this rule. If the conservator retains the services of a tax preparer, payment of the tax preparer's fee may be made subject to the requirement that expenditures be made only upon prior authorization of the court.

The court will be cautious in awarding turnover commissions claimed under subsection (d)(1) of this rule, by reason of the death, resignation or incapacity of a conservator. The court will take into account the fact that the protected individual's funds will be disbursed again and will reserve a sufficient portion of the commission as is likely, under the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to compensate the successor conservator fairly.

With respect to compensation for extraordinary services under this rule, the amount of commission for ordinary services will be taken into account, but not be the sole determining factor.

Conservators serve as officers of the court. There can be no assurance in any given case that a conservator will receive compensation or commissions which the conservator considers adequate.

Payments for attorney fees are independent of the conservator's commission for ordinary and extraordinary services and are designed to compensate the attorney for legal services consistent with the value of the services rendered and ability of the estate to pay. The fact that the conservator is an attorney will not preclude the conservator from petitioning for attorney fees for legal services rendered.

APPENDIX D. COMMUTATION OF DOWER

Rule D-1. Commutation of Dower

(a) IN GENERAL. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties or adjudged for good cause, the dower of a healthy person in land sold by judgment of the court is equal to 1/3 of the value of that person's life estate in the land, computed in accordance with the Probate Division rule governing computation of the allowance for a life estate.

(b) VALUATION DATE. For purposes of this rule, the valuation date is the first day of the month next preceding the month in which the initial pleading seeking commutation is filed.

COMMENT

Dower existed in the District of Columbia until April 26, 2001, the effective date of the Omnibus Trusts and Estates Amendment Act of 2000, which abolished dower.
