

Rule 2. Purpose and Construction

These Rules are intended to provide for the just determination of every neglect and abuse proceeding. To the extent feasible, they shall be construed together with other Court Rules to facilitate the consolidated adjudication of related matters involving the same family or household.