

SUPPLEMENT TO GENERAL ORDER
JUDGE JULIET J. MCKENNA
CIVIL CALENDAR 13
Effective January 3, 2022 (modified April 21, 2022)

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

Judge: Juliet J. McKenna

Chambers: Suite 1500, Moultrie Building
500 Indiana Avenue N.W.
Washington, DC 20001

Chambers telephone: 202-879-0422

Email address: JudgeMcKennaChambers@dcsc.gov

Law Clerks: Sara Strei (sara.strei@dcsc.gov)
Erin Steiger (erin.steiger@dcsc.gov)

Judicial Admin Asst: Rhonda Young (rhonda.young@dcsc.gov)

Courtroom: Courtroom 519, Moultrie Building
500 Indiana Avenue N.W.
Washington, DC 20001

During the period of remote operation, as determined by the Chief Judge of the Superior Court, all proceedings in matters on Calendar 13, except for jury trials, will take place in Virtual Courtroom 519, which the parties and counsel may access in the following ways:

- (1) going to the WebEx website at <https://dccourts.webex.com/meet/ctb519> or going to <https://dccourts.webex.com> and entering meeting ID number 129 705 0412; or
- (2) downloading the WebEx Meetings app, opening the app, selecting Join Meeting, and entering <https://dccourts.webex.com/meet/ctb519>; or
- (3) calling 1-844-992-4726 or 202-860-2110 and entering meeting ID number 129 705 0412.

Parties having trouble connecting to their remote hearing may call chambers at 202-879-0422 for assistance. Failure to appear at a remote proceeding may result in the same sanctions as would result from failing to appear at an in-person hearing, including dismissal of a case or entry of default.

NOTE: Counsel is required to appear via WebEx video and log in so that their name appears on screen, absent extenuating circumstances that make it necessary for them to appear via telephone, or unless telephonic appearance is approved by Chambers prior to the hearing. All other parties are highly encouraged, but not required, to appear via WebEx video and identify themselves by name.

When entering the virtual courtroom, each party should mute themselves, or will be automatically muted by the courtroom clerk, to avoid interrupting another hearing that may be underway. If using the WebEx website or the app, parties may check in with the courtroom clerk using the “chat” function. Parties accessing the hearing by telephone only should wait for their case to be called before speaking.

Judge McKenna enforces the rule on witnesses for all virtual bench trials and other evidentiary proceedings. Accordingly, each party is responsible for ensuring that their non-party witnesses are not logged into the evidentiary proceeding at any point other than when they are testifying. In addition, parties are reminded that Administrative Order 20-08 strictly forbids the audio and/or video recording of virtual hearings, including the taking of screenshots; individuals found in violation of this order may be subject to contempt of court.

II. WEEKLY SCHEDULE

Unless otherwise directed, matters on Calendar 13 will take place as follows:

Pretrial/Settlement Conferences: Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays at 9:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Trials: Mondays through Thursdays from 9:30 a.m. until 4:45 p.m.

Scheduling Conferences and other matters: Fridays beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Motions Hearings: As scheduled by Chambers.

III. SCHEDULING PRAECIPES

Notwithstanding the earlier deadline set forth in Rule 16(b) of the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure, Judge McKenna will accept a Praecipe Requesting Scheduling Order (Civil Action Form 113) filed by 12:00 p.m. one day before the date of the scheduling conference. In cases in which all parties are represented by counsel and there are no pending motions or other matters requiring the Court's attention, Judge McKenna strongly encourages attorneys to consult with opposing counsel and submit a CA Form 113 rather than appearing for a scheduling conference.

IV. MOTIONS

Consent to motions: The title of every motion must indicate whether the motion is opposed or consented to/unopposed. Judge McKenna strictly enforces the requirement in Rule 12-I(a) that, before a party files a motion, it must seek the consent of other parties, include a certification that consent was sought and indicate whether the other parties consent to the requested relief. Judge McKenna may summarily deny a motion that does not contain the requisite certification, and if the party chooses to refile the motion with a certification, it will pay another $20 filing fee.

Proposed order: Administrative Order 06-17 requires that a party eFiling a motion include as part of the submission a proposed order in a format that can be edited (Word or Word Perfect). Counsel's adherence to this requirement assists the Court in ruling on motions and informing counsel of the Court's decision in an expeditious manner. Judge McKenna may summarily deny a motion that is not accompanied by a proposed order in the required format.

Length of filings: No party may submit a motion or opposition with a legal memorandum exceeding fifteen double-spaced pages in length without obtaining leave of Judge McKenna. If a party fails to comply with these requirements, the motion may be summarily denied or struck.

Paper copies: During the period of remote operation, Judge McKenna has suspended the requirement in Administrative Order 06-17 that a party provide a paper copy of any filing that exceeds twenty-five pages in length. Parties shall instead submit a courtesy copy of any such filing (including any exhibits and attachments) to JudgeMcKennaChambers@dcsc.gov.

Reply briefs: A party may file a reply as permitted in Rule 12-I(g). No party may submit a reply to an opposition that is more than seven pages long without leave of the court. Sur-replies may not be filed without leave of the court.

Motions in Limine: To the extent practicable, Judge McKenna will generally rule on motions in limine at or before the pretrial conference. In accordance with the deadline set forth in Rule 16(d), parties shall file motions in limine at least three weeks before the pretrial conference. Oppositions to such motions should be filed no later than one week before the pretrial conference.

Motions to reschedule hearings: Any motion to reschedule a hearing or mediation session must suggest three alternative dates and times at which all counsel, unrepresented parties and other necessary parties will be available.

Consolidated Motions: A party ordinarily should raise in one motion all grounds for the relief it seeks. For example, a party should file one summary judgment motion or one motion in limine, even if the party seeks summary judgment on multiple grounds or pretrial rulings on multiple issues. If a consolidated motion exceeds the court's usual page limit, the party may file, with the consolidated motion, a motion for leave to file a brief exceeding the page limit. Such requests are ordinarily granted if reasonable because consolidated motions are more efficient and require fewer total pages than separate motions.

Emergency Motions: Judge McKenna expects parties to request expedited action only in truly urgent situations. A party filing an emergency motion must send a courtesy copy of the motion and the proposed order (in a format that can be edited) by email to JudgeMcKennaChambers@dcsc.gov and to the other parties.

E-Filed Motions: It takes time for e-filed motions and other filings to reach chambers; it may take up to three business days for the Clerk's Office to process filings. A lawyer or party who has a question about the status of a pending motion should check online at <http://www.dccourts.gov>, contact the Clerk's Office at (202) 879-1133, or check CaseFileXpress.com, prior to contacting Chambers.

V. DISCOVERY

Motions to Compel Discovery: Rules 26(h) and 37(a) require the parties to meet for a reasonable period of time in an effort to resolve or narrow any discovery dispute and include a certification regarding such a meeting in discovery-related motions. If a party submits a discovery-related motion without a certification, Judge McKenna may summarily deny the motion and if the party chooses to refile the motion with a certification, it will pay another $20 filing fee. During the ongoing public health emergency, all in-person meet and confer requirements may be satisfied by virtual or telephonic meetings.

Before filing a motion related to a discovery dispute, the moving party must communicate with the opposing party to suggest dates and times for a hearing on the motion, and the motion must include three proposed dates and times at which all counsel, unrepresented parties and other necessary parties will be available.

Judge McKenna will presumptively award attorney's fees and any costs associated with litigating the motion to the prevailing party, pursuant to Rule 37(a)(5); parties should bring documentation of their fees to any hearing on the motion. The parties are encouraged to resolve discovery disputes prior to any discovery hearing, and the moving party may file a praecipe withdrawing the motion to compel if parties are able to reach resolution.

VI. PRETRIAL CONFERENCES AND PRETRIAL STATUS HEARINGS

Non-party principals: Except in extraordinary circumstances with prior judicial approval, non-party principals with settlement authority must attend all mediation sessions and pretrial or settlement conferences. Any request to excuse a non-party principal should be made by motion at least two weeks prior to the scheduled event.

Joint Pretrial Statements: Rule 16(e) requires the filing of a joint pretrial statement no later than one week before the pretrial conference. Judge McKenna may sua sponte cancel and continue the pretrial conference if the parties have not timely filed a joint pretrial statement that satisfies the requirements of Rule 16(e).

Pretrial status hearing: At the pretrial conference, the Court will schedule a trial date as well as a trial readiness hearing to occur approximately two weeks prior to trial. Counsel and unrepresented parties are required to attend the trial readiness hearing and be prepared to discuss voir dire questions and procedures, scheduling concerns, any outstanding evidentiary issues, and other matters requiring the Court's attention prior to trial. A walk-through may also be scheduled the day prior to jury selection so that the parties may familiarize themselves with the modifications necessitated by the ongoing public health emergency.

VII. LANGUAGE ACCESS

The Court provides professional interpreters in all matters, when needed. The party requiring an interpreter must notify the Court before any hearing at which an interpreter will be needed. Family members, friends, lawyers, or lawyers' staff are not permitted to interpret for parties or witnesses during a hearing.

VII. D.C. BAR VOLUNTARY STANDARDS OF CIVILITY IN PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

Attorneys are expected to adhere to these Standards in their dealings with one another and with other participants in the legal process. The Standards may be found on the D.C. Bar's Website: www.dcbart.org/for-lawyers/legal-ethics/d-c-bar-voluntary-standards-of-civility-in-profess.

Judge McKenna and her Chamber's staff express their appreciation in advance for compliance with this Supplement to the General Order.
