Step by Step Guide to Guardianships of Estates of Minors

A guardianship of the estate of a minor (a person who is not yet 18) is begun when a minor who resides in the District of Columbia is to receive an asset, such as an inheritance, the proceeds of an insurance policy, or the settlement of a lawsuit. According to D.C. Code, sec. 21-120, a person may not receive money on behalf of a minor or in satisfaction of a judgment in favor of a minor when the net value is more than $3,000.00 unless the person has been appointed guardian of the minor.

The petition for guardianship of the minor's estate and other supporting documents are filed with the Probate Division of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. The forms are located at www.dccourts.gov/internet/public/aud_probate/minor.jsp in the section titled Guardianship of Minor's Estates and are interactive. They can be completed online but must be printed out for filing. A list of the forms required in different situations is included in Section B of this booklet.

When the documents are ready to be filed, the petitioner (i.e., the person asking to be appointed guardian or asking that a guardian be appointed), the minor, and counsel of record, if any, must appear before an Assistant Deputy Register of Wills in the Probate Division for a brief interview so that the forms can be reviewed before filing.

Guardianship proceedings are governed by Chapter 1 of Title 21 of the 2001 edition of the District of Columbia Code, which can be found at http://dccouncil.us/legislation. The Probate Division Rules regarding guardianship proceedings are available on the Probate Division website at http://www.dccourts.gov/internet/documents/SuperiorCourtRulesForTheProbateDivision.pdf.

After an order of appointment is issued, the guardian must file an inventory listing all the assets of the minor's estate within 90 days and an account once a year, no later than 30 days from the anniversary of the date of the appointment. Information regarding preparation of these filings is contained in the Inventory and Accounting Guide, which can be viewed at http://www.dccourts.gov/internet/legal/aud_probate/brochvideo.jsf
Note that no funds of the minor may be spent without prior Court approval except to pay Court costs of the guardianship, bond premiums for the guardian, and income taxes on the funds of the minor that are under the control of the guardian.

Please be advised that neither the Register of Wills nor any member of her staff is permitted to give legal advice. If help is needed to prepare or complete petitions for guardianship or any other pleadings or papers to be filed in the Probate Division, consult an attorney.
