

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

ORDER

(Amended 8/13/20)

By Order issued on March 18, 2020, and reaffirmed on May 29, 2020, the Joint Committee of Judicial Administration authorized the Chief Judge to issue orders extending the period during which deadlines are suspended, tolled, and extended for all statutory and rules-based time limits in the D.C. Code, and the Superior Court Rules, during the current judicial emergency and consistent with the best interest of the administration of justice.

By Orders issued March 18, 2020, March 19, 2020, May 14, 2020, and June 19, 2020 the Chief Judge ordered that (except as otherwise specified) all deadlines and time limits in statutes, court rules, and standing and other orders issued by the Court that would otherwise expire before June 19, 2020 including statutes of limitations, are suspended, tolled, and extended during the period of the current judicial emergency. As indicated in that order, the deadlines and time limits may be further suspended, tolled, and extended as circumstances change. Suspension, tolling, and extension will continue to the extent specified in this Order until at least November 9, 2020. The Court will provide at least 60 days' notice before ending all suspension, tolling, and extension of deadlines.

The Court is expanding the types and number of cases it will hear through November 9, 2020.

To ensure the safety and well-being of Court staff, counsel, parties, and members of the public, all case types will be heard remotely, except for a limited number of Criminal Division hearings, which will be partially remote.

To the extent that a case type has not been identified below, all nonpriority matters scheduled through November 9, 2020, will be rescheduled and new dates set; emergency matters will be heard as scheduled by the Court and as set forth below. Presiding Judges will issue additional orders, as necessary, setting forth the matters to be heard.

No attorney or persons should enter the courthouse with symptoms of COVID-19.

See <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/about/symptoms.html>

Any party may seek relief from these changes by filing a motion with the appropriate division.

All Divisions and the Family Court will be open in a remote status for filing of pleadings, motions, and new cases. Electronic filing will continue. See the Clerk's Offices Remote Operations Notices for detailed information.

The Court is now accepting electronic payments in certain circumstances. For more specific information, see <https://www.dccourts.gov/services/online-payment>.

When permitted by law, members of the public may have real-time access to remote hearings. Information about the process for listening to live remote proceedings are posted on the Court's website.

<https://www.dccourts.gov/services/remote-hearing-information>

The Court will make additional adjustments as circumstances warrant. Most courtrooms can be used for remote operations, and the Court will equip the remaining courtrooms as soon as possible. As additional courtrooms are made available, the Presiding Judges for each Division will announce other matters that may be scheduled and heard.

The Court will operate primarily remotely under the following conditions:

CIVIL DIVISION

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, all deadlines and time limits in statutes (including statute of limitations), court rules, and standing and other orders issued by the Court that would otherwise expire during the period of emergency are suspended, tolled and extended during the period of emergency, with the following exceptions: (1) deadlines applicable to parties represented by counsel in pending cases, except deadlines for service of process; (2) discovery-related deadlines applicable to all parties, including parties not represented by counsel; and (3) deadlines in scheduling orders issued after March 18, 2020.

The Civil Division will operate as follows:

- Both judges and division staff continue to work remotely. Judges will conduct remote hearings five days per week in virtual courtrooms. No parties or attorneys should appear in person unless specifically directed to do so by a judge.
- Any emergency motion must be electronically filed and emailed to Civilefilings@dcsc.gov.
- The Civil Division may conduct remote non-jury trials with appropriate notice to the parties. Until further order, the Civil Division will not conduct jury trials. When the Civil Division schedules in-court jury or non-jury trials, it will either schedule the trial during a hearing with all parties present or issue written notice 30 days before any in-court, non-jury trial and 60 days before any jury trial to provide counsel and parties time to subpoena witnesses and prepare for trial.
- The Civil Division will conduct remote hearings, including evidentiary hearings and bench trials, in any case where it is appropriate.
- All evictions, foreclosure proceedings, and debt collection proceedings are stayed to the extent required by statute.

- The Civil Division may conduct remote hearings or rule on ripe motions in eviction, foreclosure, and debt collection cases that are not stayed. These matters include Small Claims matters that are not subject to the General Order Regarding Debt Collection Cases issued on May 7, 2020 or the statutory moratorium for debt collection cases and Landlord and Tenant matters that are not subject to the statutory moratorium, and such other motion hearings or short evidentiary hearings as may be appropriate including hearings on service of process, ex parte proof, and protective orders.
- While the Court has limited ability to accept in-person payments required by a protective order, the tenant shall make a non-cash payment by one of the following methods: (1) mailing the payment to the Landlord and Tenant Clerk’s Office, 510 4th Street NW, Room 110, Washington, DC 20001; (2) depositing the payment in the drop box in the lobby of the Moultrie Courthouse located at 500 Indiana Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20001; (3) making the payment electronically through the court’s portal, provided that the total monthly payment does not exceed $1,000. Please see the Notice of the Clerk’s Offices Operations for instructions about electronic payments: <https://www.dccourts.gov/sites/default/files/Superior-Court-Clerks-Offices-Remote-Operations.pdf>. Cash payments can be accepted on a limited basis at the courthouse. Please see the Notice of the Clerk’s Offices for more information about dates and times (click on the link above). A tenant may make a payment directly to the landlord, and a landlord’s acceptance of a direct payment will not prejudice the landlord’s ability to prosecute the action. If a tenant does not obtain a modification of a protective order and does not make a payment either into the Court registry or directly to a landlord during the emergency, and if a landlord then seeks sanctions, the Court will consider, in addition to other relevant circumstances, exigent circumstances relating to the public health emergency.

- Notwithstanding anything in Administrative Order 06-17 affidavits of service may be filed electronically during the period of the emergency.
- Notwithstanding anything in Administrative Order 15-03, applications to amend vital records, including name changes, and other matters heard by Judge in Chambers may be filed electronically during the period of the emergency once configured with CaseFileXpress.
- Notwithstanding anything in Rule 5 and 5-III, documents may be filed electronically in cases under seal which contain and SLD in the case number (e.g. 2020 CABSLD 000001) during the period of emergency. Sealed and unredacted documents in an otherwise unsealed case must continue to be submitted in paper to the clerk’s office by mail or via the drop box.
- To facilitate remote hearings, the Civil Division encourages all parties to contact the Civil Division Clerk’s Offices to provide contact information, including any telephone numbers and email addresses where parties can be reached. Please call the number listed below to provide your contact information or that of any other parties.
