

David M. Schoenfeld is a Partner in the Washington, D.C. Office. He has more than twenty five years of experience in workers' compensation insurance defense matters and in the representation of home builders in construction related concerns. Mr. Schoenfeld has represented large national carriers, local carriers, self-insured's and home builders before administrative agencies, court trials and before the appellate courts in Maryland and the District of Columbia. Many appellate matters he has handled have positively impacted the interpretation of the law in his practice area. Mr. Schoenfeld is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Madison (1987), and the University Of Maryland School Of Law, with Honors (1990). While in law school, Mr. Schoenfeld served as an Asper Fellow for the Honorable Joseph Howard, Judge on the Federal District Court in Baltimore. Bar admissions include the Supreme Court of the United States, Maryland Court of Appeals, District of Columbia Court of Appeals, Federal District Court of Maryland, and Federal District Court for the District of Columbia.

Mr. Schoenfeld served for three years as the President of the Associate of Compensation Insurance Attorneys, Co-chaired the Workers' Compensation Section for the Montgomery County Bar Association and served as the Section Chair for the Law Firm Management Section for the Montgomery County Bar Association for three years. Mr. Schoenfeld was honored to have been selected as a Bar Leader of the Montgomery County Bar Association. He appears regularly as a Host of the Law School for the Public Television Program. In addition, he serves as a volunteer Montgomery County Circuit Court Judge for Teen Court, a juvenile diversionary justice program administered by the State's Attorney's Office.

Mr. Schoenfeld is Martindale Hubbell Peer Review "AV" (Preeminent) rated; AVVO "Superb" 10/10 rated and has been selected as a 2014 Washington DC Super Lawyer. He has been selected as a presenter at numerous continuing education seminars.