

COMMITTEE ON UNAUTHORIZED PRACTICE OF LAW VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The District of Columbia Court of Appeals is seeking applications to fill vacancies on its Committee on Unauthorized Practice of Law (CUPL). The CUPL is charged with enforcing the Court's Rule 49 concerning unauthorized practice, and with issuing opinions interpreting Rule 49. CUPL Members conduct investigations and participate in compliance decisions. Members are appointed to three-year terms, which can be renewed, and must belong to the D.C. Bar. The CUPL ordinarily meets on the second Thursday of each month from 12:30 to 2:00 p.m.

Individuals who wish to be considered should send a résumé and cover letter by Friday, July 30, 2021
